County Superintendent Nowlin, of Umatilla, has completed a list for the apportionment of $15,700, county school funds. Warrants will be sent out in a few days. Each district will receive $50 and $2 for each pupil.

Jos. Sunderland has sold out his bowling alley in Hood River, after clearing several hundred dollars. He was making money, but the alley people in Portland offered him more if he would travel for them, and he of course accepted the proposition.

Yesterday a telephone message was received from one of the Dalles boys who are at Camp McKinley at present. He states that the boys expect to leave for San Francisco Monday and had hopes of seeing the Philippines before the war ends.

Yesterday a carload of fine fat hogs were fed at the stock yards in this city. They were shipped from Island City by Kittle Bros. to the Union Meat Co. at Troutdale. These gentlemen make regular shipments, and are realizing a good profit from the same.

While digging an irrigation ditch on Ray creek, near Lexington, Or., workmen found the skeletons of several white people, who, it is believed, were killed by the Indians many years ago, as arrow heads were found sticking in the skulls. That part of Eastern Oregon was the scene of many battles between the early settlers and the Indians.

Dr. O. C. Hollister moved his office yesterday from the rooms formerly occupied in the Chapman block to those lately occupied by Dr. Lannerberg, 19 and 20, in the Vogt block. These rooms are large and more commodious than those formerly occupied.

Yesterday Thomas and Horatio Fargher were in the city from their farm on Tygh Ridge. They report that crops are all right, provided they get some rain during this month. Fall grain is looking fine and the warm weather is bringing the spring grain up nicely.

A large band of stock hogs were delivered at the stockyard yesterday by Mark Waterman for the Columbia Packing Co. Good stock hogs at present bring 3½ cents and as they cost the producer comparatively little to raise them they are a paying product.

The Republican headquarters will be opened in rooms 17 and 18, in the Vogt block, this morning. H. L. Kuck is chairman of the Wasco County Central Committee, and J. O. Mack, secretary. Any correspondence addressed to these gentlemen will be given prompt and careful attention.

Yesterday Fred W. Beer, of Vancouver, arrived in the city to take the place of Mr. Peterson in the Western Union office at this place. The numerous friends of Mr. Peterson are sorry to see him leave. He was a competent and accommodating operator and will accept a position in the main office in Portland.

Yesterday both Moody & Co. and the Wasco warehouse were paying 90 cents for good wheat. Quite a number of sales were made at this figure, as the farmers fear that the prices may drop. Owing to the present high prices a large amount of wheat is coming in daily and is being disposed of at the above figures.

All ladies who wish to learn something concerning the cause and treatment of diseases peculiar to women are cordially invited to be present at the Christian church Friday afternoon, May 6th, at 2:30, when a health talk will be given by Mrs. Helen M. Burdick, under the auspices of the Hygienic Department of the Viavi Co. No admission charged.

No less than three thousand guests will be in our city next Sunday on the Red Men's excursion, and we hope that prior to that time our townspeople will do all in their power to have their houses and places of business looking as well as possible. There is nothing that does so much for a town as a good appearance at such a time, and we hope and trust the Dalles people will have the city in holiday attire.

John Filloon, the implement dealer of our city, has a device that will be almost invaluable to every tiller of the soil in this vicinity. It is a large canvas-covered umbrella which is arranged so that it can be attached to the mower, the farm wagon or the header, and, in fact, any implement used on the farm, in such a way that the workman will be in the shade. Everyone enjoys solid comfort and this device affords it to all who have to work out doors, and no one can afford to be without one.

Chairman Hendricks, of the first congressional district, Wednesday received word from F. X. Schoonmaker that, because of serious sickness in his family in New Jersey, his speaking dates in Oregon will have to be canceled. Representative Tongue has assured Mr. Hendricks that other Eastern speakers will be here. In the meantime, local speakers will fill the dates arranged for Mr. Schoonmaker, when possible.

Wednesday night James Parker fired four shots at a man named Stewart and his partner at La Grande. A number of loggers are painting the town red, having just completed a drive for the Grand Ronde Lumber Company. Tuesday Parker had some trouble with them. Meeting them again the next night, Stewart and his partner assaulted Parker when the latter drew his pistol and commenced firing. The first two shots were fired on the sidewalk in front of the Reception saloon. Stewart and his partner ran into the saloon and out of the back door, followed by Parker, who fired two more shots. A number of men who were in the saloon escaped. It is rumored that Stewart's partner was struck in the shoulder. Parker was arrested by Constable Walden.

