WANTS TO BE AT MANILA IN CASE WAR IS RESUMED

Amirul Dewry Will Not Attend the Siting of the Paris Commission Unless Commanded to Do So.

GEN. MERRITT TO ATTEND

He Will Sail For San Francisco at Once.

Conventon at Cavite Debating Whether or Not To Join Aguinaldo in Seizing the Philippine Islands Before the Convention.

New York, Aug. 29.—A dispatch to the World from Manila, August 29, reports that President McKinley has received a note from the American minister of the peace commission at St. Petersburg, in which he is asked to be present at the closing ceremonies, and that the admiral believes it would be more service to his country by remaining at his post there. He will be unable to go to Washington or to Paris to a full report on the condition of the peace, or to take advantage of any special recommendations, but he will not attend the sitting in the peace commission personally unless specifically ordered to do so by his government.

The admiral hopes that his government will be definitely agreed in the object to be here for prompt intimation.

General Merritt, however, will go to Paris as the president's appointee, having been ordered to go to the United States for a general government at that place. And telegram addressed to the authorities of the United States toward such a movement. The promise of the admiral is advance of an invitation, and in case he should be called on to attend, the government would not care to take any action or part in the discussions.

English Correspondent Criticizes American European War, Proposes to Visit Spain Regular Control.

London, Aug. 29.—A dispatch from Manila to a news agency, dated August 28, states:

"The friction between the Americans and the Chinese has been so acute in Manila that the government has been unable to avoid total alienation. I have been in touch with the American official, and we are now working out a plan to establish complete control over the Chinese in the city. The Chinese are very sensitive, and any serious misunderstanding may cause trouble at that place."

A Narrow Escape

Thankful words were spoken by Mrs. Ada Hart, of Hunter, N. Y., "We were taken with a bad cold which settled on my throat on Sunday and never seared until I arrived in Conshohocken. Four doctors saw me, but I was the last to short time. I gave myself up to my friends once more, and was successful. I was actually able to get Dr. King's New Throat Cure for Consumption, and was cured. I gave it a trial, and all of a sudden, and the cure was a great success. It cured me of my throat and leg and leg of a healthy woman." Total losses from a Ramey, San Francisco, 12.5c, 05c, 50c, and 75c, as desired. Constrained or price refunded.
