Pendleton is experiencing a water famine. The supply in the reservoir is too low to fight fire with and they have abandoned the sprinkling of streets. It is evidently pretty dusty at Pendleton.

Baker City people can now chat with residents in very nearly every important city and town in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. The line of the Inland Telephone Company made connection with that city Thursday.

Word was received in this city last evening that John A. Ginn, of Moro, had died at Walla Walla yesterday morning. No particulars were given of his death. The deceased was a brother of R. J. Ginn, of Moro, and a man who was well respected by all who knew him.

There will be no services in the Congregational church today. Sunday school at the usual hour.

The services at the Methodist church today will be held in the basement, where it is much cooler and pleasanter than in the main audience room.

Mr. G. W. Ferguson is at present confined to his bed, being threatened with an attack of fever. He is at the home of Mr. J. Scholing. It is hoped he will soon be able to be around again.

John L. Henderson, of Hood River, swam the Columbia Saturday and again on Monday. The distance to where he landed is about one and a half miles. The feat was never before accomplished in the memory of the oldest inhabitant of Hood River.

The friends of Mrs. J. H. Wood, who for two weeks past has been confined in the Portland hospital, having undergone a serious surgical operation, will be pleased to know, that in spite of the warm weather, which it was feared would seriously affect her, she is steadily improving. Yesterday Rev. Wood received a letter written by her, which is proof of her improved condition.

The Hood River Glacier says: The Glacier drugstore is owned by Mr. J. H. Cradlebaugh, Mr. H. A. York having sold to him his entire interest. Mr. Chas. Clark, of The Dalles, a thoroughly reliable and competent druggist, will have charge of the store. Mrs. Cradlebaugh has returned to Hood River and will make her home here and look after her husband's business interests.

Rev. Polling, of Albany, who was recently called to the pastorate of the Congregational church in this city, has accepted and will take up his duties about the first of October. This church has been without a pastor for several months, and no doubt its members will welcome gladly their new minister. It is to be hoped that Mr. Polling is, as he seems to be, the very man for the place.

The O. R. & N. offer you a day's outing in the mountains Sunday for almost nothing. Round-trip excursion tickets 50 cents. You will spend twice as much in the city and be not half as satisfied and cool. Tickets to Hood River, Cascade Locks, Bonneville and Multnomah Falls will be sold for the 3:20 and 7 o'clock trains, which can be used on the return trip on the 5:20 or 11:40 trains. No one can afford to remain in the city this warm weather when they can spend the day at some resort for the small amount of 50 cents.

Some difficulty having arisen over the ground on which the fair has heretofore been held, Dalles people had about made up their minds that the pleasure which it has afforded must be given up. However, we are very glad to say that all arrangements have been completed, and Mr. A. S. Mac Allister informs us that the tenth annual meeting of the Second Eastern Oregon District Agricultural Society will convene in this city on the 18th of October, lasting five days. This will be good news, and something to look forward to.

Yesterday just after leaving Portland the Sarah Dixon broke one of the chains which supports the cylinder timbers, and in consequence came up only as far as Bonneville and returned to Portland for repairs. The Dalles City met her at that place and a transfer of passengers and freight was made, the latter steamer returning to this city. On account of the immense amount of freight which the Dalles City carried, the delay transferring caused her to be very late last night, reaching here about 11 o'clock. The injury to the Dixon was slight and she will be ready to make her usual trip Monday.

Although numbers of our citizens hie themselves to various resorts every summer to escape the heated term, this year seems to be an exceptional one in that regard, and the mania for escaping to the woods has reached fever heat. This is as it should be. After a year's hard work at the desk, the counter, or the bench, with nothing to vary the monotony of the continual grind, what can be more pleasant to contemplate than a few weeks rest beside some mountain stream or listening to the roar of the ocean and bathing in its surf? Let none who can possibly get away, if only for a few days, miss the opportunity of recuperating.

LET US TRY IT.

