

SYRUP OF FIGS

NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

Our Fruit Exhibit At Omaha.

Yesterday Mr. F. S. Peet, of Portland, spent the day in this city endeavoring to awaken an interest in our fruit exhibit at the Omaha exposition, and succeeded somewhat in his mission. Today Pete Stadelman sent a fine exhibit of grapes direct to the grounds and others have signified their intention of following his example.

One of our Eastern Oregon papers has been objecting seriously to the bill which has been in the legislature asking for $18,000 to defray the expenses of our exhibit there, saying that it has not been worth $15 to the state. In regard to the appropriation, we have nothing to say; but certain it is that the paper in question knows nothing of the many visitors who stop to wonder at and admire the Oregon fruit there displayed, while those who know just what an excellent exhibit we might make, are positively ashamed of what they behold.

Mr. Peet informs us that a free rate on 1000 pounds a week has been secured through to Omaha, which leaves little excuse for our fruit men's neglect in failing to do this much towards advertising our state. It is to be hoped that many boxes of Wasco county's wonderful fruit will find their way to the exhibition during the weeks remaining, where they will receive due credit as well as benefit the state.

SINGING AMONG THE GREEKS.

The Ancient Greeks Sang Blithely, and Were Carefully Instructed.

Our present system of public instruction is not so modern as some would have us believe. Sparta had her state superintendent, who, if distant report is to be trusted, was an educational despot. But, while he wielded his walking stick freely during official visits, and encouraged his subordinates to ply the rod on all occasions, he was as diligent a promoter of music as is any humane and progressive educator of our era. As a result, the little Lacedaemonians sang blithely, no matter what torment was going on under their tunics. And all over Greece, in those dim days, were schools, ranging from infant grades instructed under Arcadian hedges to the university-extension schemes harbored in buildings uniquely termed "places of leisure." The infants were drilled in their alphabet-gammas; the older boys were taught poetry and gymnastics, with something of arithmetic, geometry and drawing; and adults spent their leisure with rhetoricians and sophists, paying handsomely for the privilege. But music was a sine qua non of Grecian life, in school and in sport, in battle and in burial. The epic and elegiac chantings at festivals, the calm speculations of Pythagoras as to the music of the spheres, the choral outburst of "the great fifth century," the material odes of Tyrtaeus and Pindar, all show the national love for melody of voice as well as for high and harmonious thought. An old-time Greek set down amid the strident, metallic voices of our occidental world would feel that the Furies had seized either upon him or the continent he was visiting.

The Wave of the 24th contains two full pages of Astorian pictures illustrating the salmon-fishing industry on the Columbia river. The photographs were made by J. H. Bratt, and are as fine a set as have ever been published. They can hardly fail to attract attention. The Wave now devotes considerable space and attention to Northwestern subjects, especially to the affairs of Washington and Oregon. This edition also contains photographs illustrating the Austrian tragedy, the Flood mansion (which was recently presented to the University of California), the Indian Congress at the Omaha Exposition, the street markets in Mexico, together with a fine picture of James D. Phelan, mayor of San Francisco. The reading matter is especially interesting, among the features being a story by Frank Norris, entitled, "The Drowned Who Do Not Die."

Persistent Coughs

A cough which seems to hang on in spite of all the remedies which you have applied certainly needs energetic and sensible treatment. For twenty-five years that standard preparation of cod-liver oil, has proved its effectiveness in curing the trying affections of the throat and lungs, and this is the reason why: the cod-liver oil, partially digested, strengthens and vitalizes the whole system; the hypophosphites act as a tonic to the mind and nerves, and the glycerine soothes and heals the irritation. Can you think of any combination so effective as this?

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper.
