SATURDAY - JUNE 11, 1898

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

The weather forecast for today is fair and warmer.

The river is coming up rapidly and stands at 33.5.

Don't forget that Kellar keeps the best ice cream soda in the city.

Clarke & Falk have the purest and strongest Paris Green in the market.

Hood River strawberries by the crate at The Dalles Commission Company's.

Ice cream soda, ice cream and strawberries at the Columbia Candy Factory.

Murchie Bros. are putting an addition in the way of a buggy shed to their large stable.

Clarke & Falk manufacture a full line of flavoring extracts. Ask your grocer for them.

H. M. Ryan, teacher of Mandolin, Guitar and Banjo. Headquarters at Jacobsen's.

Now is the time to spray with Paris Green. Clarke & Falk have the strongest you can get.

For correct styles in millinery go to the Campbell & Wilson Millinery Parlors, on Second St.

Leave orders for ice with the Stadelman Commission Co. Office cold storage building. Phone 49.

Furnished rooms to rent, also suits of rooms suitable for housekeeping. Apply to 19 and 20, Chapman Block.

Yesterday County Clerk Kelsay issued a marriage license to William H. Young and Dollie Johnston, both of this county.

We can already say, from the work done and the interest taken, that our celebration will be equal to any ever held on the coast.

Today the official count of Wasco county's election returns will be made by Recorder Sinnott, County Clerk Kelsay and Justice Filloon.

Parties who have not yet subscribed to the Fourth of July fund and desire to do so are requested to call on H. C. Liebe, C. F. Stephens or Andrew Keilar and put down the amount.

The Moro fire department was called out for drill the other evening and in 3 1/2 minutes from the top of the gong, was throwing water on Gun's warehouse. After the drill the department elected officers.

An unknown fisherman was lost in the surf at the mouth of the Columbia river Tuesday. Some fishermen reported seeing a boat overturned and the occupants thrown into the sea, but they were too far away to be of any assistance.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the members of the Methodist Sunday school will have a Children's day exercise in the auditorium of the church, to which all are invited. The children of the Sunday school, in fact all children, are requested to carry a flag.

Little Myrtle Perry, of Dufur, aged 9 years, daughter of Al Perry, living with Mr. and Mrs. William Vanderpool, fell from a horse Monday and fractured her left elbow. The little sufferer will have the best of medical and motherly care to help her bear her misfortune.

Remember the Maine and also remember that the Alpha Mandolin and Guitar Club gives an excursion soon. Steamer Regulator, good order and fine music will be the leading features. Tickets, which will be 50 cents, can be purchased from any member of the club.

The roads approaching The Dalles are getting worse every day, which makes it more difficult for the wool teams to bring their heavy loads to The Dalles. The free bridge road from Floyd's place is especially bad, and it is not an unfrequent thing to see or hear of a breakdown on this road.

Returns from Crook county are incomplete; however, they give 102 majority and Moody 157, Williamson, Republican for representative, 158. M. A. Moore, union, for sheriff, is elected, and Arthur Hodges, the present county clerk, who ran on the gold Democratic ticket, is re-elected.

After suffering from the heat these days it is certainly a pleasure for our town-folks who can afford buggies and horses to spend the cool evenings in driving around town. Quite a number take advantage of this opportunity to enjoy their evenings; in fact Second street is fairly alive with vehicles up to a late hour each night.

The executive committee on the Fourth of July celebration held a meeting at the club rooms last evening. Much interest is shown by the committee and our people are enthusiastic, so the success of the venture is assured. At last night's meeting plans were not fully developed for the celebration, and another like meeting will be held tonight to fully complete the arrangements.

Morgan Vaughn, a lad about 16 years old, was drowned in Portland Thursday evening about 8 o'clock, while bathing with several other boys. It was half an hour before the body was recovered, and too late to resuscitate him. He was a newsboy and well known in Portland for his industry and thrift. He was the main support of his mother, and his sad ending is regretted by all who knew him.

Yesterday William Rolf, who shot and probably fatally injured Murdoc McKay at Antelope last Tuesday, was brought to this city by Deputy Sheriff Charles Wallace and placed in the county jail. We were misinformed concerning Rolf's bonds, they being set at $6000, instead of $20,000, as we stated a few days since. McKay's condition is critical and his physician thinks he cannot recover.

Owing to the raise in the river it was impossible for the Dixon to make the run up to the entrance of the locks yesterday. The Regulator went down as far as the middle landing, near Bonnaville, where freight and passengers were transferred. The Regulator then made the run back, reaching the city at 10:45. Until the water recedes a transfer will have to be made as the Dixon cannot come through the rapids.

Mr. Jack Binns met with a serious accident near Hood River Tuesday. He was driving along the county road near Joe Parser's place, when he met the teams hauling wood for Bonney. In turning out for the big teams some brush piled in the road interfered and Binns' team was struck by the big wagons. His horses were knocked down and he was thrown under one of the wagons, resulting in a broken arm.

