Tonight the Salvation Army will have an old-time free and easy ice cream social after meeting. Sunday, the 29th, there will be a farewell meeting for Capt. Collins and Lieut. Staynes. Come and bid them good-bye and hear who is to succeed them.

Invitations have been issued to the alumni of The Dalles High School to be present at a social session to be given in the K. of P. hall Monday evening. This is the first meeting of the kind that has been held by this society, and as great preparations have been made, it will no doubt be an occasion of much enjoyment.

The weather continues cloudy and threatens rain, but to the disappointment of everyone it still holds off. Grain it is said, never looked better, and it is a calamity that with such bright prospects the crops should be marred on account of the lack of sufficient rain to mature them.

Last evening the Winqatt Literary Society of the High School held its last meeting for the year in the Academy park, which was lighted with Chinese lanterns and otherwise arranged for the comfort of the members. The evening was pleasant, and the meeting, which was of a social nature, was greatly enjoyed; as were also the refreshments served by the young ladies.

The Union speaking at the Balwin last night was very poorly attended in spite of the characters who addressed the people, namely, Will R. King, candidates for governor, and J. R. Sovereign, who, with Debe, figured so strongly in the labor strikes a few years ago. Little enthusiasm was shown and many who were present went only through curiosity to see and hear the speakers.

Any ladies who care to assist in the noble work being done by the Emergency corps and enroll their names as members are requested to call at the office of the Dalles National bank today, between the hours of 10 and 1 and 2 and 6. Although there are a large number of ladies already engaged in this work, still there are many more who have not yet joined the Emergency Corps who are invited to do so. A large box has already been shipped and it is the intention of the ladies to ship another tonight. It is to be hoped that everyone who can, will lend their aid in this way immediately. The ladies wish to express their appreciation to the firms of Pease & Mays, A. M. Williams & Co., C. F. Stephens, H. Herbring, J. P. McInerney and N. Harris, for the goods they have been kind enough to give.

The different school rooms of the public schools of our city were each well filled with the parents and friends of the pupils at an early hour yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the closing exercises of the school year. We regret very much that a complete report cannot be given, for on all sides do we hear of their excellence. Indeed, it would be difficult to find a city where so much genuine talent is displayed among the little folks, and where are found so many teachers competent to train them along this line. The genuine pride which is felt in our public schools was plainly shown when, upon the appearance of the pupils in the G. A. R. parade recently, cheer upon cheer was given as they marched along. A remark that was passed by one of our veteran visitors at the close of the entertainment given in the opera house in their honor, is proof that our pride is not unfounded. He said: "I have heard many exercises given by school children, but never have I seen such proficiency displayed by children as has been shown tonight."

ANOTHER RUNAWAY.

Luckily No Serious Damage Was Done In Any Way.

A lively runaway occurred in the East End yesterday morning, but in this instance luck seemed to favor those concerned, and no serious injury resulted to anyone.

Ed Mann, who lives on the hill, started to drive out to 12-Mile, accompanied by Frankie Bunch, the little son of Lee Bunch, the engineer at the brewery. When they were about a mile out of town the crossbar on which the single-tree is fastened broke and they tied it up temporarily and started for town to have it repaired. When they were coming down the brewery hill it broke again and the horses became frightened and started to run. The vehicle was upset in front of Moody's warehouse and both occupants of the buggy were thrown out.

Frankie Bunch, however, got caught in the wagon and was dragging when the horse was stopped. Outside of a bad scare and torn clothing he was not injured, while Mann escaped uninjured. The horse was none the worse for the run, while the buggy will need some repairs.

Mon. H. S. Wilson for Circuit Judge.

Hon. H. S. Wilson, Republican candidate for circuit judge, is a native of Vermont, in which state he received his education and resided up to the time of his removal to The Dalles. He was graduated from the University of Vermont, at Burlington, in 1881, and soon after commenced the study of law. He was admitted to the bar of Vermont, where he early won an enviable position.

Since he became a resident of Wasco county he has established for himself a reputation as an exceptionally accurate, clear and learned lawyer. His opinions upon legal questions are promptly formed and remarkably accurate. He is a man of great independence, industry and integrity.

If elected, his services will certainly prove of great value to the people of this district, and THE CHRONICLE is pleased to endorse him for this important office.

Confirmation at the Lutheran Church.

A class of fifteen will connect themselves with the Lutheran church by the solemn rite of confirmation next Sunday. Confirmation, as conducted by the Lutheran church, is a continuation of that solemn and impressive rite, instituted for the purpose of receiving members into full communion, by the Christian church in the first century of her life, commonly known as the Apostolic age.

The Lutherans herewith invite all their friends to be present at the confirmation service tomorrow at 11 a. m.

A BOLD BURGLARY.

