WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Don't forget that Keller keeps the best ice cream soda in the city.

Ice cream soda, ice cream and straw berries at the Columbia Candy Factory.

H. M. Ryan, teacher of Mandolin, Guitar and Banjo. Headquarters at Jacobsen's.

Owing to the absence of the rector there will be services at St. Paul's Episcopal church today.

Wanted—A girl to do general house work and accompany a family to the coast. Must be a good cook. Apply at this office.

Mrs. A. C. Stubling & Son will soon begin on the erection of a new hot house especially for the culture of carnations and violets. The increasing trade makes this necessary and Mrs. Stubling feels that her efforts will be appreciated by her patrons.

The friends of Rev. W. R. Butcher will be pleased to learn that they are to have the opportunity of hearing him preach twice today, as he occupies the pulpit at the Congregational church both morning and evening.

Mr. Samuel Brooks reports that Friday evening he witnessed a very brilliant meteor east of here, or in the direction of Mr. Floyd's place, on 5-Mile. It was visible through the clouds for about fifteen seconds and was moving in a northeasterly direction.

Somers Family Comedy Co. Thursday evening at the Baldwin opera house. Come and hear Miss Nelhe, whose high sweet soprano voice is wonderful; Perin, the boy alto; Carl, the hayseed and Irish comedian, Little Lottie, everyone's favorite; W. Hale Cady, pianist.

Walter Isenberg, of Hood River, was hurt on Tuesday while at work at Dayenport's flume. A scantling fell from the top of the flume, 25 feet, and came on his head. He was knocked senseless, and it was about ten minutes before he revived. He received bruises on his forehead, cheeks and chin.

Yesterday the painters began work on the new school building in the Academy park. The plastering is almost finished and the floor of the second story is already laid. The carpenters will begin work up stairs Monday and will complete the building as rapidly as possible so that when school opens it will be fully completed and ready for use.

Friday evening a special meeting of the school board was held for the purpose of electing a clerk to succeed the late George P. Morgan. Charles

Schmidt was chosen to the position and in this choice the board showed excellent judgment, since a better man for the position could not be found or one who would attend more conscientiously to the work.

Mrs. Burlingame, of Dufur, is very sick and small hope of her recovery is entertained. Today Drs. Dietrich, Ellwood and Gelsendorfer performed a surgical operation on her. The left kidney was found badly diseased, floating in the abdominal cavity. It was sewed in place; but the weakened condition of the lady renders her recovery almost impossible.

Harbison Bros., of Hood River, put up fifteen tons of clover hay off four and a half acres of ground this year. Last season the same piece of ground gave eighteen acres at the first cutting and ten tons at the second. It is always lodged and badly tangled, but the mowers drive right through without much difficulty by fixing a stick about four and a half feet long on the divider board in place of the usual short one.

Yesterday morning Peter Stadelman met with a painful accident. When the team started to run away with the ice wagon, he attempted to descend hurriedly from the upper floor of the ice house, and in so doing brought his arm in contact with a nail, inflicting a bad cut in the wrist. Dr. Hollister put several stitches in the wound, and he is getting along nicely at present.

The local forest official informs us that .01 of an inch of rain fell yesterday morning about 6 o'clock. Several refreshing showers are reported in the country south and east of here. Reports from Dufur are to the effect that they had quite a fall of rain there yesterday. This will be of great value in filling the grain which is beginning to ripen, though it may injure some of it, which is already in a condition to cut.

Yesterday evening the square between French & Co.'s bank and Nielsen's corner was well occupied for a time. On one corner was the Salvation Army, on another a peddler selling glue, across the street was an individual advertising and selling a perpetual calendar, while across from Seufert & Condon's telephone office was the advertiser of the improved 18k oil painting, presided over by Prof. Raymond, who drew by far the largest crowd and furnished more amusement than all the rest combined.

It is expected that the usual large crowd will take advantage of the cheap rates on the excursion to Hood River, Cascade Locks, Bonneville and Multnomah Falls today. In order to better accommodate the excursionists an extra car will be put on both ways so that seating room can be found by all. It is certainly a treat for people who are forced to spend warm weather at home to be able to get out in the mountains on Sunday with such little cost.

The Mountaineer gave it out yesterday evening that the bodies of the two Indian women who were drowned a few days since had been found near the mouth of 5-Mile. In this they must have been misinformed, since we could learn nothing from anyone in the vicinity in which the bodies were reported to have been found that would confirm the report.

Last evening the Salvation Army were out on the street in their international march, and their make-ups were quite amusing, all the different nations being represented. Brigadier Marshal, commander of the Northern Pacific division of the Salvation Army, Staff Captain Willis, and Ensigns Park and Wilson were also present. After the usual services were held on the street, the army led the large crowd to the barracks, where a lengthy meeting was held. The singing and other services were unusually good.

The Somers Family appeared at the Columbia last night and presented a pleasing program. It consisted of a concert first part, while the second part was devoted to specialties, most of which were very clever. The smaller children are born comedians, and they kept the audience convulsed with laughter. Miss Nellie Somers possesses a voice of rare sweetness and remarkable range, and her singing completely captivated the audience.—Boise Statesman. They play at the Baldwin opera house, in this city, Thursday evening, July 21st.

Elizabeth Jane Quick Smith, who died at Hood River, July 10th, was born in Illinois, February 18, 1841. In 1852 she crossed the plains to Oregon with her parents, was married in 1863 to Charles H. Haynes, a pioneer and an Indian war veteran. About 1874, with her husband, she went to Hood River and resided at Haynes spur, where her husband died in 1886. On May 20, '97, she was married to Lyman Smith, long a resident of Hood River, but now of Astoria. Two months ago Mrs. Smith was taken ill and came from Astoria to Hood River, hoping to regain her health among the health-giving hills where she had spent so many days in vigorous womanhood. Physicians pronounce her malady cancer of the stomach. She was taken to Portland where specialists could do nothing for her, and she returned to Hood River to die. Mrs. Smith was a true-hearted Christian woman. She left a husband, an adopted son, William Haynes; a grandson, Bruce Morton, 12 years old, and three sisters. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church.