Mr. Aud Winans, who started with his brother, Elna, and the Buskirk brothers for Alaska in the spring, returned to Hood River unexpectedly last week. Mr. E. Winans was taken sick after the party had started on the overland journey to the Copper river mines and had to be brought back and was taken to a Portland hospital. Mr. Aud Winans will not return to Alaska while the war lasts, but will volunteer as a soldier at the first opportunity.

The attendance last night at the entertainment given by the Good Intent Society was not so large as the program merited, probably on account of the evening being so warm, and the desire of everyone to enjoy the fresh air, which could not be had inside. However, those who were present seemed to thoroughly enjoy every number rendered. Jean Ingelov's "Songs of Seven" were particularly good, each one being taken by appropriate characters. The tableau "Seven Times Three" was beautiful. Ice cream and cake were served after the program was finished, many partaking who could not be there early in the evening.

Arrangements are being made to give a grand moonlight excursion on the steamer Regulator on Friday, June 24th. It will be under the auspices of the Alpha Mandolin and Guitar Club, and will leave The Dalles at 7 o'clock in the evening, returning at 12. The club are practicing for the occasion and will furnish their guests with the sweetest music, which will seem all the more beautiful at such a time and place. This excursion will be attended by a select crowd of the best people in the city, and none need have any hesitancy about going on account of any questionable characters for care will be exercised in the sale of tickets and they are not transferable.

PERSONAL MENTION.

M. Fitz Maurice is a guest at the Umatilla.

B. L. Murchie is in from Wasco for a few days.

G. A. Yung, of Ridgeway, is registered at the Umatilla.

Mrs. E. H. England, of John Day, is in the city for a few days.

Elwood Thompson is in the city from his home near Monkland.

Geo. Kelsay and wife, of Hay Creek, are in the city for a few days.

Rev. Boltz, of the Christian church, was a passenger on the boat last night from Hood River.

Complete List of Teachers.

The school directors met yesterday and completed the election of teachers for the ensuing year. The complete list is as follows:

- John Gavin, city superintendent.
- J. S. Landers, principal of High school.
- Assistant teachers—Mrs. E. D. Baldwin, Misses Elsie M. Ball, Nan Cooper, Ella Cooper, Mary L. Douthit, Maggie Flinn, Melissa Hill, Minnie U. Mitchell, Salina Phirman, Tena Rintoul, Louise Rintoul, Emma Roberts, Frances E. Rowe, Eta Wrenn, Mrs. Katie Roche.

The River.

The temperature yesterday was from 80° to 94° over the Columbia river basin, and Thursday night it was from 44° to 54°. The weather is clear. The rivers are rising except at Portland, where the Willamette is stationary. For twenty-four hours the rise from Umatilla westward will be about 0.3 to 0.5 of a foot a day, after which time the rise will be more rapid. At Portland the river is 18.5, The Dalles 33.2, Umatilla 20.1 feet.

Use Clarke & Falk's Kosfoam for the tub.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Delore Thrown From His Wagon and His Ankle Broken.

M. Delore, of Wapinitia, while driving down the grade leading into Dufur from the north, last Friday night between 9 and 10 o'clock, met with an accident which resulted in the shattering of his right ankle. Being in a hurry he was driving at a very rapid rate. He had his right foot on the comb of the brake, against which it was pressed. The right fore wheel struck a chuck hole, throwing Delore to the ground, and as he fell his foot slipped down between the brake comb and the wagon box, his body pitching forward to the right.

He clung to the reins, however, but was dragged some 200 yards before the team was stopped.

Delore managed to climb back into the wagon and drive to town, but on arriving here was so dazed with pain as to be insensible of his surroundings and condition.

Demp Cantrell happened to hear the man groaning as he passed along the main street, and like a man of mature years, he stopped the team, learned that the man was suffering from a severe injury of some kind, and immediately drove the team to Dr. Dietrich's residence, where medical aid was secured and the broken limb set. The sufferer was then taken to the 15-Mile house where he remained until some of his friends arrived from Wapinitia and took him home.—Dufur Dispatch.

Weather Bureau Report.

Generally fair weather with slight temperature changes has prevailed over the Pacific northwest during the past twenty-four hours.

There is no area of high pressure shown this morning; the barometer is highest at Edmondton. The "low" which was apparently central at Calgary Thursday evening has moved southeastward, and Friday morning's map shows a well-defined area of low pressure central at Qu'Appelle and overlying eastern Montana, western North Dakota and Manitoba. An area of low pressure also overlies northern California, western Oregon, Washington, northern Idaho and British Columbia. The pressure is lowest at Walla Walla.

The temperature has remained generally stationary; it ranges from 46° at Idaho Falls to 64° at Walla Walla.

No rain has been reported during the past twenty-four hours from the three states. General rain has fallen in Kansas and over the Missouri valley to Chicago, where rain has accompanied the passage of the "low" from Canada to the United States.

An area of high pressure is approaching the California coast, which is expected to move northward along the coast and give cloudy, cooler weather Saturday west of the Cascades.

Sunday promises to be fair and cool over the Pacific northwest.