A Crowd of Employees Go Through the Boarding Cars, Near Celilo, and Help Themselves Liberally.

Yesterday eight men, who had been employed at Pendleton by the superintendent of the O. R. & N. to work with the steel gang at Celilo, arrived at the scene of their labors and took breakfast on the boarding train, after which they were put to work.

When the men came in to dinner they noticed that the new hands were not present, which caused some suspicion to be aroused, and an investigation disclosed the fact that they had gone through the boarding cars and taken everything they could find in the way of money, razors, clothing, and in fact anything that was not too heavy to carry away.

After the robbery they started toward The Dalles, and late in the afternoon were seen passing Tumwater and after Senfert's fishery. The authorities were advised of the robbery, and although they kept a sharp look-out they have not yet discovered any of the gang.

The individual who proved to be the ringleader of the party was a tall, slender built, smooth shaved man, who would weigh about 160 pounds. His complexion was dark and he was dressed in light pants, a light colored hat, black shirt and new suspenders. He had rosy eyes and carried a bundle tied up in a canvas covering.

Another of the gang was a short, heavy set man weighing about 180 pounds, and was dressed in a red sweater and dark clothes. The descriptions of the others could not be learned.

Nightwatchman Wiley has instituted a thorough search, but had found no trace up to midnight.

CEDAR CIRCLE ENTERTAINMENT

A Fine Program Last Night and an Enjoyable Time.

A pleasant social was given last evening by Cedar Circle in honor of some of the members who are going away.

The entertainment began with a piano solo by Miss Drew, which was followed by a recitation by Nova Dawson. Loto Kelsay won the applause of all at the close of her song, which was well rendered; while the reading by Mrs. Chas. Stephens, in which she introduced numerous local hits that were highly amusing, brought down the house. A number of startling revelations were made in this, but the jokes were well chosen and equally well received.

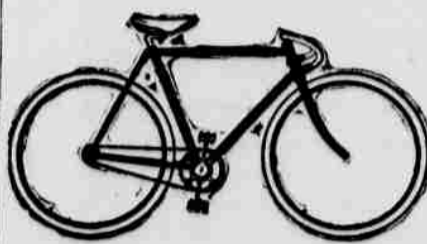

The number which followed this was certainly the most enjoyable of the evening, since the Alpha Mandolin and Guitar Club appeared in it for the first time. The club not only pleased all by their playing, but showed how much talent, which has heretofore been latent, our city has in this line. The club has been organized but a few weeks, and the progress it has made speaks highly for our young people who compose it, as well as for their instructor, Professor Ryan.

Two well-rendered recitations by Rachel Morgan and Mrs. Hunsaker followed, which concluded the program.

Refreshments were served, and dancing followed. The manner in which all enjoyed themselves was ample proof of the ability of Cedar Circle to make an evening pleasant for the members and friends.

A WORN-OUT FAD

'Spring Medicines,' 'Blood Purifiers,' and 'Tonics,' an Old-Fashioned Idea.

Pure blood, strong nerves and muscles, firm, healthy flesh, can only come from wholesome food well digested. "Blood purifiers" and "nerve tonic" do not reach the cause of the mischief. The stomach is the point to be looked after. The safest and surest way to cure any form of indigestion is to take after each meal some harmless preparation of this kind composed of vegetable essences—pure pepsin, golden seal and fruit salts, sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and these tablets

JAMES BURNS.

Ex-Collector of the Port of Kansas City.

Of the men who have occupied positions of public trust in Kansas City, either by gift of the people or by appointment; none has a more enviable reputation for ability, honesty and efficiency than James Burns, Collector of the Port of Kansas City, under Grover Cleveland. He lived to the letter of the maxim "a public office is a public trust," and when he retired he carried with him the respect of everyone in the community—Democrats and Republicans alike.

James Burns has used Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and he does not hesitate to say they have accomplished wonders.

"I suffered with dyspepsia for twenty years, said Mr. Burns yesterday. "Never know what it was to enjoy life—in fact living seemed a burden, as it does to all who suffer severely with dyspepsia. A few weeks ago I began taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. From the first I felt relief, and now, although I am still taking them, I feel entirely cured. For the first time in twenty years I can eat anything I want and suffer no ill effects from it. You can't imagine the pleasure of this unless you have been a sufferer from dyspepsia."

"I never gave a testimonial for any medicine before, but I feel as if everybody ought to know of this remedy, and while it is personally distasteful to me to appear in print in this connection, I feel as if I had no right to shirk the opportunity to, perhaps help some other sufferers from dyspepsia. I have been recommending the tablets to all my friends. Only recently I took James L. Lillis, the father of Father Lillis, down to get some, and I understand he also is being wonderfully benefited. I can't recommend it too highly."
