Six Hundred Lives Lost in a Disaster

Terrible Collision Off the Coast of New York-- French Liner Run Down in a Fog.

HALIFAX, July 6.—News reached here today of the collision of the French Trans-Atlantic Company's steamer La Bourgoyne and the British ship Cromartyshire in a fog about sixty miles south of Sable Island.

Of the 833 aboard the Bourgoyne but 200 were saved, 170 of whom were passengers. There was only one woman among the saved. The purser and three engineers were the only officers rescued.

The log of the Cromartyshire is as follows:

July 4, 5 a. m.—Dense fog, position of ship sixty miles south of Sable island, ship under reduced canvass going four or five knots per hour. Fog horn kept going regularly every minute. Heard steamer's whistle on port bow, which seemed to be going very fast. We blew horn, were answered by steamer's whistle, when all of a sudden she loomed up through the fog on our port bow, crashed into us, going at a terrible speed. Our foretop-mast and maintop and gallant-mast came down, bringing with it the yards and everything attached. I immediately ordered the boats out, and went to examine the damage. Four of the boats were completely cut off, and the plates were twisted. The other ship disappeared through the fog. Our ship was floating on her collision bulkhead, with no immediate danger of sinking; we were at work immediately to clear the wreckage of the ship on the starboard quarter which was hanging over the starboard bow in danger of punching holes in the bow. Heard the steamer blow her whistle. We answered with the fog horn. The steamer threw up a rocket and fired a shot. We threw up a rocket and fired several shots, but neither saw or heard anything.

About 5:30 the fog lifted somewhat, and we saw three boats pulling toward us, with the French flag flying. We signaled them to come alongside, and found the ship was La Bourgoyne, from New York for Havre and had gone down. We laid to all day and received on board about 200 survivors from among the passengers and crew. There were reported to be in all about 600. About 3 p. m., another steamer hove in sight, heading westward. We put up signals "N. C." (want assistance). The steamer bore down toward us. She proved to be the Grecian, bound from Glasco for New York. The captain agreed to take the passengers aboard and tow my ship to Halifax.

MILLER TO LEAD THE EXPEDITION

More Troops to Sail Next Week--
Death of One of the Montana
Troops.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—It is almost certain that Brigadier-General Miller will head the fourth expedition to the Philippines which is expected to start next Monday or Tuesday. Mayor Kellogg, of the Fourth United States cavalry, has received word from General Otis that he will take ship with 589 men and officers of his command, and Major Grogan, of the Sixth artillery, is in receipt of a similarly gratifying order, his assignment of troops being 269 men and seven officers. Lieutenant Abernathy and sixty men of the Third artillery, left from the last expedition, will also go.

General Merriam's son, Henry, who has been a student at Stanford university, has successfully passed an examination for second lieutenant, and will be assigned to some infantry regiment. A number of former residents of New York have organized and appointed committees to arrange for the reception of the New York volunteers soon expected here. Private Robert Lennington, of the hospital corps of the Montana regiment, is dead of pneumonia.

THE HERO WILL BE FREED

The Spaniards Have Decided to Release
Hobson—The Exchange will be Made Today.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—General Shafer has sent the following dispatch to the war department:

"Adjutant-General, Washington: Camp near Santiago, July 5.—I am just in receipt of a letter from General Toral, agreeing to exchange Hobson and his men. I expect to make the exchange in the morning. Yesterday Toral refused my proposition for an exchange."

GRAND STAMPEDE FROM SANTIAGO

Thousands are Being Carried to Jamaica
Those Left Behind are Frantic to Get Away.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, July 6.—Thousands of people met the launches of the English and American warships at the water side at Santiago, and when the foreign passengers learned that passengers would be taken off the English and Austrian consulates were besieged by hundreds imploring a chance to leave. One Spanish merchant in a pitiable state of alarm offered the British consul, Mr. Ramsden, $15,000 in gold to designate him as a British-Cuban, with authority to be taken away. Those brought to Jamaica came in the clothes they stood in, some even with absolutely no kind of baggage, who thought only of escaping with their lives.

The noncombatants in the city were in a state of desperate panic. Miss Ramsden, Consul Ramsden's daughter, says the American shells flew around their house on Saturday and Sunday morning. Mr. Ramsden could not leave Santiago and his wife would not. The report was that the city would be bombarded yesterday at 10 in the morning.

No one seems to know accurately the strength of the Spanish forces in the city and its environments, but 9000 appears a probable estimate of those fit for duty. Streams of wounded have been flowing in day and night from the firing lines. Every fifth house in Santiago is an improvised hospital.

The sailing of Admiral Cervera's fleet had a bad effect on the soldiers. They were dismayed when they saw the warships no longer in the harbor, and felt themselves abandoned to fate.

General Vera del Roy, second in command to Linares, having been killed on Sunday, and General Linares having been wounded, General Toral is chief in command in Santiago.

A MUTINY OF PRISONERS

Six Spaniards Killed in the Skirmish--
No Injury Done to Americans.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—A special dispatch to the Star, dated off Santiago, July 6th, says:

"After the destruction of the Spanish fleet 440 men from the Marie Thereza were placed as prisoners on the Harvard. For some reason these men mutinied. The officers and crew of the Harvard were prepared, and the mutineers were fired upon. Six Spaniards were killed outright and twelve wounded.

A SPLENDID SHOWING

Financial Report of the Southern Pacific for the Past Fiscal Year.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—The financial report of the Southern Pacific Company for the last fiscal year shows an increase in profits of $4,000,000 over the business of the preceding year. This shows that the last 12 months were the most prosperous in the history of the corporation. The gain in earnings is largely attributed to the operation of the Pacific system.

Increases in profits have been noted on nearly every road in the system, though in some few cases there has been a falling off in travel and consequent loss to the company.

En Route to Manila.
KANSAS CITY, July 6.—A body of 256 recruits for the Tenth Pennsylvania passed through here during the night en route to San Francisco, whence they will be forwarded to their regiment, which has sailed to the Philippines. All were completely equipped, except for guns, which they will receive at San Francisco.

Another Spaniard Captured.
KEY WEST, July 6.—It is reported here that the Spanish warship Alfonso XIII made an attempt to run the blockade of Havana harbor, and was promptly captured by a United States cruiser.

An Alliance to be Made.
LONDON, July 6.—At the Anglo-American reception given by Sir Francis and Lady Cooke at Richmond, Admiral Close, of the British navy, addressed the guests on "The Necessity of an Anglo-American Alliance," "because," as he said, "we are dependent on America for our food supplies."

Robbed the Grave.
A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject is narrated by him as follows: I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them.
