ALL NOW AGREE.

Pacific coast people have in mind the recent trip of the great battleship, Oregon, around the Horn, 13,000 miles in order to be present at hostilities off the Cuban coast. All agree that it is a wonderful boat and that its successful trip was nothing less than phenomenal.

But what might have been the result, if this nation had had a more formidable enemy, is readily understood. It takes time to make a voyage of 13,000 miles with a battleship. Besides, if the enemy had been more numerous and powerful, how easy it would have been to intercept the vessel. Luck favored the Oregon this time. Had Spain sent one of her best fleets, it is now evident that the Oregon would have had little to fear in an ordinary sea engagement. But how much better it would have been if the proposed Nicaragua canal had been in existence. From this standpoint, its early completion by the United States is imperative.

This is only one phase of the situation, however, the commercial interests of our country warrant the building of this canal. The Pacific coast people and press have long been in favor of this improvement for many reasons, and it is believed that in this they will be joined by the East, but it took just such a difficulty as the Spanish-American war to bring them to their senses.

"An open river from Lewiston to the sea," said Senator Teller in his speech at Lewiston, Idaho, last week. The senator has always been in favor of an open Columbia. An exchange expressed an opinion that: "An open river would be the solution of only one aspect of the problem which confronts the valley of the Columbia; an open river, the Philippines and the gold standard are vital requirements of the west." Oregon endorses this view of the situation. And then let us work together hand in hand for the opening of the Nicaragua canal.

Pendleton is to have a new daily paper, if J. P. McManus can secure a press report. Mr. McManus endeavored to get telegraphic news, 5,000 words daily, for his proposed morning effort from the Associated Press, but the Tribune headed him off, having previously applied for a 1500 word report. Mr. McManus is a rustling newspaper man and will make a success, if he succeeds in securing the desired news service.

The meeting of editors which convenes at Spokane today will have a splendid representation from Oregon. Yesterday's "Spokane flyer" brought a large number of the fraternity from Portland, and the crowd was largely augmented at this place. This meeting promises to be one of vast benefit to the press of Oregon and Washington. May the brethren, their friends and wives enjoy the occasion.

The gathering of Pythians at Indianapolis, which is now in progress, is one of the greatest in the history of the order. We will warrant that Oregonians will not be disappointed at the kind of representation this domain will receive at this supreme lodge meeting. She has two able delegates in J. A. Waddle and E. E. Sharon.

Implement and carriage dealers are reaping a harvest this season. When the farmer prospers he sees that his family has an opportunity to enjoy a few of the luxuries of this world.

The people of this great land may not understand much of Eastern policies, referring to Chinese waters, but most of them will resent bitterly any move that will end in the hauling down the American flag in the Philippines.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of W. M. Bush, clerk of the hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duty at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va.  Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded. 1

Make a Note of It.

It's a good thing to remember that there are many kinds of drugs; good, bad and indifferent. Drugs are important. Inferior drugs may not only fail to cure, but may prove worse than the original trouble. Purity of drugs is our hobby. They're the only kind fit to use.
