Monday night a carload of horses was shipped to Walla Walla to be put to work on the O. R. & N. track near that city. The contract to furnish them was held by Hugh Glenn, of this city.

Already the warehouses in Pendleton are being filled with wool. At the Furnish warehouse there is 100,000 pounds, and Saturday several heavily loaded wagons drove up and were unloaded. The manager at the storehouse says the wool has just begun to arrive, and that a large crop is expected.

The new ferry boat is rapidly nearing completion and is ready to receive the machinery, which will be put in within the next few days. The ferry which is run at present does not fill the bill as well as it might and it will be a relief to those who have to use the ferry when the new boat is put into service.

Two valuable milk cows belonging to N. Whalson, were killed by the train Monday above this city. They were out with the herd and were feeding along the track when the train struck them. The company will have to stand the damage, but it is hard to get good milk cows and the loss is a serious one for this reason.

Since January 1, one firm in Coquille has purchased and shipped 8800 dozen eggs, an average of about 506 dozen per week. The Coos county hens are doing their part toward making good times.

Lieutenant Bartell came up on the Spokane local yesterday evening and will remain a few days. He says that he will, in all probability, hold his present position in Company L, in which the Dalles boys are at present. The boys are elated over the Philippines, and will feel disappointed if they are not sent to that post.

Yesterday Chas. Stabling received a letter from his son, Arthur, in which he states that he has been appointed to the rank of commissary sergeant. This is a good appointment for a young man who has so recently enlisted, and we trust that if the war does not end sooner than expected, he will receive still higher honors in his company.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Vernon Paul, who now has charge of the Covington place, near this city, brought to this office the first strawberries of the season, and they were delicious. The first to ripen on the place were picked last Thursday. The strawberry season is about two weeks earlier this year than usual, and from present indications we are to have an abundance.

F. X. Schoonmaker, who was billed to speak in Weinhard's hall at Oregon City Saturday evening, did not arrive in the state in time to meet the engagement. He will speak here later in the campaign. Wednesday afternoon, he will speak at Eagle Creek. Mr. Schoonmaker spoke in this city in the campaign of 1896, and we hope he will speak in our city again before returning to his home in New Jersey.

The scow which is being built for Captain Donovan was launched yesterday and after the mast has been set in place and some other fixtures arranged it will be ready to go into service in hauling wood from down river points. In a short time Peter's new scow will be ready to be put into service also. These two will take the place of the Wasco and Interstate in transporting wood from points down the river.

The young men of Milton, in Umatilla county, have organized themselves into a company, and are being drilled in military tactics by Marshal J. F. Campbell and W. H. Bailey, the latter a veteran of the civil war. The boys have neither arms nor uniforms, but, with the zeal of sons of 1776, they are taking the best at hand and present a very warlike appearance as they go through the various maneuvers, armed with a miscellaneous assortment of guns and with banners flying.

Lincoln county is preparing for another big crop. Increased acreage in wheat is noticed upon all sides. Most of the farmers are through seeding, and those having wheat on hand are rushing it to market to be disposed of at the present high prices. Local buyers are doing active bidding in trying to secure the remainder of last year's crop. The Farmer's warehouse and Sprague roller mills, in Sprague, are getting the bulk of the present delivery, with purchases about even. The Sprague roller mills are running day and night, and from present indications will continue double time throughout the year, as the local trade is gaining and the foreign demand for its product is steadily on the increase.

Northport, Washington, is in ruins. Of the entire business district nothing remains but ashes. More than 40 buildings went up in smoke yesterday morning, causing a loss of about $100,000. Dozens of people are homeless today, and scores are penniless. Of all the buildings on the flat, but two are left standing—the Spokane and Northern depot and Kendrick's store. The fire is supposed to have been caused by some careless smoker casting a cigar stump on the carpet in a little barber shop where the fire originated.

Decorate Your Houses.

In two weeks the G. A. R. encampment will take place and we hope to see our city clad in holiday attire. The committee on decorations will do all in their power to induce our people to decorate their homes and places of business and a great many have signified their willingness to decorate freely.

At present our lawns and residences are beautiful, and a little decorating would add much to the appearance of the city.

At such a time as this a splendid opportunity is offered to impress a number of people from other places with the city's appearance, and we sincerely hope that for the sake of a trivial expense, it will not be left without suitable decorations.

MILITIA COMPANY ORGANIZING.

Our Dalles Boys Will Have Another Company Ready Soon.

