A freight car loaded with lumber jumped the track near Cascade Locks yesterday afternoon and was broken to splinters. The wreck was caused by a broken wheel. The East bound passenger was delayed several hours on account of the trouble.

George Perringer, of Pendleton, has purchased of Mr. Eastman of Pilot Rock, two colts sired by Pendleton's favorite horse, Chehallis. One is three years old and the other seven months. Horsemen say they are promising colts, and are worthy of their sire. The price paid for them is said to have been $5000.

The Pendleton wheat market continued strong yesterday. The sales made on a 50 and 53-cent basis for the past two days amount to 300,000 bushels. Selling has been general all over the country. Fifty thousand bushels have been sold at Weston, and the same amount at Milton, within the past two days.

We understand that Mrs. Chas. Stubling and Son, the well known Dalles florists, contemplate building a new green house in the near future. So great is the demand for the flowers and plants at this establishment that they cannot supply their customers at present, and will construct another house so that they will be prepared to fill all orders.

A considerable number of high school graduates and teachers from Wasco county are attending school at Monmouth and Eugene this year. Among those who have left recently are Miss Hattie Sternweis, of Boyd, Miss Ida M. Foss and Miss Bess Isenburg, of Hood River, and Omer K. Butler, of Nansene, while a number of others have left for these schools some time ago.

Surveyor Golt returned recently from a surveying tour on White river and the Juniper Flat country. His object being to look into the matter of building an irrigating flume from either White river or Clear creek. He thinks the undertaking will not be a difficult one and would greatly increase the value of property in that section.

The old O. R. & N. bridge across Mill creek has been purchased by Mr. Emil Schanno and Mr. Henry Maier, of this city, and at present they have workmen cutting up the less valuable timber for cordwood. Much of the heavy timber in this bridge, however, is valuable for building purposes and can be bought at a bargain from the present owners.

Mrs. Amanda King died at her home near Grass Valley, on Thursday morning, September 22d, 1898, at 5:15 a. m., aged about seventy years. The funeral services were conducted at the residence yesterday by Rev. Henton. Mrs. King has been a long sufferer, and when death's messenger came she passed away as if asleep. Her home has been in Sherman county for about 17 years, and she was loved and respected by all who knew her. The interment took place in the I. O. F. cemetery.

Yesterday afternoon and evening Mrs. Charles Phillips' grand millinery opening was held in her parlors in this city. From 10 o'clock yesterday morning until after 9:30 last night the parlors were crowded with ladies admiring the beauty and cheapness of the many hats which were on exhibition. Professor Ryan's quartet furnished abundant music during the evening and all present declared that the melodious strains never sounded as beautiful as on this occasion and that the only thing that would stand comparison for beauty was Mrs. Phillips' stock of hats. Her parlors are known throughout a great part of the Inland Empire.

Mrs. Anna Parrish, wife of Hon. C. W. Parrish, of Canyon City, died at the family home September 8. Three weeks before she was stricken with paralysis and her death was expected. Mrs. Parrish was a daughter of J. R. Robb and was born at Oregon City, September 23, 1847. She was graduated from Williamette university, Salem, in 1864. Mr. Parrish was a member of the same class. Mr. and Mrs. Parrish were married in 1867. Mrs. Parrish leaves a husband and six children. The children are: Mrs. Victor Cozad, Mrs. George Hagay, and Josiah, Emma, Samuel and Charles Parrish. All live at Canyon City.

Steven Smith, a member of the old Aurora colony, and a prominent figure in Marion county and state politics at one time, died at his home in Aurora, Saturday afternoon last, of typhoid fever. Mr. Smith was born in Muscatine, Iowa, March 14, 1845; moved to Bethel, Missouri, with his parents when a child, and in 1863 came with a colony across the plains and located at Aurora. He was a member of the state legislature and justice of the peace for several successive terms, doing the lucrative legal business of the Aurora colony. He took a prominent part in settling the affairs of the Aurora colony when it split from the Bethel colony. He married Miss Hannah Kraus in Aurora, who died in 1874.

