DEATH ON THE ALASKA TRAIL

Sudden Breaking of the Ice on Which the Goldseekers Were Walking from the Yukon to Whitehorse Made a Man's Warning of His Last Steps.

WILLIAMSON, May 9.—In the Yukon, the ice covering the Chilkoot and Skagway passes has broken, and the few survivors who have been able to cross it had to swim over and clamber up the side of the river to get to the opposite shore. The breakings of the ice were caused by a sudden rush of water from the goldfields of the Yukon.

THE OREGON AT BAHIA HONDA

A Spanish Warship Visits St. Thomas.

The St. Paul, Four Feet in Bur-Row, Spanish Vessels Sighted Off Cape Sable.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—A dispatch from Bahia Honda, Cuba, says that the Spanish warship Castilla has arrived there from the battle-ship Cuba. It is to be seen, and the Spanish troops have been disembarked from it. The Castilla is the largest Spanish warship afloat, and is the first to visit Bahia Honda. It is said to be armed with four ironclad cruisers, each of which is capable of carrying 400 rounds of ammunition.

MADRID, May 9.—The governor of the Spanish government has received a report that three suspicious-looking foreign vessels have been sighted on the coast. It is supposed that they are ships of Sampson's squadron.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Nothing has been received at Washington concerning the expected battle between the Spanish fleet and Sampson's squadron as yet, but official notices have been published by Thursday at the latest.

ENCOUNTER WITH THE SPANIARDS

Three American Ships First Up in the Act of Leaping; Torpedo Flotilla on the Cuba Coast.

Havana, May 9.—While three American cruisers were tacking up and down off Cuba they were attacked by the Spanish gunboats, Almirante Lopez, Atanasio and Lagartos. Firing continued at a range of 500 yards. None of the Spanish were injured. The American gunboats managed to pass, evidently not having sustained any damage.

The surprise Spanish ships, which were expected by the American cruisers, are only a few pounds, and were the only ones heading for the American fleet. The Spanish gunboats managed to pass, evidently not having sustained any damage.

DISORDER IN SPAIN ON THE INCREASE

In addition to the attack on Cuba, a number of Spanish vessels have been lost in the Strait of Gibraltar, including the S.S. Algeciras, which was torpedoed by a British warship. The Algeciras was the first Spanish vessel to be destroyed by a British warship.
