OUR GREAT MILITARY NEED.

We must abandon the happy-go-lucky system under which our war department has always been conducted. We must have a general staff, such as every armed state in Europe maintains, if we are to be ready when the next war comes.

Take, for example, the general staff of the German army, the most perfectly organized in the world. It is a large body of selected officers—the best in the army—from major-generals to young lieutenants. Its functions are to see that each department of the service is organized and efficient, that all are prepared to act together on the instant, that every item of information for which a commanding general might call would be accurately and instantly forthcoming.

The general staff knows every day where every gun, every cartridge, every uniform is. It knows precisely how many railway cars, carts, horses, etc., there are at every station. It knows how many troops can be concentrated at a given point within a given time. Best of all, it keeps the several departments—quartermaster, subsistence, medical, etc.—in perfect touch each with the other so that each will respond at once upon call. All this is what is called "mobilization."

What a difference it would have made if we had had some such effective means of mobilization as this at the outbreak of the Spanish war! How disastrous the lack of it would be to us if some stronger nation than Spain should suddenly force us into war!

President Maso, of the so-called Cuban Republic, calls the American people "our ally of yesterday, our host of today and our friend always." This characterization is all right. The American people have shown a friendship for the Cubans without any precedent in the history of the world. They have expended hundreds of lives and hundreds of millions of dollars to give freedom to the Cubans, and they did this, too, without any immediate expectation of gain to themselves. They promised to let the Cubans set up an independent government if the majority of the Cuban people desire it. This promise will be kept. But there is no reason to suppose that a majority of the Cuban people want a separate government. When the voting takes place it will undoubtedly be shown that most of the Cubans want to become part of the nation with freed them, and which is able and willing to give them the stability and the progress which they could not gain by a government of their own. Cuba, by the free voice of its people, will annex itself to the American republic.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
 by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.
