amination in the justice court Monday. He gave his name as Billy Bates and says he is from Portland. However, people who know him say that his right name is Daily. He is an unfortunate wretch, incapable of taking care of himself and it would be a relief for such a man to be dead or in the states prison.

The Fourth of July amusement committees have offered a prize of five dollars to the buck Indian appearing in the best native costume in the parade and five dollars to the squaw appearing the same. Anyone who can converse with the Indians should make it a point to tell them of the prizes offered and try to induce as many as possible to join in as it will be a great attraction on that occasion.

The rivers continue to fall. The weather conditions yesterday morning were favorable for fair and warmer weather today and Monday over the Columbia river basin. There is but little more snow in the mountains, so that no matter how warm it may be, there is not enough snow yet unmelted to influence the falling rivers. The fall will be from .3 to .5 of a foot a day for four or more days at Umatilla and at The Dalles, with a corresponding fall elsewhere.

It has been some time since The Dalles has been visited by a good show, and it has certainly been a long time since such an arrouser of mirth as "The Prodigal Father" has been rendered here. It contains new music, songs, dances and specialties, and will certainly be a merry concert with merry comedians, there being twenty people in the company, all artists in their respective parts. Secure your seats before it is too late.

Mrs. J. C. Crandall returned from Cascade Locks last evening, where she has been visiting Mr. Geo. Morgan. She reports him in a critical condition and all hopes of his recovery has been abandoned. He has, however, much vitality and may live several weeks. He still converses freely with everyone and takes great interest in the war news and latest happenings. He seems to realize that he is going to die, and is resting easy and seems perfectly resigned to his fate.

Beginning July 1st Wasco is to have two daily mails, the Columbia Southern railway connecting with both east and west-bound Spokane flyers. The stage line from Grants will be discontinued, Wasco being the terminus of the southern stages. This arrangement will make an important change, both in the mail and passenger service to points south, as stages will meet both trains of the Columbia Southern, at Wasco, the morning stages making all southern connections.

We learn from J. E. Edwards, who has recently returned from the Stickeen River, that Capt. Johnston, the popular skipper who ran the Dalles City for the D. P. & A. N. Co., is employed on that stream running a boat between Fort Wrangle and Glenora, which is a trifle over 150 miles. The fact that it takes four days to run up stream and eight hours to return will give an idea of the swiftness of the Stickeen River and the hazardous position which the captain holds. At present the climate is quite mild in that section and the stories of mosquitos have not, according to Mr. Edwards account, been overdrawn in the least, as the pests make life miserable for everyone living there.

Appreciated.

On behalf of the members of the Alpha Mandolin & Guitar Club, I desire to thank our many friends who contributed to the success of the excursion given Friday evening. Also to the Daily Times-Mountaineer, the MORNING CHRONICLE and the Jacobsen Book & Music Co., which latter kindly loaned to the members of the club the piano, which was a source of pleasure to all and contributed largely to the success of the excursion.

A Laughable Treat.

"The Prodigal Father will be the attraction at the Vogt opera house, Monday evening, June 27th. The piece was evidently constructed for laughing purposes only, and it fulfills its mission. The plot, which is very gauzy, centers on the escapades of Stanley Dodge, who misses his ship to Africa through flirting with an actress. His son becomes a prodigal, marries the actress and regular mix-up results. The complications are of the most amusing kind, and the fun is intense from start to finish. To properly interpret a farce comedy requires the services of competent specialty artists, for the success of such a play depends largely on the introduction of novelties.

The company presenting "The Prodigal Father" has been carefully chosen, and the many songs, dances and medleys are rendered in such style as to call forth enthusiastic applause.

Lynn Weicher, who has starred in the play for the past three seasons, is considered one of the best character actors on the stage. Miss Rose Melville, who assumes the leading female role, is a young lady of prepossessing appearance, and a decidedly clever actress. Her decidedly clever imitation of "Sis Hopkins, the jay girl from Slab Hollow," is one of the hits of the vaudeville stage.

THE CHURCHES.

St. Paul's Episcopal church, on Fifth and Union streets, Rev. Jos. DeForest rector—Morning and evening service as usual.

At the Calvary Baptist church, corner Seventh and Union streets, services every Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., Elder W. S. Wilburn, pastor. Sunday school at 10 o'clock and Young People's Society at 6:30 in the evening. All are cordially invited.

Reduced Rates.

The Southern Pacific company will carry passengers between all stations on its lines in Oregon at one fare for the round trip on the Fourth of July. Tickets at this rate will be on sale on the afternoon of July 24, on July 3rd and 4th, and will be limited to expire July 5th or 6th, according to the distance.

This is more of a reduction than the company has been in the habit of making for this occasion, but in line with the wide spread spirit of patriotism throughout the country at this time, they are anxious to offer as much inducement as possible to enable the people along this line to attend and participate in the celebrations arranged for at so many different points.

It has been some time since a theatrical company has visited The Dalles, and no doubt the "Prodigal Father," which appears here Monday evening, will be greeted by a large audience. Newspaper comments regarding this play have been very flattering, and the company has been well received wherever they have played.
