A large part of the fire was caused by a wire that was left off the track. Trainsmen consider this one of the "fast" Railroad's of Oregon.

MRS. FRITZ DEAD.

RESPECTED TOWNSMAN PASSES AWAY SUDDENLY.

Washington, D.C.—While attending services at the Catholic Church, Mrs. Fritz motion to W. M. Richardson.

The girl hand of death seized one of the country's most consistent women this morning, and an account of its unexpected coming, the case was not all the more hard. Mrs. Sarah A. Fritz, an old resident of this city, died of heart disease while attending services in the Catholic church at 6:00 this morning.

In her city the loss was one of the most serious, as she is one of the most respected and beloved citizens of the city. The body of Mrs. Fritz is being removed to the city of New Haven, Conn., where her remains will be interred.

Mrs. Fritz was born in Boston, Mass., in 1856. When ten years of age she came across the plains with the family of Judge Benet, of Vancouver, and while in that town met Israel Fritz, to whom she was married in 1875 when she was about seventeen years of age. From Vancouver they went to Walla Walla, Wash., and later moved to the Dalles, and since that time she has made this city their home.

Until about seven months ago her husband, Israel Fritz, died, and scarcely had the family recovered from the blow when they were struck by another calamity which was far greater than the above—loss of good and kind mother.

The maried life of Mrs. and Mr. Fritz was blessed with ten children, all of whom are living and healthy.

Mrs. Fritz was born in Boston, Mass., on the 1st of this month, and was and at the time of her death she was living at the home of her parents in Boston, Mass.

The funeral exercises were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz on Monday afternoon. The body was then conveyed from the church to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz on the 22d, and on account of the length of time they have been away, they seemed to be much appreciated. The remains of Mrs. Fritz will be interred in the family plot at Washington.
