THURSDAY - MAY 12, 1898
 NAVIES OF THE WORLD.

"What four nations have the highest naval force?" is asked by a reader. Great Britain, France, Russia, and probably Germany, in the order named. It is hard to weigh exactly the naval forces of several of the powers of Europe, because some will excel in numbers of men, while others have heavier ships and guns.

In ships and guns Great Britain easily leads the world. It has twenty-nine first-class battleships, with 114 heavy and 1257 secondary guns. Of second and third-class battleships it has twenty four, with 254 heavy and 575 secondary guns. It has eighteen armored cruisers, with 184 heavy and 679 secondary guns.

In modern ships and guns England's navy outclasses that of France by two to one, yet in the active naval list, France is slightly in the lead of England. It has a total active list of 80,920 men, as compared with 79,947 in the British navy. France has fifteen first-class battleships, nine second and third-class, and thirteen armored cruisers.

Russia has fourteen first class battleships, and four second and third-class. In its active list it has 40,532 men. It has 45,000 naval reserves.

Italy has eight first-class and two second-class battleships. It has an active list of 21,734 men, and 19,600 naval reserves.

Germany has six first-class and ten second and third-class battleships. It has an active list of 21,513 men, and 37,000 naval reserves.

The United States has afloat and in process of construction nine first-class and two second-class battleships. The first-class battleships will carry 136 heavy and 297 secondary guns. We have two armored cruisers and sixteen protected and partially protected cruisers, but some of these are not yet completed. However, the government has bought a number of cruisers since war became imminent with Spain.

It is thus seen that with recent acquisitions, and the completion of ships now under way, the United States will have a navy comparing favorably with the navies of Germany and Italy. Before the war is ended, we may have a navy excelling that of Germany. No doubt a fear of this probability, a further fear that the United States may become aggressive in the eastern question, and the circumstances that the manufacturing and industrial interests of the two countries are beginning to clash, account for the hostile attitude of certain German officials and journals.

DEWEY AND THE OLYMPIA.

The Spokesman-Review says: "The rule for naming war vessels of the United States navy is to call the battleships for the states, the cruisers for cities. Thus we have the battleships Indiana, Iowa, Massachusetts, Oregon, Texas, and we have the cruisers New York, Brooklyn, Atlanta, Baltimore, Boston, Charleston, Chicago and so on.

"It chanced that the flagship of Commodore Dewey's victorious squadron was named in honor of the capital of Washington, and in grateful recognition of this fact, a movement has been started at Olympia to present the officers with a silver service.

"A service such as should be given in this case will cost several thousand dollars. It ought to be the fittest and most elaborate carried by any ship in the American navy. The citizens of Olympia are anxious to do their part, and it is hoped that their appeal for aid will not go unheeded."

The Shakers of Mount Lebanon, a community of simple, honest, God-fearing men and women, have prepared the Shaker Digestive Cordial for many years, and it is always the same, simple, honest, curative medicine that has helped to make the Shakers the healthy, long-lived people that they are. The Shakers never have indigestion. This is partly owing to their simple mode of life, partly to the wonderful properties of Shaker Digestive Cordial. Indigestion is caused by the stomach glands not supplying enough digestive juice. Shaker Digestive Cordial supplies what's wanting. Shaker Digestive Cordial invigorates the stomach and all its glands so that after awhile they don't need help. As evidence of the honesty of Shaker Digestive Cordial, the formula is printed on every bottle. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 a bottle.

First, because the colors are ground thoroughly in pure linseed oil by fine machinery; second, because it is made of high grade color, with the proper amount of dryers added to give it binding and lasting qualities, which prevent it from washing or rubbing off; third, it is much more economical, because it is always ready for use.
