

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

Says: "The fool saith, 'Put all thy eggs in different baskets'; which means, scatter your money and your attention; but the wise man saith: 'Put all your eggs in one basket, and watch the basket.'"
We have only one basket, and we are watching it in optics. Having made a thorough study of the subject, graduating from three of the best colleges, we are enabled to give you a scientific examination. It doesn't matter whether you buy a $10 glass or a $1 glass, or any glasses at all, you get an examination, and a thorough one at that, which alone is worth your time to know your eyes. I fit all cases of eyes, and am permanently located in The Dalles. I am no traveling fake, and best of all I guarantee all work in optics to give you entire satisfaction. Yours to serve,

HOW SHE FIXED HIM.

One Way of Disposing of an Obnoxious Suitor.
He was a theatric lover, and she didn't like his style a little bit, says the New York Sun.
He was constant in his devotion, however, and that made matters worse. She had tried gentle means to get rid of him, but he had disregarded them with painful persistency.
In this moment of her desperation he felt it incumbent upon him to propose to her as men under similar circumstances so often do.
Which they wouldn't if they had any sense at all.
"Dear one," he exclaimed, hurling himself tragically at her feet, "I love you. My life is yours. Will you take it?"
She did not look like a murderer.
"Mr. Singleton," she responded, with calm determination, "I will."
He gazed at her rapturously.
"Don't do that," she begged, drawing back from him as if in horror. "I have taken your life, as you requested me to do, and you are henceforth to all intents and purposes dead."
He seemed dazed.
"I do not, Mr. Singleton," she continued, turning aside, "desire to have a dead person in the house, and if you do not go away at once I shall ring for an ambulance and have you removed to the morgue."
Then the dreadful situation in which his own precipitate folly had placed him was revealed, and he removed himself with promptness and dispatch.

ACRES OF PINK POND LILIES.

Floral Display That Delights Connecticut Railway Travelers.
One of the most beautiful floral exhibits in New England is upon "Tadpole," a famous pond lily pond on the line of the Norwich & Worcester railroad, one mile above Jewett City, Conn. The surface of the pond is now a mass of pink and white pond lilies, and their fragrance is carried for miles by the summer winds, says the New York Sun.
No one knows how long this remarkable garden of pond lilies has been in existence, but for many years Tadpole's lilies have been sought by picnic parties from near-by counties in this state, Massachusetts and Rhode Island. Cartloads of the flowers are carried away, but there seems to be no diminution in the supply.
The railroad comes suddenly upon the pond, which it divides in halves, and in an instant the passengers detect the fragrance of the lilies and throw up the windows, the better to view the beautiful and unusual sight. In one section of Tadpole there is a large tract of lilies the blossoms of which are of so rich a pink as to be almost rose colored, it is said. They are of exceedingly rare beauty and are much sought after by collectors.
Tadpole's unromantic name comes from its being a favorite place for young frogs. It has been known by this title for years, but an effort is now making to change its name to the still more unromantic one of Clayville pond.

AMERICAN SILVER TRUSS.
LIGHT, COOL, Easy to Wear. No pressure on Hips or Back. No understraps. Never moves.
Retains Severe Hernia with Comfort.

Is Used by Many
Leading institutions throughout the United States and Canada, and have been adopted by Guy's and Westminster Hospitals, London, England. In this Truss the principle hitherto so greatly desired has at last been achieved, that of firmly and constantly holding the rupture with a gentle hand-like pressure.
It does not pass around the hip like other trusses, but over the hips, the silver wire lying in the hollow of side, thereby allowing the free movement of the hips and limbs, allowing the wearer to stride out freely, and doing away with the fear and dread that something will go wrong that usually attends the wearing of other trusses.
Its lightness is featherweight in comparison with other trusses. It is so light the wearer scarcely knows he has anything on, and this is a great comfort, enabling the wearer to forget his ailments.
It can be altered by the wearer to the shape of the body, not being made of hardened steel, and can, with a little judicious and careful bending, be made stronger or weaker in pressure, as desired.
