Mr. Frizzell, of Gilliam county, a wool handler, while coming down the long hills near the John Day Saturday, was thrown from his seat and the wheels passed over his chest and arms. Dr. Eddington examined him and found him to be suffering from internal injuries. He cannot live. He has a wife and two children.

The interest in bowling at present is on the decline on account of warm weather and outdoor amusements, however, a few good daily scores have been made at the club alleys during the week. They are as follows: Monday, Bradshaw 62; Tuesday, Miss A. Schanno 59; Wednesday, N. J. Sinnott 53; Thursday, John Bonn 49; Friday, Phillips 56; Saturday, Bradshaw 54; Sunday, Phillips 43.

A traveling man visited Goldendale Saturday, and declared he is on the inside to the extent of knowing that the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway will be running through trains over their own track into Portland before 1900. The Union, Cornucopia & Eastern railway, now building to the Seven Devils mining region, he believes will form the "Q" Snake river link of extension.

The Umatilla House alleys lead this week with high scores. Prof. Birgfeld and Harry Esping lead while the former champion, Mr. Maetz, fell short of his usual good score. The daily scores were as follows: Monday, Harry Esping 59; Tuesday, Harry Esping 63; Wednesday, Prof. Birgfeld 64; Thursday, H. Esping 57; Friday, H. Maetz 62; Saturday, H. Esping 50; Sunday, H. Esping 60.

The lawn social to be given by the ladies of the Congregational church on the church lawn Wednesday, will be more than a social. A choice musical program is being prepared. The program will contain the "Grasshopper Cantata," a male quartette, and instrumental selections and solos. Ice cream and cake will be served without charge. The admission will be 25 cts; children 15 cts.

Saturday Alexander McIntosh disposed of his wool clip for a trifle over 13 cents per pound at the Wasco Warehouse, while other sales were made today at prices ranging from 12 1/2 to 13 1/2 cents. These sales practically opened the wool market for the season, and as the prices range from 12 to 14 cents, the season promises to be an exceptionally good one for the wool-growers, and the prices offered in The Dalles make it an object for wool men to send their clip to this city.

Yesterday morning a special train of the Great Northern, consisting of five private cars, passed through the city, carrying officials of the Northern Pacific and O. R. & N. Among them were: C. S. Mellen, president N. P. R. R.; J. W. Kenrick, general manager; J. M. Hannaford, traffic manager; E. H. McHenry, chief engineer; E. B. Adams, C. Fromberg, K. Kotch, Chas. Bibler, J. P. O'Brien, superintendent of the O. R. N., and B. Campbell, traffic manager.

Sunday evening when Mr. Adams was coming to the city with a load of wool, one of the sacks became loose and slipped out at the end of the wagon. He did not notice the loss until he reached the city, and immediately went back to look the matter up. About a mile out of town he found the mark on the road where the sack had fallen, and also marks of where it had been pulled over the bluff by someone. A diligent search failed to locate the lost article, and it was, in all probability, stolen by Indians, or someone who packed its contents into smaller bags and carried it away. No clue could be found, and Mr. Adams will have to be responsible for the loss.

Yesterday Mr. Dawson's latest cartoon on the Hawaiian annexation appeared in Pease & Mays' window. In this he represents Uncle Sam standing on the army and navy with congress at his back, while he is in the act of picking the apple representing the Hawaiian islands. On the same tree are other apples representing Cuba, Cape Verde, Porto Rico and the Canary islands. Beside Uncle Sam stands two female figures, representing the North and South, holding baskets in which are apples representing the like possessions secured heretofore. England, France and Germany are also in the cartoon looking with eyes of envy at the action of the United States, while he represents Uncle Sam as saying, "I'll pick them now before they fall into other hands, and let my mugwugs howl afterward."

A PLEASANT EVENT.

Miss Edythe Randall Receives A Birthday Surprise Party.

A very pleasant birthday surprise party was given to Miss Edythe Randall at the residence of her parents last Saturday evening. A number of friends were invited by Mrs. Randall, and as the Alpha Mandolin and Guitar Club were among the rest, a delightful evening was spent in games, conversation and music, as well as partaking of the abundant refreshments which the young lady's mother served for the occasion. Miss Randall received not only the congratulations and best wishes of her friends, but also a number of beautiful and costly birthday gifts. The celebrants remained until a late hour when they bid Miss Randall good night and wished her many other birthdays as happy as her nineteenth. Those present were: Misses Cora Joles, Mattie Stroud, Hilda Beck, Eva Heppner, Annie Sandrock, Valeria Liebe, Edith Fisher, Lizzie Schoelling and Edythe Randall, Messrs Irwin Parkins, Clinton Alden, Frank Sandrock, James Reese and Prof. Ryan.

"The Prodigal Father" was, considering the excellence of the performance rendered, poorly attended. They promised to give a laughable show and kept their promise to the very letter. The characters in the farce comedy sustained their parts well throughout. Their dancers were good, while their specialties were excellent without exception. They used splendid judgment in their specialties by making them short and thus unlike many companies do not tire their audience but keep them in a continual round of merriment. Considering the show throughout it is one of the best of the kind that has ever been in the city, and whenever they play a return engagement they will be greeted by a crowded house.

The new official flag of the president of the United States is printed, for the first time correctly, on the cover of the July Ladies Home Journal. The flag was recently adopted as the president's emblem, and henceforth will be employed to proclaim his official presence. When he is at the White House the flag will be displayed there, and wherever he may go as president of the United States it will be in evidence. Its publication in accurate color detail will be a matter of much interest, inasmuch as it will acquaint the public with the president's emblem.

A deaf and dumb man living at Mabton, Yakima county, filled up on liquor a few days ago and had to be locked up in a box car to keep him from killing some one. He demolished a show-case in Beckner's store, and kicked over a case of goods before he was brought under control.

Warmer weather prevailed Sunday over the Columbia river basin. The rivers continue to fall, but the rate of fall is less than it was last week. It will be not to exceed 0.3 of a foot a day at Umatilla and at Portland, and not to exceed 0.5 of a foot at The Dalles; after Friday the fall may be more rapid.

The Dalles Steam Laundry begs to inform its patrons that Mr. A. B. Estebenet is no longer in its employ. Mr. S. Burns will take his place on the wagon; should he fail to call upon you ring up telephone 341 and your wants
