LACK OF HARMONY.

Binger Hermann, who has long been one of Oregon's most honored citizens, and now commissioner of the general land office, expresses himself as being dismayed with the lack of harmony which exists in the Republican organization in Multnomah county. He writes:

I have just been informed of the proceedings of the conventions in Oregon, and I discover many surprises. The worst feature is the discord and factious fighting, which seems to be regarded as legitimate at the present time; but if victory is to be sought for, I cannot possibly see why there is not more self-sacrifice and a higher spirit pervading our Republican friends toward reconciliation and unanimity. If at any time we should have a cheering word from Oregon, it should be at the present moment.

It is true the situation is one which never should have occurred, and never would have had it not been for the presumptuous bossism of several so-called leaders of the Republican party. The worst of these political magnates has been and is Joseph Simon, and there never can be the desired harmony as long as he retains control of the politics of the state. It would be better far if new men were placed in positions of leadership; men whose political characters are less offensive to the great body of voters in the state.

Now is the time to show a spirit of conciliation, and the wisest thing which Simon and his followers could do is to meet the requests of the anti-Simon men half way and win them back to an earnest and hearty support of the Republican organization in Multnomah county.

If this be done, Republican success is certain throughout the state, and the feeling of soreness will be greatly allayed. The Republican party should seek to win every vote it can get, and not drive them away.

The eastern wool market is not so strong in prices as it was a while ago; but this condition is not a surprising one. Just before the new clip comes in prices are naturally unsettled; but when the amount of wool in the country is known, prices will adjust themselves and will rise to their expected level. Good wool in The Dalles will be worth at least fifteen cents a pound before two months have passed. Many stockmen of conservative judgment expect the price to go higher than this.

A joint discussion between T. T. Geer and W. R. King, the Republican and fusion candidates for governor, has been proposed. It is hard to believe Mr. King would consent to such an arrangement, for if he does, Geer's election by a large-sized majority is assured. There is not a man in the state who can get the better of him in debate, least of all the youthful candidate from Baker county. A joint discussion between Geer and King would be great fun for Geer.

THE CHRONICLE is aiming to furnish its readers with the very latest news. To do this necessitates the expenditure of a considerable amount of money and labor. We trust the same appreciation which has already been expressed will continue.

Portugal seems inclined to sympathize with Spain. This is not surprising, and will make but little difference. When the war blood of the United States is thoroughly aroused and the great resources of this nation drawn upon, it will take more than a dozen Portugals and Spain to be a match for the American people.

Blanco says he is going to punish the American warships. Whatever punishment done will be inflicted upon the murderers of the American sailors in Havana harbor. "Remember the Maine" is the watchword.

The Shakers of Mount Lebanon, a community of simple, honest, God-fearing men and women, have prepared the Shaker Digestive Cordial for many years, and it is always the same, simple, honest, curative medicine that has helped to make the Shakers the healthy, long-lived people that they are. The Shakers never have indigestion. This is partly owing to their simple mode of life, partly to the wonderful properties of Shaker Digestive Cordial. Indigestion is caused by the stomach glands not supplying enough digestive juice. Shaker Digestive Cordial supplies what's wanting. Shaker Digestive Cordial invigorates the stomach and all its glands so that after awhile they don't need help. As evidence of the honesty of Shaker Digestive Cordial, the formula is printed on every bottle. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 a bottle. For Sale Cheap.
