GOOD WORDS FOR OUR BOYS.

We cannot refrain from publishing the following editorial found in the Hawaiian Star at the time our "boys in blue" halted at their shores on their way to Manila:

"Could anything be finer than the conduct of Uncle Sam's boys yesterday? Cooped up as they had been in the transports, given free shore leave, in a town that they were strange to, among people they did not know, there was every temptation to cut loose and show the worst side of their nature. But this town saw, what probably no town has ever seen, and that is a couple of thousand men given liberty, and not a case which called for police interference.

"Of course this comes from the peculiar material of which these troops are composed. They are no riff-raff, no sweepings of the purlieus of a city. They are the pick and choice of the growing western states. Had not the call of duty come, these youths would one and all have been filling honorable positions and laying the foundations of their own prosperity and that of the community in which they lived.

"At a moment like this when all is enthusiasm it is hard to contemplate the future, but one cannot help feeling sad to see such fine young men being used for such a purpose. It is grand, and their spirit is what all must admire; but it does seem a terrible price for a nation to pay when she sends the very flower of her race to willingly die for her cause.

"Other nations have sacrificed their dearest and best, but it is very doubtful indeed whether any nation would send forth to the grimmest of war such rank and file as are today marching in our streets. It is inspiring, no doubt, but it is very depressing. As in all cases in life, the bright colors are made the brighter by the shadows, and we must consider both. Still it is our duty to consider the brighter side, and try to forget the shadows."

HOME LETTERS.

Another editorial, clipped from the same paper as the above, shows the kindly feeling which the residents of the islands have for our soldier boys:

"The sight that was presented yesterday when both halls of the legislature were given up to the boys in blue, is one to be remembered. Hundreds of busy pens were skimming over paper describing the voyage down, and the greeting that had met the boys in the midst of the Pacific ocean. Those letters will go to city homes, to quiet farm homes, to the wealthy and to the poor, bearing to all pleasant messages and breathing high hopes for the future.

"The desks of senators and representatives have never been put to better use than they were yesterday, and when the legislature return to their duties, there will not be one who will not think that his desk and seat has been hallowed by thoughts of home, of motherhood, of sweet hearts and of wives, who are waiting for the message which will come across the seas.

Nothing could show better the material of which the Manila army is composed than this eagerness of the boys to write home letters. It showed two things. It showed the standard of education, for the letters were no untutored scrawls, and it showed the good heart of the boys who eagerly seized the first opportunity to send their messages home."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J.
