Do not fail to see Le Roy George the rattlesnake king. He will give exhibitions this afternoon and evening. In his exhibition there is nothing appalling simply a display of unparalleled nerve and the influence of a man over the venomous reptiles.

Thursday afternoon, Bruce Bevins, son of L. B. Bevins, of White Salmon, was thrown from a horse and both bones of his right fore arm were broken. He was brought to this city on the train night before last and placed under the treatment of Dr. Hollister.

Here is what Peter Cooper, who died worth many millions, said of a newspaper: "In all the towns where a newspaper is published every man should advertise in it, if nothing more than a card stating his name and the business he is in. It does not only pay the advertiser, but it lets the people at a distance know the town in which you reside is a prosperous community of business men. As the seed is sown so the seed recompenses. Never pull down your sign while you expect to do business."

At the DeMoss Springs, Sherman county, Sunday school election last Sunday, the following officers were elected: W. E. Allison, supt.; Mrs. Woods, treasurer; Vena Webb, secy.; Ira Webb, librarian; Mrs. Webb, chorister; Mr. Mitchell, Bible class teacher.

Rev. Butcher is expected to arrive from Portland this evening. He will occupy the pulpit of the Congregational church tomorrow morning, and arrangements are being made to hold a union service at the Methodist church in the evening, as Mr. Butcher's old-time friends are all anxious to hear him preach.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Groat, who is very feeble, fell while going into Mrs. Clarke's house, and sustained bad gashes in the cheek and forehead. Dr. Doane was called and found that the injuries were quite serious, but not dangerous. In the fall she was knocked unconscious. The neighbors saw her and carried her into the house, where medical attendance was summoned.

Thursday morning over the Columbia Southern railway there arrived in Wasco a train of twenty cars all loaded with combined harvesters from Stockton, Cal. This is the largest lot of harvesting machinery ever shipped into an agricultural community on the coast, and gives an idea of the immense amount of wheat raised in Sherman county.

The ladies recently appointed by the Commercial Club to take in hand affairs connected with the emergency corps, will hold a meeting in the armory promptly at 7 o'clock this evening, to which all ladies interested in the war are invited. The purpose of the meeting is to determine if it is advisable to at present organize a corps, or what other action shall be taken. A general invitation is extended to all ladies to be present.

The president has appointed tomorrow as a day of national thanksgiving for the victories which have attended our armies in their recent battles; and also a day of prayer for the safety of our troops, that "they may be shielded from harm alike on the battlefields and in the clash of fleets, and be spared the scourge of suffering and disease while they are striving to uphold their country's honor." The proclamation will no doubt be observed by the different congregations as they assemble for worship in our city tomorrow.

Yesterday morning our eighteen volunteers left on the 7 o'clock train. Through the thoughtfulness of Messrs. Al Bettingen, Charles Frank, P. F. Fouts and others, the boys were given a rousing send off. Quite a number of people were at the train to see the boys off, and the bravens they all showed at parting with home and friends was remarkable.

Thursday Judge Bradshaw rendered a decree in the case of Mrs. C. Covington vs. Winans Bros., The Dalles Lumbering Co., and the O. R. & N. Co., which was a foreclosure proceeding, commenced at the October term of court. The decree was that the mortgage held by Mrs. Covington for $9124.22 be foreclosed and property sold, the first proceeds to apply on the mortgagee's note, the balance to apply on liens held by the lumber company, and that the O. R. & N. Co., have right-of-way through the land. H. H. Riddell was attorney for the plaintiff and Huntington & Wilson and J. M. Long for defendants.

Peter Pierson was killed and P. L. Larsen was painfully injured in Baker City Sunday morning. The two men accompanied by two other men, and the two Misses Larsen and Miss Johnson, had ridden from South Baker to the Sumpter Valley and O. R. & N. yards on a hand-car. On the handcar beside the seven people was the trunk of Mr. Pierson, the unfortunate man designing to take the eastbound train to go to Utah to visit his wife and children. The party ran the handcar upon a side track on which an eastbound freight was backing some box cars. On seeing these cars backing onto them, the seven people jumped for their lives. Pierson and Larsen being in the Sumpter Valley railway as section men, attempted to save the handcar. They were run down and Larsen escaped with several scalp wounds, while Pierson was frightfully mangled, the flesh being about stripped from his right leg. Several fingers were cut off and he was cut and bruised about the body and head.

What might have been a fatal accident occurred at Fossil on the night of the Fourth. Miss Shelton, a young lady of Mayville, had retired in her room at the Donaldson hotel, leaving the lamp burning for the use of a young lady friend, who expected to occupy the room with her, and after she had fallen asleep the lamp, from some unknown cause, exploded, scattering burning oil in every direction. The report and flames awoke her and at the same time attracted the attention of Dr. J. H. Hudson and H. T. Booth, who occupied the adjoining room. The gentlemen at once rushed to the lady's assistance, and without much difficulty the flames were subdued before much damage was done. Dr. Hudson was unfortunate enough to cut his hand severely on the broken glass, an artery being severed and an injury sustained which will take some time to heal. Had the flames not been discovered until a moment or two later they would have been beyond control, and a disastrous and perhaps fatal fire would have resulted.

Wanted at Eugene.

Officers have traced Claude Branton, accused of the murder of John Linn, at Alder Springs, June 15, to Creswell, where he took the train, but no further trace of him has been obtained. Sheriff W. W. Withers has sent the following notice all over the coast: "Arrest for murder.—Description, Claude Branton, age about 21 years; height about 5 feet, 8 inches; weight 180 pounds; black coarse hair; eyes dark; even, white teeth; smooth-shaved; wore dark suit, frock coat, black Fedora hat; wore No. 8 shoes; square built; full chested; smiles and laughs while talking. Will likely tell about bringing drove of horses from Eastern Oregon to Willamette valley. He murdered John Linn near Alder Springs, on the Mackenzie wagon road, on the night of June 15, 1898. When last seen was waiting for the south-bound overland California express at Creswell, Lane county, Or., Sunday night, July 3, 1898. All officers are requested to closely watch recruiting stations, as Branton declared his intention of enlisting in the army. I hold warrant. Arrest and wire me."

Resolution of Appreciation.

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of trustees of the D. C. & A. C., held at the club rooms, July 7, 1898, the following resolution was passed by a unanimous vote:

The recent celebration of the Fourth of July having been in all respects a success, and far beyond the most sanguine expectations of this club, under whose auspices it was undertaken, and the great success of the celebration being due in a great part to the untiring efforts of Capt. John W. Lewis, and he having relieved the officers of the club of many arduous duties, and in many ways advanced the work and insured the success of the celebration, therefore, it is hereby

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be and is hereby tendered to Capt. Lewis for his valuable services in the furtherance of the celebration, and that this resolution be entered upon the minutes of this meeting and given to the city papers for publication.

H. M. BEALL, Secy.

Last evening Carl Gottfried and Geo. Weigel were in the Lutheran church examining the new acetylene lightning process, when the gas, which happened to be escaping, caught from a bicycle lamp, which was near by, causing an explosion. Carl escaped with having his face slightly scorched and his hands somewhat burned; while George's face was badly burned. The boys came down town and went at once to Blakeley & Houghton's drugstore, where Dr. Geisendorfer dressed the injuries.