A double tragedy occurred at Pendleton at 8:15 o'clock Wednesday evening, as a result of which Joseph Sewall, a gambler, is dead and May Drake lies at the point of death, with two bullet wounds in her neck. The two lived together four years. Two months ago Sewall took Miss Drake to Canyon City, where his parents reside. There she learned he was of negro descent, and left him, coming to Pendleton. He followed, was refused admittance to her house and threatened to kill her. This evening he called on her, and while her back was turned toward him, drew a revolver and fired two shots, one bullet entered the left side of neck, just below the ear, and ranging downward. The girl's father lives in North Yakima, Wash. She had a sister in Arlington, and two in Portland. From what we could learn of the girl she was formerly an inmate of a house of ill fame in The Dalles.

Last Chance.

Dad Butts, the reliable real estate dealer, is still on deck. Three thousand people will be here next Sunday to look over The Dalles and make inquiries in regard to the real estate "snaps" offered by Mr. Butts. Every day something new is added to the already long list of bargains, and every day a sale or trade is made. No trouble to tell you about everything he has, and you should call on him if you are thinking of purchasing real estate. Next Sunday they will be here, and then "There'll be a hot time in this town that day."

BIG BOWLING TOURNAMENT.

It Will Be Held in Portland on Friday May 13th.

On Friday, May 13th, a grand bowling tournament will be held in Portland. Teams from Astoria, the Multnomah, the Oregon Road Club, the Portland Commercial Club, the Portlands and other teams in that city, the Commercial Club team from this city will be present and the contest will be for the state championship.

Along with the teams already mentioned, a ladies team from Astoria and probably one from our city will take part in the tournament.

The Dalles ladies have not yet reached any decision as to whether or not they will attend the tournament, but in all probability they will.

On account of the number of teams taking part in the tournament the interest will certainly be intense. Our team is not in practice as they should be before such a tournament, but we hope, since we have a number of good bowlers, to make a good showing.

The ability of our lady bowlers cannot be questioned since their last victory over the club team, and we need not feel the least bit uneasy about their coming out without honors.

LAST NIGHT'S PARTY.

A Perfect Success—Music Good—Those Who Attended.

Last night at the K. of P. hall one of the most enjoyable of dancing parties was given by some of our society young men. Perhaps on account of the scarcity of this particular amusement the past winter, or because it was the last party of the season, it seemed that everyone present was determined to make the most of the evening's pleasure, and so the enjoyment was complete.

The music was furnished by Professor Birgfeld and Miss Schmidt, which in itself was enough to insure the dancers a fine time. Then, too, the crowd was just the right size and composed of the right people to be congenial, the following persons being present:

Mr and Mrs Seufert, Mr and Mrs Van Norden, Mr and Mrs M Donnell, Mrs Bradshaw, Mrs McCoy, Misses Virginia Marden, Laura Thompson, Annetto Michell, Nona Ruch, Alice Lyle, Elizabeth Schooling, Clara Sampson, Myrtle Michell, Mattie Cushing, Maie Cushing, Verna, Laura and Helen Lytle, Miss Wickham, Messrs Lewis Porter, A L Gude, R J Gorman, John Weigel, L Heppner, Arthur Clarke, Charlie Clarke, Ray Logan, Will Crossen, Archie McCully, John Hampshire, H Parkins, Joe Bonn, Vic Marden, Max Vogt, Mr Nutting.

The Rathbone Sisters, who during the early part of the evening gave a social session, furnished ice cream to the dancers when the evening was partly over.

Republican Speaking.

Hon. M. L. Pipes, of Portland, will address the voters of Crook county on the issues of the day at the following times and places: Hay Creek, Tuesday, May 10; Haystacks, Wednesday, May 11; Prineville, Thursday, May 12; Mitchell, Friday, May 13; Antelope, Saturday, May 14. Judge Pipes is one of the best speakers in the state, was circuit judge of the second district for a long time, and is thoroughly familiar with the questions of the day. To miss hearing him would be to miss a rich treat and everyone, regardless of party, are cordially invited to attend his talks at the different places. All talks will be made at 7:30 on the different evenings.

Conductor Fowler is in the city meeting his many friends. He will spend several days visiting relatives here.