A number of our boys, the majority of whom are under 21 years of age, are at present organizing a militia company at this place.

Hal French, who has spent four years in military school and who holds the rank of lieutenant in the regular army, will act as trainer, while Adjutant Riddell, of the O. N. G., will also assist in the instructing the boys.

A meeting was held at the Vogt last evening and the above named gentlemen explained the duties and obligations which would be imposed upon the boys who join such a company, and the following petition to Governor Lord was proposed and signed by those present:

"We, the undersigned, residents of the third military district, and subject to military duty, respectfully apply to be organized into a militia company under the laws of Oregon and regulations of the Oregon National Guard:

"Edward Baldwin, Roy Grimes, Elias Campbell, C. W. Riddell, Joseph W. McArthur, J. B. Pruyne, Alfred Huott, Owen Brown, Clay C. Uren, Francis M. Sexton, Neal Bandy, Frank Sylvestre, Claude Kelsay, James Cooper, Charles Schmidt, Eugene Moore, Carl Groehler, Garfield Moore, Rue Miller, Hugh Hagan, Willie Michelbach, J. L. Fritz, Ernest Hobbiegh, Harold Thompson, George Bills, Vernon Cooks, Roy Emerson, Chris Schwabe, Carey Jenkins, Ed Jenkins, Ivan Oakes, Irvine Parkins, Rex Ward."

A number of others who were not present last night will sign, and the company when complete will consist of over 40 members.

This move on the part of our boys shows the desire they have to serve their country when it is in need.

A COMMENDABLE EXPERIMENT.

Seufert Bros. Will Make a Series of Experiments in Fruit Canning.

It is the intention of Seufert Bros. during the coming summer to experiment in canning fruit at their place near this city, and if the experiment proves satisfactory they will construct a fruit cannery on a big scale.

Their experiment will be on the various kinds of fruit, but the principal fruit which they will can should they start up their establishment will be peaches.

They raise a large quantity of the above fruit annually, and before they have time to ship the different varieties to the eastern markets they are over ripe and consequently many rot on the ground. If their cannery scheme proves successful they will not only be able to use up their own fruit, but also much of that of other fruit raisers. This is a commendable enterprise and we sincerely hope not only that it will be successful, but that like moves will be made by other enterprising business men of this city.

Hon. T. T. Geer was given a rousing reception at Toledo Monday night, when he delivered his initial speech of the campaign in the courthouse, which was beautifully decorated with American flags, bunting and evergreens. The crowd was equal in number to half the voters in Lincoln county, and gave earnest attention to the speaker. People from Elk City and the county began arriving early in the day, and at 8 o'clock

T. M. Richardson brought a wagon load from Newport and Yaquina City. There were some present from the Valley. W. R. King, fusion candidate for governor, was not present. This was a disappointment to others as well as to Mr. Geer. The speaker expressed regret at his opponent's absence. Reference to the Spanish war and the patriotism of the American navy met with storms of applause. Free Cuba and T. T. Geer songs, composed for the occasion by Wesley Dacia, were sung. The meeting was the biggest political demonstration in the history of Lincoln county. The Rosebrook band furnished music.

In an interview yesterday, General H. C. Merriam, commanding the department of the Columbia, confirmed the news that Colonel Thomas M. Anderson and companies A and G, now stationed at Dyes, Alaska, would be recalled. The order was issued yesterday, and the troops are expected to arrive in Portland within twenty days. He also confirmed the report of the receipt of orders to recruit the Fourteenth infantry to a war footing. Seven hundred and forty-eight men will be added to the regiment. Besides these, forty men will be added to troop E, Fourth cavalry, stationed at Portland.

H. C. Rooper and wife, of Ridgeway, arrived on the boat from Portland last night. They were accompanied Mr. Rooper's brother and his wife and daughter, of London, England, who will visit here for a few days.

Edward Lage, formerly of this place, passed through this city on last night's train, on his way to Chicago to visit friends.

Nashville and Roseburg, 1898.

The attention of the Christian Endeavorers of the World is being directed to Nashville as it was a year ago to San Francisco, and one of the greatest meetings in the history of this great movement is assured. Oregon endeavorers are looking especially toward Roseburg at this time, where their annual state convention will be held May 12th to 15th. Preparations are now being made in that lively burg for the reception and care of all the delegates who may find it possible to attend. Such a reception is promised as has never been attempted by any entertaining city in Oregon. The program as outlined is one of the best they have ever been able to offer, and as no limit is placed on the number who may attend, a successful meeting is already assured.
