THE CHRONICLE AS AN EVENING PAPER.

Today the Chronicle Publishing Company gives to its patrons the last issue of the MORNING CHRONICLE. In future it will be issued as it was previous to the last few months, as an evening paper.

The change was made on account of the war, that our patrons in The Dalles and the surrounding country might have the latest news every morning. Now that the war has drawn to an end, we see no reason why we should continue longer with our morning publication since it involves much more expense and the additional patronage gained by the change is insufficient to warrant us in continuing longer.

The change will not effect the good qualities of the paper, and we can promise our patrons that THE CHRONICLE will contain as much of the latest news and be as good an advertising medium as heretofore. Therefore we confidently expect the liberal amount of patronage we have always received and will do our best to fulfill our part of the contract in a satisfactory manner.

PEACE ASSURED.

The peace commissioners will meet in Paris not later than the 1st of October, and after the preliminaries are settled they will enter upon the serious work of arranging the final terms regarding the Philippines. Spain, having been so signally defeated on land and water, and compelled to abandon Cuba and Porto Rico, will doubtless try her fine hand at circumventing the Americans in the way of diplomacy. She will endeavor to ring in some sort of a European combination, and there will be no end of citations from international law, of precedents innumerable, and possibly an attempt to fall back on the uti possidetis, or some other recondite subterfuge will be sprung to bewilder and confuse the innocent and unsuspecting Yankees.

Everything will turn on the construction of the article concerning the disposition to be made of the Philippine islands. The Spaniards will endeavor by all means to keep them, and will urge the incomplete conquest of the islands at the signing of the protocol, and that she has already surrendered more than America demanded at the beginning of the war.

The country is anxious for peace, and whatever terms the American commissioners agree to will almost certainly be accepted by the president and confirmed by the senate. A renewal of hostilities will not be thought of, considering what we have gained. A few newspapers will go into tantrums over the result, but their yowling will have no more effect than had the hoarse bawling of John Hook at the close of the revolutionary war. So the great dailies those manufacturers of public opinion, should wade in now, and give the president and his commissioners an inkling of what the American people expect of them as to the outcome of the negotiations. It will be unfortunate for them to be overreached by the Spaniards in this matter. Most of the prominent statesmen, as well as the influential public journals of the Union, without regard to party or section, have declared that the Stars and Stripes are floating over the Philippines, never to be removed, and it is to be hoped, in the light of recent events, that the islands will never be given back to Spain.

When the war broke out the American volunteer did not expect to fight a battle in the Philippines at night during a fierce typhoon, but the occasion came and he was equal to it.

Spain would never have yielded if an immense American army had not been called out. Every volunteer regiment ready in camp helped to achieve the victory.

The United States navy will now take a rest. It is not the largest in size, but in other respects may fairly be said to stand at the head of the list.

It's a good thing to remember that there are many kinds of drugs; good, bad and indifferent. Drugs are important. Inferior drugs may not only fail to cure, but may prove worse than the original trouble. Purity of drugs is our hobby. They're the only kind fit to use.

Smoke Cigars.

Why do we retail more Cigars than others?
Why do smokers go out of their way and pass cigars of the same grade?
Not because we have better cigars or better brands, or any greater variety; no, not that.
Why, because we have the finest cigar case in the state and keep our cigars in better condition.
