NOT ENOUGH MONEY.

It is plain enough that Mr. Corbett and his followers have not enough money with which to buy the legislature. That money influence has been used effectively in getting up the rump caucus, is well known. That nearly every member has been approached by money propositions, is also a fact. The sentiment of the people and of the legislature is not for Mr. Corbett, hence there must be means used to corrupt them.

The Chronicle wonders that members who came to Portland strongly anti-Corbett men, and who afterwards walked willingly into the rump caucus, can look their friends and constituents squarely in the face. There was never a stronger case of open corruption. It is evident that the means that Corbett attempted to use in 1872 are being employed again, but with indifferent success. Every member of the legislature knows it, some by practical demonstration.

It is refreshing to know that the unfair means that are being used to elect a senator will totally fail. This matter of cold-blooded purchase of honors has been thrust once too often upon the people of Oregon. The Chronicle is glad of it, because the Republican party will have been better off for the repudiation of the assumptive Glasses and Josephs.

OBSERVATIONS FROM SALEM.

Let the name of H. W. Corbett be eliminated from the contest for U. S. senator, as the representative of a faction only, then the Republican members can all enter a caucus and proceed to select some suitable representative Republican for that position. Nothing less will satisfy the self-respecting Republican members and nothing less will satisfy the people of the state. Mr. Corbett's candidacy will not be tolerated.

The Commoner, formerly the Callamy Howler, of Portland, has the following among "De Kid's Say" from Salem: "Old man Corbett is got a lot of cheap skates up here booming him. I could buy the whole lot for six bits an' two beers, and dey would be dear at dat price."

More than twenty-five Republican members of the legislature, all of whom are honest and true men, have stated positively that they will not vote for Henry W. Corbett for U. S. senator. These men will never go back on their word. Many other members say they are opposed to Mr. Corbett, who is, in fact, the candidate of a minority notwithstanding the claim of his supporters. Withdraw his name, and let some strong, able, vigorous Republican be chosen, and the Republican party will henceforth be free from the odious factional dissensions which have divided it for more than two years.

Though the state press continues to make the legislature the principal topic, yet there was never a more quiet session, says our Salem correspondent. When the senate and house were taking action the other day on the first separate ballot there was not the least excitement. The mention of the names of the various candidates failed to elicit the least applause. It is a good sign that this contest is to be decided dispassionately.

It is entertaining to read General Wheeler's evidence before the commission investigating army abuses. In any event, the old fighter is just as true a soldier as he was thirty-five years ago, and a good warrior never flinches from the truth. His evidence has great weight.

M. C. George is the choice of a large number of Republicans of Oregon for the high position of United States senator. They have representatives at Salem.

Editorially, the Oregonian has been exceedingly quiet, the past few days, on the subject of Mr. Corbett. The Oregonian really prefers some other person to Mr. Corbett.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.
