Put your money in the bank and treat with the German specialist.

Jackson Engine company will hold a meeting this evening at the usual place. A full attendance is requested.

It is reported that all the Indians engaged in the recent shooting near Canyon City, with a single exception, have been shot and that there is no danger of future trouble.

Monroe Grimes shipped five carloads of cattle to Troutdale today, having purchased them from Messrs. Cram, Hinkle and Lyle. Two carloads also came down from Heppner.

The Dalles City brought the pile driver from Hood River to Lyle, where a wharf will be built by the D. P. & A. N. Co., the one at Hood River having been completed.

Tonight and all day tomorrow you can consult the German specialist free of charge at the Umattila House. Will return December 1st, 2d and 3d. Cross eyes straightened without the knife. Catarrh a specialty.

Mr. C. E. Nestor, of the Oregon Telephone line, is in the city soliciting subscriptions which will induce them to extend their line to Prineville. Many are responding liberally and we trust the good work will go on.

Yesterday in speaking of the fatal accident to Mrs. J. J. Gibbons we said it occurred at Cascades, instead of at Hood River. The deceased lived four miles from Hood River, and her funeral was held at the Christian church there yesterday.

One dozen of those extra finish Platino Fotos, made by Gifford, will make you twelve fine presents for Christmas. Nothing would be appreciated more, and now is the time to sit for them. Don't put it off too long and then expect to have them finished in time. 1-1m Workmen are engaged in grading the grounds surrounding the High school building. These will no doubt be made the most beautiful grounds in the city, as the building is so situated that they can be terraced to the foot of the grade.

Many flattering remarks are made by several of our prominent citizens regarding the wonderful skill which Mrs. Dr. Frank displays in correcting visual defects. Those suffering from impaired eyesight, which often ends in total blindness, should not neglect calling on Mrs. Dr. Frank, Room 38, Chapman block, over U. S. Land office. You will be sure to find her in the office the entire day on Saturday, November 5th.

This morning at the Farmer's Hotel Mr. H. M. Woolen and Miss Ida Medlar were united in matrimony by Justice Bayard. Both the bride and groom reside at Wasco, and are members of society circles there, the bride being a daughter of B. F. Medlar, who is well known in The Dalles.

Yesterday as Julius Bankonin, with his wife and child, who live on Ninth street, were starting out for a drive in their cart, the horse became frightened and ran away, going but a short distance before the occupants of the gig were thrown out. Mrs. Bankonin and the child received several bruises which are not thought to be serious.

Mrs. Susie Parmenter, of Salem, grand chief of the order of Rathbone Sisters, will be in the city Thursday evening and exemplify the work at their meeting, after which a general good time will be had. Members are requested to make an extra effort to be present, as it is desired to give her a hearty greeting and receive as much benefit as possible from her visit.

This morning John Seymour, a Warm Springs Indian, with his wife and family, started out for home, when on reaching the 5-Mile hill his wagon was crowded off the grade and they were thrown out. The children were bruised slightly, but Mrs. Seymour had two ribs broken. Agent McCowan, who was also on his way home, brought the unfortunate woman back to town, and summoned Dr. Hollister, who attended to her wounds.

It seems that another arrangement has been made in regard to the Christmas boxes for the soldier boys at Manila, and that a further opportunity will be given to send them, as the Sunday Oregonian says: "The Emergency corps will receive boxes for the soldiers at Manila all through this week." It has been ascertained, however, that they should be shipped from here by Friday morning. Notice is also given that none of them must weigh more than fifty pounds. The freight charges are free from Portland, and as the D. P. & A. N. Co., has previously carried them free to that place, they will no doubt do so again.

The goblins and spirits were unusually quiet last night, and must have been on their good behavior, or else most of the gates in our city were successfully held down by parties returning from the entertainment, for few were off their hinges this morning. However, residents of the hill were reminded that last night was Halloween when they attempted to come down the Rinheart steps this morning and found them blocked by a cart, which had been placed so that it was impossible to pass. We have learned Mr. J. C. Means was minus a cart this morning which he is very anxious should be returned. Speaking very emphatically regarding it he said: "If my cart isn't returned tonight I'll find out who stole it and he will suffer the consequences." Now, boys and girls, return Mr. Means' cart, and we advise you to do so after he has retired.

THE GHOSTS' VISIT.

A Large Attendance, and Successful in Every Particular.

Not many more could have edged their way into the Baldwin opera house last evening on the occasion of the Halloween party given by the young ladies of the Congregational church. The receipts, which were over a hundred dollars, will give some idea of the large number which attended, although about $20 was taken in at the candy booth and over that amount at the lunch tables.

The program was good, Hampshire and Clark, as was expected, carrying away the honors of the evening in their negro sketch. Strangers were heard to remark: "That comes up to anything I have seen in professionals." Other numbers on the program were a male quartet by Messrs. Poling, Doane, Landers and Phelps, which so delighted the audience that an encore was demanded. The guitar trio by Messrs. H. D. Parkins, Erwin Parkins and J. R. Rees was very sweet, but round of applause failed to bring them out again. Miss Myrtle Michell's selection, "Past and Present" by De Koven, was loudly encored and she responded with a lighter ballad, "Rose, Sweet Rose." A number of the ghosts of some of our liveliest young ladies appeared in the ghost march, making the audience imagine they were with Tom Sawyer in his graveyard act. They evidently frightened themselves from the manner in which they made their exit.

The remainder of the evening was spent in partaking of refreshments and viewing the photographic collection which was presided over by Mrs. Tolmie. The Dalles has many artists in this line as was shown by the display last evening. Two photographs of twin papooses taken by Moorehouse of Pendleton attracted much attention, and are certainly the finest Indian pictures we have seen.

The young ladies are to be congratulated on the decided success of their undertaking.

To Extend the Telephone.

The Prineville Review has the following concerning the telephone line: "Messrs. Seufert & Condon, of The Dalles, have written to Mr. M. A. Moore, the president of the company, that they will build from The Dalles to Sherar's bridge. The business firms of The Dalles would no doubt take some stock. "If sufficient energy is put forth, we could have telephone connection with Educational Meeting.

Superintendent Gilbert seems to be awakening an unusual interest in educational matters all over the country, and meetings such as have never been held before are taking place in the different districts. Saturday at Wamic about 175 people were present, and showed an enthusiasm which speaks well for the people of that section. Next Saturday a meeting will be held at Barrett school house, four miles from Hood River, where a new two-roomed school building has just been completed. Thank You.

The young ladies of the Congregational church are very grateful to those who so kindly assisted them in making the Halloween party such a success, particularly those who took part in the entertainment. They take this means of expressing their thanks.

Expression of Thanks.

I desire to express my thanks to those of my neighbors and friends who proved themselves such true friends during the illness and death of my dear wife.

It's Human Nature.

This readiness to accept the wonderful and miraculous in preference to commonplace truth. A plausible and glib-tongued doctor can go from town to town curing, or trying to cure, people, and have a great influx of shekels, while every community in which the so-called doctor goes is supplied with quiet, learned practitioners, who have forgotten more than the fakir ever learned, and they can give you the best treatment within the reach of human knowledge. While your home doctors carry you from year to year, get up at all times of the night and are your servants during the day, and you pay them when you are well or able, the fakir gets the cash, and is gone forever. If your eyes are troubling you in any way, call on Prof. P. G. Daut, the only graduated optician or doctor of refraction in The Dalles, two doors west of Keller's Bakery. I am here to stay, and guarantee all eye work.
