The Days of Its Usefulness Are Numbered

Wilkoff to Be Abandoned in Twenty Days.

Disposing of the Soldiers

State Troops Are Now Being Sent to Their Homes From the Several Large Camps.

Clark Wilkoff, Sept. 3.—The great camp will dissolve during the coming weeks, and by October 1st it will have shrunk to slender proportions. The well men, according to the war department’s design, will leave the camp as fast as transportation can be conveniently obtained, probably at the rate of four thousand a week. The convalescents from hospitals, instead of again being sent into camp, will go at once to their homes.

The president, Secretary Alger and General Grierson had a talk about it, and although General Wheeler thought the men would do well to camp until the end of the month, if the 1st of October, it was determined to continue sending them away. The regulations taken from the posts east of the Mississippi will, according to the present direction be sent where they were before the war. The war department, has not transmitted the order to General Shafter yet, but it will not be revoked by Tuesday.

The Eighty Third Ohio and Fort Illinois will bring camp Tuesday. The rough ridges will wander out toward the end of the week probably, and will stand.

Pioneers at Jacksonville

William M. Calvig Delivered the Annual and C. B. Watson the Occasional Address.

Jacksonville, Sept. 3.—The twenty-third annual reunion of the Pioneer Society of Southern Oregon was held in Jacksonville Thursday. The weather was good and the number of representative pioneers present was the largest assembled in many years. The president, Henry E. Anstey, was present and addressed, and Rev. F. G. Strange offered prayer, which was followed by a number of vocal solos.

The secretary, Judge R. J. Day, read a number of resolutions on matters who had died during the last year. A short farewell address was delivered by Hon. William C. Colvig, a pioneer of Jacksonville, while Mrs. J. N. Miller, assisted by the pioneer women of Jacksonville, presided and served a beautiful and delicious banquet.

At the afternoon exercises, A. G. Bondre, the pioneer post of Southern Oregon, read a specially prepared poem on the occasion, entitled “Pioneering.”

A general address was delivered by Hon. C. B. Watson, attorney for the Pacific States.

The Rev. J. N. Miller, was introduced to the assembly for the reading of “Old Lang Syne.”

Beckham By Was Driving Rain Away—
His Campaign Escaped Practically Unharmed.

Arroyo, Ota., Sept. 3.—A special to Anthony from Brown, says:

A newspaper article, which probably cannot result in the death of Orin Beckham, of this town, convicted today. Miss Anna Beckham and Mrs. Rosz had been at the country, visiting Mrs. Beckham, today. Orin Beckham started for town.

With the women, when about fifteen miles from town the horses became frightened, and the efforts of the driver to control them were unsatisfactory. They dashed along the road at an unusual speed, overturning the carriage and throwing the occupants on the ground. Beckham fell on his head. His skull was crushed and he was pronounced dead on the spot. His hands, however, were not broken.

Miss Beckham was taken to the nearby hospital, brought to his home for treatment. Mrs. Beckham was at the scene of the accident, and is thought by the attending physicians that her life is serious. Mrs. Beckham is frighted and is suffering from convulsions of the brain. The fall rendered him unconscious, in which condition he still lies. The inured man in well-known Miss. Beckham and Mrs. Ross are teachers in the public schools.

All Favor the National Expansion

Majority of Peace Commission Are Opposed to Giving Up Fruits of the Victory in the Orient.

Washington, Sept. 3.—Private letters from our consuls abroad indicate that the Philippines must be retained if the United States desires to maintain its position in the world of nations. A very prominent exponent in the consular service says:

“People may as well make up their minds to be somebody or get out of the earth.”

These reports show that our people abroad feel that they must do something to maintain their positions. If a successful war has been fought and won, why should everything we have secured, nations abroad would have very little respect for us. Our consul not only win in favor of the retention of China, Formosa, and the Philippines, but are also anxious that the Nicaragua canal should be built, and that a navy commensurate with the development of the country should be built and maintained.

As to the sentiment of congress and of the people, it seems to be all going one way. If Dewey had not won the great victory of May 1st at Manila, congress never would have passed the resolutions annexing the Hawaiian islands. At least, it could not have been put through at the last session of congress. The people who voted for the annexation, who had been opposed to it heretofore, did not because they thought the Philippines would be ours after Dewey’s victory.

The personal of this communications, indicates that much will be the case. Some say our neighbor will be against us, or that the French will be against us. But we will give the president whatever he wants. We will support the president at every point, and this includes the month-long stay of the president at the Paris Exposition. We will not doubt be in cable communication with the president every day of that period, and whatever the president receives at the particular time the communication comes, they will support him.

Question of Annexation

New York, Sept. 3.—A dispatch from Manila says:

One of General Aguinaldo’s condition.

Americans Favor Holding of the Philippines.

Hanrahan makes the local provisions in the interests and desires of the people about the Maine wreck as made known before the war, intending to show the nation that their interests that American property shall be fully protected, and incidentally that they do not regard the case as of the situations as determined and interest in the matter for the manufacture of armament.

Yellow Fever in the South.

Key West, Fla., Sept. 4.—State Health Officer Porter issued a proclamation today stating that he believes no yellow fever exists in this city, nor has been seen any here this season. The present quarantine will be kept on for a few days as a means of extra precaution to avoid the possible error of last year on the Upper Gulf coast.
