A young love-sick swain attempted suicide by the Morphia route at Lakeview the other day, because he was refused a license by the county clerk to wed his fifteen-year-old sweetheart. Dr. Daly used the pump successfully.

A report from Grants states that John Bonie was drowned while bathing in the Columbia Sunday. The deceased was a promising young man, and a son of James Bonie, a wealthy Klickitat farmer. The body is not yet recovered. Over one hundred searchers lined the beach.

Waldo E. Glover, a well-known citizen of Goldendale, has just returned from Union Gap, in Yakima county, the scene of the recent find of a quartz ledge. He says that the people of Yakima city are much excited over the prospects, as over one thousand people visited Old Baldy mountain last Sunday, and almost every visitor carried away a specimen of the ore. The mine in which the tunnel has been started has been christened Ore King.

Amateur photography used to be a matter full of difficulties. There used to be trouble in getting outfits and supplies. Donnell, the druggist, keeps everything you want. Cameras, plates, films, paper, etc. We also make developing and toning solutions ready for use. je26tf

The Dalles Steam Laundry begs to inform its patrons that Mr. A. B. Estebenet is no longer in its employ. Mr. S. Burns will take his place on the wagon; should he fail to call upon you ring up telephone 341 and your wants will be attended to immediately. Give us your work and we will try to please you.

We understand that Gus. B. Newton, one of the members of the Berkeley Concert and Comedy Company which will be in the city Wednesday, is billed to deliver a lecture before the Oregon Chautauqua Association in the near future. He is considered to be an eloquist of no mean ability in his native state of California.

Last night about 11:30 someone, probably an Indian, who had a superfluity of liquor, fired three shots in the alley near Glenn's shop. He then uttered a few war whoops and disappeared. For a time it was thought that a shooting scrape had occurred; but upon investigation it was supposed that the shots had been fired in the air.

Yesterday F. C. Hindle and wife, of Arlington, were in the city attending the celebration. Mr. Hindle is the O. R. & N. agent at Arlington, and the leader of the band at that place, which is, considering the size of the town, as good a band as could be desired. The boys are not only efficient in music, but genial and accommodating and for both reasons they are welcome in The Dalles whenever they choose to return collectively or individually.

Last evening, while returning home from the celebration in this city, Mrs. Joseph Southwell's buggy was upset near 3-Mile and the six occupants thrown out. Mrs. Joseph Southwell sustained a fracture of the collar bone, she being the only one who was injured severely. The rig was fixed and Mrs. Southwell brought to the city for medical treatment. Dr. Hollister reduced the fracture, which was a bad one, and she is getting along nicely.

Yesterday the strong wind blew down the liberty pole which for a number of years stood on the corner of Second and Court streets. The pole was raised twelve years ago July 4th, and it is a strange coincidence that it should blow down on the same day of the month on which it was raised. During the time it was standing it became rotten, which caused it to fall. Were it not for the pole catching in the telephone wires someone would certainly have been hurt as a large crowd was standing around at the time. Fortunately, however, none were injured in the least.

Last evening while the fireworks were being set off an alarm of fire was turned in. The department responded promptly, and it was found that a small blaze had started on the roof on the rear of the D. P. & A. N. wharf. The blaze was put out with little damage being done. Another alarm was turned in at about 10 o'clock, and the department responded again. This time the fire was in the roof of the Cosmopolitan, and was extinguished almost as rapidly as the previous one.

The Berkeley Boys' Concert will not be a theatrical performance but a society event in every sense of the word. The following Dalles ladies will be the patronesses of the evening: Mesdames Crowe, Blakeley, Patterson, Bradshaw, Pease, D. M. French, DeForrest, Lang, Schenck, M. Z. Donnell, Hollister, Theo. Seufert, H. S. Wilson, Fish, Crossen, Hal French, W. H. Wilson, Crandall, A. R. Thompson, Hobson, B. S. Huntington, Mary French, Bronson, Varney, Butler, Houghton, Misses Ruch, Michell, Sampson, Glenn, Story and Marden.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Joles and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alden and son, Leop., returned from their mines in Spanish Gulch, Grant county. In the six weeks they worked the mines they took out over $1700 in dust and nuggets. Only for the water supply giving out they would have continued to take out the shining metal but were forced to stop on account of the lack of facilities for washing the dirt. Their claims so far are rich, as the amount taken out in so short a time would indicate, and as they have not fully opened the mines or reached the bedrock they have hopes of finding gold in much larger quantities.

A GRAND CELEBRATION

EVERY FEATURE A SUCCESS

Splendid Street Parade—Three Bands—Numerous Floats—Patriotic Speaking—Beautiful Singing and Fireworks Galore.

At about 3:30 yesterday morning the city was awakened by the firing of a grand national salute and shortly after sunrise the streets began to fill with people in holiday attire. Each train brought additional celebrants to the city, while hundreds of people crowded in from the surrounding country.

Shortly after 10 the parade started down Third street, the first division being led by Monroe Grimes as grand marshal and Louis Porter and Al Varney as aides. The Arlington brass band headed the first division, after which came the newly organized military company. The carriages with the presentation speaker, John Michell, Mayor Nolan, President Blakeley, of the Commercial Club, Mrs. Eddon, reader of the Declaration of Independence, the singers, members of the school board and others. In this division was the liberty car, which was neatly arranged and beautifully decorated.

The Dalles brass band led the second division. In this was the George and Martha Washington float, A. M. Williams & Co.'s marines, consisting of twenty-four little boys dressed in uniforms and led by a fife and drum corps, the Commercial floats, in which Louie Comini's goat, which was painted red, white and blue and latched to a miniature cannon, cut a conspicuous figure in the parade.

The Dufur brass band led the third division and consisted of The Dalles firemen in the following order: Chief Engineer Gunning, with his aides; the Jackson Engine company, the Columbia Hose company, the East End Hose company, Mt. Hood company and the Juvenile Hose company, consisting of a number of small boys.

The parade moved down Second to Union and then up that street to the new school building in the Academy park. The beautiful flag donated by the contractors, architects and material men was formally presented in a stirring speech by Hon. John Michell. At the conclusion of his speech the flag was hoisted to its place by S. B. Adams, chairman of the school board, while The Dalles band played "The Star Spangled Banner."

At the conclusion of the flag raising, a chorus of eighteen voices, led by Professor Lundell, sang "The Flag Without a Stain." This number concluded the forenoon's exercises.

In the afternoon the Plug Ugly parade and that of the Native Sons of America, better known as Indians, proceeded to the grounds, where the afternoon's program was opened by the Arlington band rendering a selection. The chaplain, Rev. Joseph DeForest, pronounced the invocation. The grand chorus then sang "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean". The Declaration was read by Mrs. Maud Eddon, and to say that she did well, would be but slight praise.
