FAMOUS SAYINGS OF THE WAR.

The war with Spain has brought forth a large number of epigrammatic sayings which are certain to become famous in our history, says the Salem Statesman. Our American authors have produced epigrams which have found a permanent resting place in literature, but the American soldier and sailor is not far behind, and their sayings make it evident that the defenders of the Stars and Stripes are scholars as well as fighters. The sayings of our men at the front form a condensed but complete history of the war, which is as unique as it is an honor to the men and to the country. Uttered on the spur of the moment and in the heat of battle, many of them show the culture of the finished scholar, and every one is thrilling to the extreme.

At what might be called the real beginning of the war, when the Maine was blown up in Havana harbor, "Bill" Anthony's report to Captain Sigsbee is an inspiring epigram for a starter. Immediately after the explosion, when an ordinary man would have been thinking of safety, "Bill," Anthony stepped up to Captain Sigsbee as the latter rushed out of his cabin, and saluting him said, "I have to report, sir, that the ship has been blown up and is sinking." That saying shows the coolness and discipline of the American sailor which has been responsible for the winning of our great victories on the sea. Then came Captain Sigsbee's "I ask that the American people suspend judgment," which probably saved this country from rushing into a war for which we were poorly prepared.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of W. M. Bush, clerk of the hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duty at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

The Best Remedy for Flux.
 Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has the largest sale of any salve in the world. This fact and its merit has led dishonest people to attempt to counterfeit it. Look out for the man who attempts to deceive you when you call for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure. Snipe-Kinersly Drug Co.

boys, go on fighting." About that time General Alger asked General Corbin what the news from the front was, and the reply was: "Shafter is fighting, not writing." "I've got them now and they'll never get home," reported Commodore Schley to the government when he discovered Admiral Cervera and his fleet at Santiago, and he kept his word. "Afraid I'll strain my guns at long range; I'll close in," signalled Lieut. Wainwright of the plucky little Gloucester, when in answer to Schley's signal to withdraw, he steamed in and engaged two torpedo boat destroyers. And then came Captain Philip's remark on the Texas: "Don't cheer; the poor devils are dying," and at the close of the battle the remark by the same man: "I want to make public acknowledgment that I believe in God the Father Almighty." Then at the conclusion of the destruction of Cervera's fleet Lieut. Wainwright said: "The Maine is avenged."

These are not all but they are the most popularly known, and from the beginning to the end of the war the history in epigrams is complete. Just as Grant's: "I will fight it out on this line if it takes all summer," is known by every school boy and girl, so will these sayings of the heroes of this war be handed down to posterity. "You can trust the United States," was Consul-General Wildman's reply to the insurgent chief Aguinaldo, when the latter wanted to know whether he was fighting for protection, annexation or independence, and it is a fitting climax for them all. Many histories of the American-Spanish war of 1898 will come from the pens of great literary giants, but no history will be as stirring and as representative of the truth as that furnished by the sayings of the men who commanded, and the men who stood behind the American guns.

A Narrow Escape.
 Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's [drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded. 1

Make a Note of It.

It's a good thing to remember that there are many kinds of drugs; good, bad and indifferent. Drugs are important. Inferior drugs may not only fail to cure, but may prove worse than the original trouble. Purity of drugs is our hobby. They're the only kind fit to use.