The entertainment at the Baldwin opera house last night by the Wizard Oil company was up to the usual standard, and contained numerous new features that have not been introduced on previous evenings. The manager of the company, Mr. Gallagher, was taken suddenly ill after the show on Thursday evening and was unable to be present at last night's entertainment, for this reason the diamond ring was not raffled but the raffle will certainly take place tonight. Along with the ring a number of other beautiful presents of less value will be given to those buying reserved seats. During this week no medicine talk has been made and will not tonight, there being nothing but first class entertainment offered those in attendance and to remain away at the present prices would be to overlook an opportunity to spend pleasant evening when little or no expense is involved.

WHOLESAME ADVICE

For People Whose Stomachs are Weak and Digestion Poor.

Dr. Harlandson, whose opinion in diseases is worthy of attention, says when a man or woman comes to me complaining of indigestion, loss of appetite, sour stomach, belching, sour watery risings, headache, sleeplessness, lack of ambition and a general run down nervous condition I advise them to take after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, allowing the tablet to dissolve in the mouth, and thus mingle with the food eaten. The result is that the food is speedily digested before it has time to sour and ferment. These tablets will digest food anyway whether the stomach wants to or not, because they contain harmless digestive principles, vegetable essences, pepsin and Golden Seal which supply just what the weak stomach lacks.

I have advised the tablets with great success, both in curing indigestion and to build up the tissues, increase flesh in thin nervous patients, whose real trouble was dyspepsia and as soon as the stomach was put to rights they did not know what sickness was.

A fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be bought at any drug store, and as they are not a secret patent medicine, they can be used as often as desired with full assurance that they contain nothing harmful in the slightest degree; on the contrary, anyone whose stomach is at all deranged will find great benefit from the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They will cure any form of stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. Full size package at druggists 50c or $1.00 or by mail from Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

IS HELD FOR MURDER

MAGERS, THE ALLEGED SLAYER OF RAY SINK, ARRESTED.

He is an ex-convict—The Dead Man Was in His Company When Last Seen Alive.

W. H. Magers, an ex-convict, was arrested in Portland at noon yesterday, on suspicion of being the murderer of Ray Sink, of Moro, whose body was found floating in the Willamette, opposite Salem, Tuesday afternoon. Sink was last seen alive in company of Magers, but the prisoner declares he does not know what became of his former friend after they parted in Salem on Tuesday, the 13th inst.

The capture of Magers was effected by the Portland police within twenty-four hours after they were notified that he was wanted in Salem. About noon on Thursday Sheriff Durbin, of Marion county, wired Chief McLaughlin that he had secured enough evidence to warrant the arrest of Mager, and that he was in that city. Steps were at once taken to locate the fugitive, but he could not be found until 11:30 yesterday morning, when it was learned that he was staying at the Depot hotel, corner of Seventh and Glean street, with two girls, one of whom he claimed was his wife and the other his niece.

Detectives Ford, Cordano and Barry were immediately sent to the hotel, and arrived there just before dinner. Ford entered the dining room, and, stepping up to Magers, told him he was wanted at the city jail.

When taken before the chief, Magers did not seem to be worried in the least. He answered all inquiries, and as he was not charged with the murder or interrogated directly concerning the deed, he did not have any cause for anxiety. His appearance was rather favorable. After the examination he was lodged in jail, where he was kept until today, when he was taken to Salem.

In the opinion of the police the Salem officers have a good case against Magers.

The Married Ladies Win Last Evening in the Match at the Commercial Club.

The tournament between the single and married ladies at the Commercial Club last evening was largely attended, and much interest was taken in the game by everyone.

After a stubbornly contested match the married ladies succeeded in winning three of the four games, with an advance of forty-nine pins over their younger rivals.

They did not carry away all the honors, however, as Miss Alma Schanno was presented with a beautiful bouquet of carnations by Miss Lang for making the highest score, while Mrs. Charles Phillips presented Mrs. Theodore Seufert, the captain of the victorious team, with a beautiful bouquet.

CUBA AND THE CUBANS.

Dr. Thomas' Lecture At the Christian Church.

Mr. George E. Knepper, president of the Normal College at Lewiston, Idaho, has the following to say in favor of Dr. Thomas, who will deliver his famous lecture on "Cuba and the Cubans" at the Christian church Wednesday evening, September 28th:

"Dr. C. N. Thomas lectured under the auspices of the Normal Literary Society at Lewiston, Idaho, on September 19, 1898. The lecture was satisfactory in every respect. He leaves Lewiston carrying with him the highest appreciation of the large audience that heard him." GEO. E. KNEPPER, Pres. Normal College, Lewiston, Idaho.
