Padlin' Head Wilson Says: "The fool saith, 'Put all thy eggs in different baskets'; which means, scatter your money and your attention; but the wise man saith: 'Put all your eggs in one basket, and watch the basket.'"

We have only one basket, and we are watching it in optics. Having made a thorough study of the subject, graduating from three of the best colleges, we are enabled to give you a scientific examination. It doesn't matter whether you buy a $10 glass or a $1 glass, or and glasses at all, you get an examination, and a thorough one at that, which alone is worth your time to know your eyes. I fit all cases of eyes, and am permanently located in The Dalles. I am no traveling fake, and best of all I guarantee all work in optics to give you entire satisfaction. Yours to serve,

Courtland Green, whose trial for the murder of John Linn has been going on in Eugene, was sentenced yesterday to life imprisonment, he having confessed to complicity in the crime.

Last night Jackson Engine Company had a fire drill. Quite a number of members were present, and it is intended to occasionally have such drills, for the purpose of keeping in practice.

Prof. Ryan informs us that the Wilder Quintette Club, who are musicians of a high order and well known in Portland, will be in this city on Thursday, November 17th, and give a concert in the Baldwin. This will be good news to the music-loving public.

One dozen of those extra finish Platino Fotos, made by Gifford, will make you twelve fine presents for Christmas. Nothing would be appreciated more, and now is the time to sit for them. Don't put it off too long and then expect to have them finished in time.

The frost is now on the "punkin," and the flowers as well, compelling all who wish to keep their plants alive to cover them. The chrysanthemums are just now beginning to be the most beautiful and it seems cruel for the hoary frost to nip them so mercilessly.

Mr. Kinersly has solved a problem of great moment to the ladies of The Dalles, and from now on they may finish their shopping without being compelled to go home and find out whether their hats are on straight. In one of his show windows he has arranged mirrors galore of all descriptions. Whether this is to attract the ladies has not been determined, but the aforesaid gentleman no doubt has an eye to business.

Last night after the regular practice of the mandolin and guitar club at Fraternity hall about thirty young people joined them and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. The music furnished by the club proved to be excellent, as the time was perfect and the selections good. Those who were present hope this will not be their last invitation to spend a few hours so pleasantly.

Another serious accident occurred this afternoon when Hon. Robert Mays, who was assisting the workmen to remove some heavy stones which are being used in his new building, from the wagon, mashed his left hand very badly. The stone fell on his hand cutting a deep gash in the center of it, and it is feared it will be rendered useless. This accident is doubly unfortunate as Mr. Mays lost the use of his right hand about two years ago from rheumatism.

The funeral service of Philip Brogan, which took place this morning at 9 o'clock in the Catholic church, was one of the largest ever held in The Dalles, and the long procession which followed the remains to the cemetery evidenced the regard felt for the deceased, who met such an untimely death. The order of Catholic Knights preceded the bier, which was carried by Messrs. M. T. Nolan, K. McLellan, F. McRae, A. Bettingen, J. Malone and Henry Meier. Father Bronsgeest conducted the service, which was extremely affecting, the sorrow of the children of the deceased over the loss of their only parent making the scene doubly sad.

This morning Messrs. Ed Gleason and Tom Condon arrived in the city from Antelope with Joe Aubin, nicknamed "Slim," and Raymond Chavies, who are held as accessories to the murder of Philip Brogan. The last heard of Forster, the murderer, he was at Trout creek, fourteen miles from Antelope, and it was expected he would be captured last night. Leaving Antelope directly after committing the deed, he went to Eagle valley and from there to Trout creek. As there was not sufficient men at the place to attempt to take him, word was sent to Antelope and a force of men were dispatched immediately to capture him.

The Prineville Review says concerning the large traction engine which was in The Dalles some months ago on its way to Silver Lake: "Last week we said that the people of Silver Lake might hear the whistle of Christman's engine next 4th of July, but we were mistaken. He has come to grief or rather the engine has. After being laid up at Haystack for several weeks undergoing repairs, another start was made. When near what is called Mud Springs, the engine blew up and we understood it is a total wreck. No one was hurt. The engine will be abandoned and another trial made next spring. We'll extend the time a little and say he may arrive at his destination some time next fall."

The chapter of accidents and fatalities still continues, and we are compelled to chronicle one after another of these sad news items. About noon today Mr. C. G. Whitmore, who lives on the right fork of Mill creek, arrived in town bearing the news of the death of his father-in-law, James Hartman. He had been engaged in work on the road and last night after eating a hearty supper retired. Being called this morning no response was heard and upon going into his room he was found dead in bed. Heart disease is said to be the cause. It was thought best that an inquest be held and Coroner Butts went out for that purpose this afternoon. Mr. Hartman, who was 50 years old, was an old soldier, and made his home with his son-in-law. The funeral will be held at their residence on Mill creek on Friday.

MRS. ERHART'S DEATH.

Funeral Will Take Place at the M. E. Church Tomorrow Afternoon.

The body of Mrs. Joseph Erhart was brought to the city on last evening's train, accompanied by her husband and daughter, Miss Edna. E. church at 2 o'clock, and will be conducted by Rev. J. H. Wood, in the absence of the pastor of the First Baptist church, of which deceased was a member.

Mrs. Alice Erhart, whose maiden name was Laycock, was born in Placer county, California, and was 44 years of age. She leaves, beside her husband, a daughter, Edna, son, Arthur, and three sisters and two brothers, her father and mother being dead. All her brothers and sisters reside in California except Wm. Laycock, who lives in Portland, and will be present at the funeral.
