

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS

is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.

PERSONAL MENTION

W. H. Fowler is in the city visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith spent Sunday in the city. C. E. Brown, of Grass Valley, is in the city on business. Judge Dell Stewart, of Portland, is in the city on business. Al Kitchine, the Hay Creek stockman, is in the city on business. William Becker, of the Pendleton Tribune, was in the city Sunday. Judge Pipes, of Portland, was in the city Sunday attending to campaign matters. Hon. E. B. Dufur left for Goldendale last evening, where he has legal business to attend to. Malcolm Moody and Hon. C. W. Fulton, of Astoria, left for Gilliam county last evening. Fred W. Wilson will leave this morning to spend a few days in the Grass Valley country. Mrs. Geo. Blakeley, who has been in Portland for the past month having her eyes treated, returned home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Annie Winneck and little daughter, who have been spending a few days with Mrs. Winneck's sister, Mrs. Herbert, will leave this morning for San Francisco, where they will make their future home. Miss A. E. Landon, late of Heald's Business College of San Francisco, arrived in the city Saturday, and will take charge of the Western Union office at this place. Miss Baum, who was here temporarily, will leave for Portland in a few days. Mr. Fred Wilson left on last night's east-bound train. He will go to the sanitarium at Asheville, N. C., where he hopes to entirely regain his health. His brother, Parker, was also a passenger on the same train, bound for Pittsburgh, where he will resume his position as electrician. N. B. Oliver, a farmer and stockman of Grant county, has for the past two months been purchasing draft horses for speculation. He has purchased about 10 or 12 span, paying from $75 to $125 per team. He will start Monday for the Palouse country, where he expects to market them from now until harvest time. Good work teams, such as Mr. Oliver takes with him, are said to command good figures all through the Washington wheat belt. The Oregonian says the woman's team from The Dalles played in the hardest luck of any of the teams, and but for this would have scored much higher than they did. The greatest individual sufferer was Mrs. Blakeley, of that team, who was compelled to bowl an uphill game throughout. She did fine work at Multnomah, but had to contend against an almost unprecedented run of centers, which cut her score much below what she really deserved.

A number of farmers in the vicinity of Walla Walla who have been holding wheat, made up a pool of 150,000 bushels and forwarded samples of their grain to Chicago dealers. It costs 33 cents a bushel to transport wheat from Walla Walla to Chicago, and it is very doubtful if they will receive an offer that will justify them in shipping their grain.

O. J. Goodbrad, of Union, an old soldier and member of the G. A. R., who has lived in Oregon since the early sixties, is in the city to attend the encampment.

Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of the remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—P. E. Moore, South Burgetstown, Pa. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Notice to Water Consumers.

On and after May 1, 1898, those below the bluff will be allowed to irrigate on the even days in the month, and those on the bluff on the odd days, from 6 to 8 o'clock a. m. and 6 to 8 p. m., and at no other time. These rules will be strictly enforced. The rate for irrigation will be $1.50 per month for each lot 50x100 feet, and a proportionate amount for less space. J. B. Crossen, my 42w Superintendent.

Sheep marking paint; ready for use. Two colors, black and red. Why you should use our sheep paint. First, because the colors are ground thoroughly in pure linseed oil by fine machinery; second, because it is made of high grade color, with the proper amount of dryers added to give it binding and lasting qualities, which prevent it from washing or rubbing off; third, it is much more economical, because it is always ready for use. We guarantee our sheep marking paint to give satisfaction. Try it and be convinced. Clarke & Falk, agents, The Dalles, Or.

WHEN NATURE

Needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when needed. The best and most simple and gentle remedy is the Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

SCROFULA.

One of America's most famous physicians says: "Scrofula is external consumption." Scrofulous children are often beautiful children, but they lack nerve force, strong bones, stout muscles and power to resist disease. For delicate children there is no remedy equal to of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. It fills out the skin by putting good flesh beneath it. It makes the cheeks red by making rich blood. It creates an appetite for food and gives the body power enough to digest it. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swelling, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

The Shakers of Mount Lebanon, a community of simple, honest, God-fearing men and women, have prepared the Shaker Digestive Cordial for many years, and it is always the same, simple, honest, curative medicine that has helped to make the Shakers the healthy, long-lived people that they are. The Shakers never have indigestion. This is partly owing to their simple mode of life, partly to the wonderful properties of Shaker Digestive Cordial. Indigestion is caused by the stomach glands not supplying enough digestive juice. Shaker Digestive Cordial supplies what's wanting. Shaker Digestive Cordial invigorates the stomach and all its glands so that after awhile they don't need help. As evidence of the honesty of Shaker Digestive Cordial, the formula is printed on every bottle. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 a bottle.
