On account of the rapid fall in the river it is expected that the Regulator will be able to go through to Portland today, while the Dixon will make the run up to this city. This will make it much more pleasant for the patrons of the D. P. & A. N. line, as the trip will be made quicker and without the disagreeable feature of transferring at the locks.

Yesterday Jack Daly, the unfortunate morphine fiend who had been released under the condition that he would leave the town immediately, was caught selling stolen sheep pelts. He claims that someone stole them and gave them to him. He was lodged in jail and will have his hearing before Justice Filloon today at nine o'clock. The pelts are the property of Christman Bros., and Daly will be likely to spend a term in the "pen" for the theft.

Be sure to attend the musical at the Congregational church this evening. Refreshments will be served on the lawn while the musical program is being rendered. The guitar and mandolin in the hands of Prof. Ryan and Mr. Parkins will add to the enjoyment of music lovers. The grass-hopper cantata, by a chorus of ladies, solos by some of our best singers, together with quartettes and choruses will make the entertainment a very pleasant one.

In a letter written by A. F. Martin to the editor from Honolulu dated the 3rd inst. he says: "We are just starting from here on the Manila expedition, after having enjoyed a rousing reception. The Oregon boys won applause everywhere, and are well pleased with the treatment received at the hands of the generous people of this place. The Charleston will escort us from here to Manila." He closes by sending regards to Dalles friends and expresses regret that he cannot write at greater length.

It is requested by the Fourth of July amusement committee, that all those intending to take part in the plug ugly parade, which will take place at 2 p. m. on Independence Day, report at the store of Mays & Crowe, to John F. Hampshire, not later than Saturday evening. To make this affair a success, it is desired that all the young men arrange to take part and help swell the affair. The "boys" are at the head of this, so all join in and show by your presence in the parade that their efforts have not been in vain. You may rest assured your services will be duly appreciated. Prizes are offered for the best character, so use your imagination and get up a unique costume.

Tuesday morning while Nightwatchman Wiley was making the rounds he heard some one scream in the direction of the D. P. & A. N. warehouse, immediately struck out to see what the trouble was. On arriving on the driveway near the warehouse he found a number of Indians standing around, while two were engaged in mortal combat. One had the other on the railing and was in the act of throwing him over into the river below, and had not the night-watchman been on hand there would have been one Indian less today. He immediately stopped the fight and took the Siwash who attempted the deed to jail while the others escaped in the darkness. They were all more or less intoxicated and this probably accounts for the trouble.

Bowling Match.

A four-game match was played at the club alleys Monday night between the regular club team and a select five bowlers. One member of the regular team was absent, causing the game to be played with only five bowlers on each side.

The scores are as follows:

PICKED TEAM:	1	2	3	4	Total
Nolan	23	37	34	56	160
Phillips	44	34	32	35	145
Bonn	28	59	37	36	160
Stephens	33	37	42	48	160
DeHuff	32	29	36	36	133

Total score 758

CLUB TEAM:	1	2	3	4	Total
Bradshaw	41	44	48	36	169
Houghton	47	37	42	56	182
Schmidt	38	24	42	42	146
Ogden	40	29	41	42	152
Tolmie	45	31	39	32	147

Total score 796

At the conclusion of the games each team had two of the four to their credit. However the club team claimed the victory, since they had thirty-eight pins more to their credit than the picked team.

M. T. Nolan made the highest single score, 66, while Fred Houghton made the highest average in four games, 45.3.

Arrangements are being made for a tournament between The Dalles and Portland teams in the near future. The date, however, has not yet been set, but it will probably be about the 8th inst.

A HONOLULU LETTER.

One of the Soldier Boys En Route to Manila Describes Honolulu and Their Stay There.

Yesterday a letter was received from Max Bartell by one of his friends in this city. He being one of the soldier boys in the Manila expedition, and as his letter contains interesting information concerning Honolulu and their stay there, with the consent of the recipient of the same, we publish it. It bears the date of Honolulu, June 21, and we are sure his many friends in The Dalles will be pleased to hear from him. He says:

"Honolulu is almost on the open seacoast. A little channel dredged through the low marshy beach leads to the city. It is situated on a beautiful level stretch of land along the base of the foothills. The streets are narrow and the houses small, mostly one or two stories high. There are horse cars on the principal streets and almost all the sidewalks are paved, in short it is one of the cleanest, neatest and most picturesque cities which I have seen. It beats all that I have seen in either Oregon or California. The population is about 30,000, consisting of Chinese, Japs and a few thousand whites, mostly Oregonians (?) The Chinese here are a different class than those in America, wearing American clothes, and they can all speak fair English. The Chinese run most of the restaurants and candy stands, and the Japs many of the clothing stores. The whites and natives mingle indiscriminately and they are the most hospitable people I ever met. Small as the town is they raised $8000 by subscription to entertain us during our stay here. One would naturally expect them to be American sympathizers, but they are more, they are actually American patriots, and if they were permitted fully nine-tenths of them would enlist in this Mania expedition. The Hawaiian national guard wear the same as the O. N. G., but their drilling will compare with the best of the U. S. regulars. One good thing about their army is the officers, even to the highest, put themselves on the same level as the privates. They walked around town with the common soldiers with the same pleasure as they would with the general, and that is the foundation of an efficient army."

Boys, Attention.

All boys who wish to help the committee to make our Fourth of July procession a success will please present themselves at the armory on the morning of the Fourth at 9 o'clock, where they will be uniformed for the march.

Everybody is asked to come without fail, for to make it a success we must have all. As all the boys in town may not see this notice, those who do are asked to tell all their friends about it. Any boy from 12 years up will be accepted.

NOTICE.

The different hose companies can secure bunting for the purpose of decorating for the Fourth of July celebration free by applying to the decoration committee.

By order of H. W. FRENCH, Chairman.
