SECRETARY DAY'S OPPORTUNITY

During the present war the responsibilities of our diplomacy will be little less onerous than those of our army and navy. Already the problems are looming up on the horizon of European politics, says the Inter Ocean. The concert of the powers in the White House, the constant fulminations from Vienna and Paris regarding American aggression, the studied reticence of the office in Berlin, and the peculiar notes forthcoming daily from the Tory organs of London concerning our greed of land and power, are unquestionable omens of a troubled future in our diplomatic relations.

From day to day as the war proceeds we shall be made to feel the pressure of European influence. We shall receive advice, warning and protest, and we shall be fortunate if we do not find ourselves more than once the object of a menacing statement or declaration. Not for an hour, from the present moment until the treaty of peace is signed and executed, will our government be allowed to forget that the powers of Middle and Western Europe have adopted toward us a well-defined policy of repression.

And why? Not because they fear, as did a Russian czar, that the American factor may become potent in European politics, nor because they think our cause unjust and our interference unwarranted. Such remote and immaterial reasons may be put forward as motives, but they are in fact mere excuses. What the European powers really fear is that the United States, in the elation of victory or in wise provision against future annoyance, may take for itself some piece of territory which they themselves covet. It requires no diplomatic astuteness to recognize this fact. Everybody with even a desultory knowledge of current political literature abroad must perceive it.

An American diplomat said a few years ago: "Central and South America would be a delightful grazing ground for the colonial enthusiasts of Europe—much more so than Africa or Asia—and it is our duty to keep them out." We can keep them out, if to the proper determination, we add the possession or control of Cuba and Porto Rico, thus gaining a command of the Caribbean and the Gulf of Mexico. All Europe, except Russia, is bent upon preventing us from gaining this command. Hence the unsympathetic attitude of the powers toward us now, and hence the omens of remonstrance, advice, warning and protest to come as the war goes on.

The imperative duty of the state department will be to protect American interests for the duration of hostilities and to assure them for the generations that would derive increasing prosperity and power from an advantageous treaty of peace. It is not an easy duty for an untried man like the new secretary of state, but, if properly discharged, it will place his name side by side with Marcy's, Webster's and Seward's in the list of American statesmen who have preserved America for the Americans, and to the ugliest face of European diplomacy have presented the indomitable front of the doctrine of Monroe.

The subscription list of THE CHRONICLE has greatly increased since it began its morning issue. As an advertising medium it is none better in Eastern Oregon, and the merchants of this city who wish to draw trade from Wasco, Sherman, Crook and Klickitat counties, will find advertising in THE CHRONICLE a paying investment.

The Shakers of Mount Lebanon, a community of simple, honest, God-fearing men and women, have prepared the Shaker Digestive Cordial for many years, and it is always the same, simple, honest, curative medicine that has helped to make the Shakers the healthy, long-lived people that they are. The Shakers never have indigestion. This is partly owing to their simple mode of life, partly to the wonderful properties of Shaker Digestive Cordial. Indigestion is caused by the stomach glands not supplying enough digestive juice. Shaker Digestive Cordial supplies what's wanting. Shaker Digestive Cordial invigorates the stomach and all its glands so that after awhile they don't need help. As evidence of the honesty of Shaker Digestive Cordial, the formula is printed on every bottle. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 a bottle.

Sheep marking paint; ready for use. Two colors, black and red. Why you should use our sheep paint. First, because the colors are ground thoroughly in pure linseed oil by fine machinery; second, because it is made of high grade color, with the proper amount of driers added to give it binding and lasting qualities, which prevent it from washing or rubbing off; third, it is much more economical, because it is always ready for use. We guarantee our sheep marking paints to give satisfaction. Try it and be convinced. Clarke & Falk, agents, The Dalles, Or.
