Ride up to the fair tomorrow in Ward & Robertson's wagonette.

Nicely furnished room for rent. For particulars inquire at this office. 20-1w

Del Norte will be the central attraction at the track this afternoon, and it looks as if everybody will be out.

In the excitement over the fair, save a little enthusiasm to be expended when the young ladies give their Halloween party on the 31st.

For Five Dollars you can buy a Camera that will take larger pictures than any other Camera on the market. For sale by Clarke & Falk.

Just received. A consignment of plain and mixed pickles, olives, pickled onions, and chow chow, in bulk, at the Dalles Commission Co.

If THE CHRONICLE has called too late for dinner, leave us on the porch and give us a hand-out. There's room for the filling process to get in its work today.

Fresh Olympia and Shoalwater Bay oysters by the pint, quart or gallon, delivered, at greatly reduced prices at the The Dalles Commission Company. 12-1w

Tomorrow night will be the night for real enjoyment at the pavilion, when everybody can take a very active part in the evening's pleasure. Come with your dancing pumps on, or your slippers either, or dance in your boots, any way so you can get the most enjoyment out of it.

About a week ago a broom factory was started in the East End, unpretentious, but nevertheless the best of brooms are manufactured there. Mr. Sheridan, who is at the head of the concern, is an old hand at the business, having made brooms for all the leading firms of the Northwest.

County Clerk Kelsay has been doing his duty during the past few days, and his efforts to secure a wedding for the fair are untiring. He has come to the conclusion that the inducements offered by the management are not sufficient, and says if they will only furnish the hearse he will procure the corpse.

Mary Anderson, who is now Mrs. de Navarro, and lives in England, has allowed herself, her new English home and her two-year-old baby to be photographed for the first time for publication. Some twenty pictures have been made, and the best of these will appear in an early issue of The Ladies' Home Journal. The baby's picture is, of course, the central one of interest.

The last race on the official program yesterday afternoon was a quarter-mile dash; but for some reason it was declared off and a five-eighths mile dash substituted. There were five horses entered, which got away under a good start and made a very pretty race. Volta came in first, Nervosa second Uncle True third with Barnato and Twister a close fourth.

The state railway commission is no more. The governor has signed the special emergency bill abolishing the office. The commission is now in the midst of their regular report. They do not know even that the state had dispensed with their services. The report is half finished, and will never be finished. There is a lot of other business which the members will have no time to wind up.

Everybody wants to see the roadster match race, by what is termed the "slower horses" which is to be called at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The horses may not be quite so fast as some others, but the names of the owners are proof that it will not be a "slow" race. The horses entered are Doc S, owned by C. F. Stephens; Baby F., by H. Fowler; Snip, by Mell Murchie; Mamie, by W. H. Hobson.

Dalles young ladies are hereby notified that it will not be necessary for them to go South for "Hobson's kisses," they can be secured right here at home, by calling at Pease & Mays' store tomorrow. THE CHRONICLE force may be "Hobson's choice," having already been treated to a sample of that article, which they assure you are not only the sweetest kisses, but the latest candy out. They don't come high, and you must have them, five for five cents.

Yesterday Capt. Lewis received a letter from the wife of Gen. Bacon, who is attending to his correspondence in his absence. She informs him that the General is still at Walker, preparing for the winter's campaign. Speaking of the fight at Bear Island, she says it was a narrow escape; that nearly half of the men in the Third infantry were recruited and hardly competent to lead or fire their guns. General Bacon is a personal friend of Capt. Lewis.

Mr. Baldwin informs us that Samuel Wells, the great Shakespearean reader is to visit The Dalles, and that a series of four entertainments will probably begin Monday. Fifty cents will be charged for one evening, or $1.50 for the series. Mr. Wells comes very highly recommended, having complimentary notices from such men as Chaucey Depew, and Dalles people should improve such an opportunity, which is seldom given us.

From all sources may be heard complimentary remarks regarding Wasco county's exhibit at the Portland exposition. "It is the best we have ever had. I was proud to say I live in a county where such fruit can be raised." So say visitors from here, and Mr. Varney, who has had charge of the display, says nothing in the exposition causes more favorable comment than does this one section of the building. Among other things there is a watermelon, which if 'twere hangin' on a vine would make the vine groan, as it weighs 74 pounds. Let them beat Wasco if they can.

After the second race yesterday the jockeys had some trouble, and as Boynton rode up to the judges stand awaiting the signal to dismount, Karrin, the rider of Little T. G., rode up beside him and made a wicked strike at him with the butt of his whip. Boynton received the blow on the cheek bone, and as quick as a flash retaliated, striking Karrin in the mouth, splitting both his lips. The riders then dismounted and were summoned before the judges, as a foul was claimed. On returning to the weighing room they again came together, but were separated by friends and rushed to their quarters.

MRS. REED AT THE PAVILION.

She Was Greeted by a Large Audience— "Hello" Evening Also Helps to Attract the People.

Those who failed to reach the pavilion at an early hour last evening had the extreme pleasure of standing during the remainder of the evening, for the prospect of hearing Portland's "queen of song" was such an incentive that a very large crowd was in attendance. As she came upon the stage she was greeted with loud applause, and her first selection was a Lullaby, which always attracts an audience. Each succeeding number called forth more enthusiasm. Her voice is that rich contralto of which one never wearies, and all seemed to enjoy the last number, the "Cuban Hammock Song" as well as the very first solo.

While giving visitors from abroad a hearty greeting, The Dalles people were ever noted for their loyalty to home talent, and so our orchestra was none the less appreciated because of the famous singer who was among us, but received their share of applause.

At the close of the program a grand rush was made for the telephones, and the rest of the evening was devoted to the Oregon Telephone Co., which in advertising its line, had also given those present an opportunity to enjoy programs being rendered in far off cities. This project had its desired effect, and the first "Hello" over the long distant 'phone will certainly not be the last.

Tonight Mrs. Reed will again sing, which will be the last opportunity to hear her, as she leaves tomorrow for Portland. The program runs thusly: Ben Hur Chariot Race.....Pauli Overture—Beatrice.....Shaefer Woodland Serenade.....Mascheroni Mrs. Walter Reed.

Selection—"America".....Moses (a. "Thy Beaming Eyes".....McDowd (b. "When Love Is Kind".....(Old Melody) Mrs. Walter Reed. Selection—"Chicken Brigade".....Johnson Waltz from Opera "Fencing Master".....De Koven Ben Bolt.....Kneass Mrs. Walter Reed. Rage in Ireland.....Beyer Post Dispatch.....Pryor

Last and Final Notice. I hereby give notice that on and after the 1st of November, 1898, I will, without further notice, proceed to levy upon all property upon which taxes remain unpaid for the year 1897.

Says: "The fool saith, 'Put all thy eggs in different baskets;' which means, scatter your money and your attention; but the wise man saith: 'Put all your eggs in one basket, and watch the basket.'"

We have only one basket, and we are watching it in optics. Having made a thorough study of the subject, graduating from three of the best colleges, we are enabled to give you a scientific examination. It doesn't matter whether you buy a $10 glass or a $1 glass, or any glasses at all, you get an examination, and a thorough one at that, which alone is worth your time to know your eyes. I fit all cases of eyes, and am permanently located in The Dalles. I am no traveling fake, and best of all I guarantee all work in optics to give you entire satisfaction. Yours to serve, PROF. P. G. DART, the optician.
