Weyler is as implacable as ever. He says Spain should not only hang on to the whole of the Philippines outside of Manila and vicinity, but she should reserve the right to cede any of the islands to any other power by sale or exchange.

THE CHRONICLE does not oppose Mr. Corbett because of any personal dislike for him. But he is not the man for senator. He is being made a tool of by a disreputable set.

In describing the work of his rough riders Col. Roosevelt says "the regiment typified what we hold to be American. In it was the Protestant and the Catholic, the Jew and the Gentile, all alike and on the same footing.

An Oregon paper suggests that Mr. Corbett, knowing that he has but a few years of this life before him, is enjoying his money by spending some of it in politics.

The Republicans of New York state made a splendid hit when they nominated Colonel Roosevelt, the hero of the rough-riders at Santiago.

Our exports of cotton to Japan have increased from 32,000,000 pounds in 1897 to 109,000,000 pounds in 1898.

M. C. George is a good, sound Republican. If elected to the senate he will bring to the office valuable experience.

The Oregonian gives itself away. It is whistling a graveyard tune to keep up its spirits. It knows that Corbett is beaten.
