

...More Alluring Mid-summer Prices...

THIS IS THE THIRD WEEK OF OUR GREAT CLEARANCE SALE

And the interest continues unabated. We determined to make this sale a success if prices would do it, and we have succeeded. Never in the history of our business has our store been thronged as in the past two weeks. This week we shall keep up the interest with the prices given below. Terms during this sale, cash or prompt settlement in 30 days.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

It was a Cuban drama
And the actor's face was sad.
Quote her: "To play, the villain
It really is too bad;
But injury with insult
Is mingled, and I'll quit.
If I play 'the Spanish runner,'
How can I make a hit?"
—Washington Star.

The sale of Oregon fruit in eastern markets this year is unusually heavy.

Every night a large amount of peaches and plums are shipped by express from The Dalles as well as other points along the line.

The contract for the foundation work of the new Methodist church to be built at Grass Valley, was let to Henry Frock of that city. When the building is completed it will be the handsomest church edifice in the country.

A delightful entertainment was given at the Calvary Baptist church last evening. A nicely-arranged and equally well-rendered program by the young folks was the first feature, after which ice cream and cake were served. The proceedings of the evening were delightfully informal, and the donations of those present will go to the young people's society.

In a private letter received from Mrs. John O'Leary, who at present resides in Portland, she stated that Mr. O'Leary is getting along as nicely as could be expected, being able to sit up in bed, and has a splendid appetite for a man in his condition. On account of the seriousness of the wound his leg is still in a bad shape, but is healing very rapidly.

Owing to the many points of interest along the Columbia between this place and Multnomah Falls many of our Dalles people will take advantage of the excursion today. Among other things that serve as a drawing card is the wreck of the Regulator below the locks. This boat is justly styled "the pride of The Dalles," and our people are anxious to see the condition of the handsome little craft.

For the most enjoyable outing at the least possible expense of cash and time, take advantage of the Sunday excursions to Hood River, Cascade Locks, Bonneville and Multnomah Falls. Fare, 50c for the round trip. Special car from The Dalles every Sunday. These excursions are growing very popular, and the indications are that the largest crowd of the season will take advantage of them next Sunday.

Yesterday three cables were attached to the steamer Regulator, and a supreme effort to get the boat off the rocks will be made today. The cables will be attached to the hydraulic windlasses at the locks and two engines, and when these different forces pull together something will certainly come. It is expected that the boat will be gotten off in this way and if this last resort fails it will be left on the rocks until the water goes down, when it will be raised, repaired and launched.

Quite an enjoyable time was spent in Ramsey last Sunday at the residences of W. H. Dufur and Mrs. A. Slusher, through the efforts of the Ramsey Brass Band, which is now being organized, and sure to be a success, as everything else undertaken in Ramsey has proven to be, says the Dufur Dispatch. Among those present were: Mrs. A. Slusher, Miss Eva Slusher, Miss Annette Michell, of The Dalles, Mr. W. T. Vanderpool, G. A. Clark, of The Dalles, W. H. Statts, Geo. W. Vanderpool, Jas. W. Statts, Brinton Slusher and Frank Toparr.

Albert Mason informs the Hood River Glacier that his young orchard of twenty acres was overrun last spring with cutworms. The worms would come out of the ground and swarm on the trees and cut off the leaves and buds. He was at a loss for a while how to guard against the depredations of the worms, but finally decided to wrap the trees with crinoline, cutting it in small strips and tying the strips on in skirt shape. This proved effective, and the worms soon gave up the fight.

In a short time seventy-five brave hearts will be made glad by this number of "kits" of soldier supplies which the ladies of the Dalles Emergency Corps are getting ready to send to the front as soon as possible to be distributed among the soldier boys. Each kit contains a towel, bar of soap, sleeping cap and fever bandage, a pair of scissors, writing tablet, lead pencil, bunch of envelopes, and a supply of needles, thread, buttons and pins. Each kit is done up in a cotton handkerchief and weighs less than two pounds.

GEORGE GOSSER DEAD.

One of Our Oldest and Most Honored Citizens Passes Away.

George Gosser, an old and respected citizen, died at his home near the garrison in this city, Friday night, after a long and serious illness, aged 62 years and 4 months.

The deceased was born in Baden, Germany, in March 1836, and came to this country when a child. His parents settled in Quincy, Ill., and he resided in that city until seven years ago, when he removed to The Dalles, where he has since made his home.

Last August he lost his wife, and since that time his malady, sciatica rheumatism, seemed to grow worse until it resulted in his death.

He leaves seven children, three sons and four daughters, to mourn his loss. He was one of those honest, straightforward gentlemen whom every community should prize, and with him The Dalles loses an honored citizen.

The theatrical attractions at Bonneville Park Sunday, July 24th, commence at 12 noon and last until dancing commences. New attractions have been secured this week to please all.

DEATH OF MR. RONDEAU.

One of Wasco County's Most Respected Pioneers Passes Away at Kingsley--Interment Today.

Friday afternoon another of Wasco county's pioneers passed into the silent beyond.

Elziard Rondeau, who for the past twenty years has resided in the vicinity of Kingsley, in this county, passed peacefully away at the residence of his son, Leo Rondeau, of Kingsley.

Mr. Rondeau was born in Montreal about 72 years ago and when he reached manhood he married and moved to Vermont. He remained in that state until after the death of his wife when, with his family, he moved to Oregon, where he has since made his home.

About four years ago he was taken sick, but for a time his malady was not considered dangerous, later it turned into dropsy, which disease caused his death. He leaves seven children, four sons—Remi and Leo, of Kingsley, and Joseph and Edward, of Gervais, Marion county. His three daughters are Mrs. Patneud Mrs. Emerson Williams, of Kingsley, and Mrs. Peralt, of Grass Valley.

Mr. Rondeau was well known throughout this county and had a host of friends, being a kindly old gentleman who had a pleasant word for every one and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

The splendid family of young men and women which he has raised is certainly recommendation enough for a father.

The interment will take place in the Catholic graveyard near Kingsley this afternoon.