Perhaps We May Aid Our Friends in Keeping Cool.

For over a week the residents of The Dalles—that is, those who are left here—have been patiently enduring the excessive heat, with the thermometer on its highest horse, vainly hoping that a breeze from "Greenland's icy mountains," or some place nearer home, would take compassion on us. We are about discouraged. But still there is a selfish consolation in knowing that others are in the "same boat," or a worse one. Every exchange which we have occasion to peruse, relates the same tale of woe. Not only are the towns in Eastern Oregon and Washington veritable sweat-boxes, but Willamette valley as well is suffering from the same malady.

We have heard much in later years of the influence of mind over matter, and have been led to wonder if the theory might not be applied with profit to our condition at present. On every hand are we reminded of the intense heat, which is the one topic of conversation at present, and as we meet our friends the first greeting is, "Is it warm enough for you?" "Isn't it terrible?" and so on, until one who was really comfortable when he started out, is fairly sweltering before a half-dozen friends have been met.

Let us give this experiment a trial at least, and though we ourselves may be "toasted," refrain from mentioning it to our neighbors; but as we meet them instead of putting the customary question "Is it warm enough for you?" because we have nothing else to say, give them, as the "slangist" would say, the "icy stare," or the "cold frost." Perhaps it would aid in cooling the atmosphere.

FLOWERS FROM PALESTINE.

Valuable as Souvenirs or Rewards for Sunday School Workers.

We have been handed the following communication from Mrs. J. B. Haverly, of Boyd, who is a prominent Sunday school worker in that vicinity, and publish it with the hope that other workers may be aided in finding souvenirs to give as rewards in their work.

With the communication were letters of reference, signed by the U. S. consul at Jerusalem, as to the character of the missionary who has taken this means of obtaining financial aid in his work. Also samples of the pressed flowers were sent, among which was the "Rose of Sharon." They are indeed beautiful, and would be valued souvenirs, coming from a place so famous in sacred history and beloved because of its hallowed memories.

"Pressed flowers from Palestine, mounted on cards, may be ordered directly from Mr. F. Th. Altarecky, Jerusalem, Palestine, Turkey. They make beautiful souvenirs for Sunday school workers or scholars. Mr. Altarecky, who makes a specialty of preparing such flowers, claims that they will retain the freshness, color and beauty that characterize them in a remarkable degree, because they are gathered and pressed in a special way. Mr. Altarecky and wife are Hebrew Christians, and work among the Jews at Jerusalem, and will be most grateful to any one who will assist them in earning an honest living by purchasing their goods. The prices of the cards are as follows: Size 4x6, 80c per doz; smaller size, 3x4½, 40c per dozen. MRS. A. HAVERLY."

FROM A MANILA LETTER.

D. C. Allard, Formerly of Boyd, Writes to His Mother.

The following extracts are from a letter written by D. C. Allard, who was formerly a teacher at Boyd, to his mother at Troutdale. Mr. Allard is a member of company L, and the letter was written at Manila:

"The boys who went ashore in small boats and captured the Ladrones were wet to the skin by the rain storm. All the officers went ashore and brought back lots of fruit. The islands are covered with tropical vegetation, even more than the Hawaiian islands. Life on board ship is very monotonous, and quarters are so cramped. Everybody was vaccinated, and I have been very sick from the effects of mine, and still have a very bad arm. A good many are having the measles.

"It was terribly rough on the China sea, and even after thirty-seven days on ship many of the boys were sick again.

A good many natives visited the boat this morning here in Manila harbor, with vegetables, fruit, eggs and poultry to sell, but as our pocketbooks are very nearly empty, no rushing business is being done.

"The islands here seem to be very mountainous, though there is much level land. Manila looks beautiful from here, five miles distant. The weather is very warm, though it rains every day. After leaving Honolulu we had only two meals a day, with coffee in the morning at 7. Perhaps that accounts for the ill-health on board."
