WESTERN MAN PROMOTED.

Among the western army men who have won distinction in the Hispano-American war is T. M. Anderson, whose promotion to be major general of volunteers was announced in the dispatches Monday. As colonel of the Fourteenth U. S. infantry he has been a resident of Washington since 1886, and has been prominently identified with the state. He is one of those able soldiers of the army who is without political "pull," hence promotion for him has been slow. Many another has passed him when promotion has been given by favor. Circumstances came to his aid at last, and at Manila he was given an opportunity to distinguish himself. Even there, however, he was deprived of some measure of the success that might have been his. He was in command until the arrival of Merritt and had been allowed to attack before Merritt's arrival, when he wanted to, the credit for the victory would have been entirely his; as it is Merritt has the credit, for he was in command when the battle was fought. Although three years ago when Shafter and Schwan and Merriam and Coppinger and Smith and DeRussey were all colonels with Anderson, Anderson in lineal rank being ahead of Coppinger, DeRussey and several others who became generals ahead of him, and was only three numbers behind Schwan and four behind Shafter, he was not granted promotion but remained a colonel, seeing officers his inferior in rank and service advanced over him, until the breaking out of the war, when he was at last made a brigadier general. Now he has won the other stars and is a major general of volunteers. It was General Anderson who, as colonel of the Fourteenth, took the troops to Skagway last year and was in command there. He now has the Philippine insurgents on his hands and is dealing with them in a manner to indicate he is a diplomat as well as a soldier.

General Anderson entered the army in 1861 as a private in the Sixth Ohio volunteer infantry, but was shortly promoted to be a second lieutenant in the regular army and assigned to the Second cavalry, later to the Fifth cavalry. He won his two bars as captain in the same year, skipping the grade of first lieutenant, was brevetted major and lieutenant colonel in 1864 for gallant services in the battles of the Wilderness and Spottsylvania, and in 1866 was transferred to the Twenty-first infantry. In 1868 he was made major and in 1869 was assigned to the Tenth infantry. Ten years later he became lieutenant colonel of the Ninth infantry and in 1886 he was promoted to be colonel of the Fourteenth infantry. Ever since he has been stationed at Vancouver barracks.

A TINGE OF SADNESS.

In the aftermath concerning the great naval display at New York, on the 20th inst., the Sun had the following:

"The only suggestion of a tinge of sadness in the homecoming of the fleet was in the lament of an officer on the Oregon when he said: 'Such a day as today is the one day in a man's life when he would like to have his folks looking on, and unfortunately for the Oregon men's personal interest in the reception, most of them were Pacific slope men. They might console themselves with the obvious fact that their ship was the most popular boat in the fleet, and that it was flanked on either side with the greatest number of excursion boats loaded with people, who cheered themselves hoarse for the men from the Pacific slope.

Ever since the United States showed such powerful strength and fighting qualities the European powers are coming down from their high roosts. The latest is the czar of Russia. He now wants an international conference looking to lasting peace and the reduction of the expensive armaments. His proposition has caused considerable comment throughout the old world.

Notice to Delinquent Taxpayers.

The delinquent taxes of Wasco county, as shown on the rolls now in the hands of the sheriff are $60,000, an amount almost equal to the indebtedness of the county. Every citizen will doubtless admit that this state of affairs should not exist, and that all taxes should be collected. On account of hard times in the past the county court has shown leniency to taxpayers, but that leniency has reached the limit, and the court cannot wait longer on delinquents to make settlements. For this reason a warrant has been attached to each delinquent roll commanding the sheriff to collect all taxes by seizure and sale of property. With a bountiful crop now in sight, there can no longer be any reasonable excuse for the non-payment of taxes. The sheriff is bound by oath to comply with the terms of the warrants attached to the tax rolls for the collection thereof, and has no option in the matter. Delinquent taxpayers can save the cost of seizure and sale of property by settling their taxes at once.

ROBERT KELLY,
Sheriff and Tax Collector for Wasco County.

It's a good thing to remember that there are many kinds of drugs; good, bad and indifferent. Drugs are important. Inferior drugs may not only fail to cure, but may prove worse than the original trouble. Purity of drugs is our hobby. They're the only kind fit to use.
