WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

John Brogan of Antelope, was made a citizen of the United States this morning.

For every purchase amounting to ten cents ask for a ticket at A. Keller's bakery.

Nineteen of Oregon's volunteers have now died at Manila, the last one being Chas. N. Harn, whose home was near Eugene.

Mr. Brooks informs us that up till noon today we have had .65 of an inch rainfall, and from reports it is general throughout the country.

There will be a good program both evenings at the Catholic bazaar, which takes place on the 23d and 24th inst. Darkey specialties will be the principal feature.

"Apron Strings" is the topic for an entertainment which will be given by Chaplain Lozier, under the auspices of the Epworth League during the first week in December.

The Dalles is to have entertainments galore in the near future. Mr. Kinnersly informs us that "Hi Henry's Great Minstrel" will be here some time during the first week of next month.

Mrs. Reed's talks are extremely interesting to everyone. The girls are especially concerned in tomorrow's lecture. Every woman and every girl should attend. See announcement elsewhere.

Mrs. C. L. Phillips announces a clearance sale of fall hats. She has on hand some very fine new felt walking hats, which she can now sell at half price—75 cents. Call and see if they are not an unusual bargain. n18-2t

The Elks have secured the famous orator, D. Solis Cohen, to deliver the eulogy at their memorial exercises on the first Sunday of next month. Certainly the hall will not contain the audience on this occasion, for beside hearing Mr. Cohen the services are beautiful and impressive.

W. A. Slingerland butchered three hogs last week that weighed 980 pounds. There is nothing remarkable in that statement, but the hogs were grown and fattened on prunes. Three weeks before killing they were fed on shorts. The time has come when Hood River can fatten pork without relying on high-priced feed from a distance.—Glacier.

Del Norte, the famous guideless pacer, with a record of 2:04 1/2, is in this city, where he will probably be kept during the winter. Barrows Bros., the owners, have about decided to remain with him at the capital city until the coming spring. He is quartered at White & Wait's stable in the rear of the old post-office block, on Ferry street.—Salem Statesman.

For weeks, yea months, we have had occasion to mention the "hull" of the Regulator, and it now becomes our duty to add the stereotyped expression "as we go to press," for at that time the Reg. was putting on her bull new riggin'. She looks more natural than she ever has as she stands on her stilts getting ready before "she starts, she stirs, she moves." Tomorrow will see her togged in her new suit of clothes.

Last night Mr. J. T. Peters' horse, which was kept in his stable at the East End, broke down the door and running into a projecting timber injured himself so badly that he died this morning. The horse was a valuable one, and one which his owner regrets parting with. James Blakeney also had the misfortune to lose one of his horses last night. The animal had been sick for a week past and last night went to horse's heaven.

Last night just after the boat arrived there was an "Angel hovering round," and when some men were about to move a wagon onto the dock, he was requested to fly away. Being somewhat rattled he forgot his wings and stepping aside fell into the river. The water was but a few feet deep, and by clinging to one of the piles he kept his feet until he could receive assistance. Mr. Angel got pretty well ducked, and to prevent further baptisms the gates on the sides of the plank have been nailed on.

Father Dilman, who has been in this city during the past week visiting old friends and scenes, returned to Astoria today. He was formerly well known and beloved in The Dalles, having had charge of the Catholic church in this city in '63 and '64. For two years he was stationed at Canyon City, afterward going to Astoria, where he has since remained. The few days spent here have been very pleasant ones both for the Father and his old friends, who were pleased to meet him again.

Special Lecture, by Request.

The ladies of The Dalles who have listened to Mrs. Reed's lectures, realizing the necessity of a better understanding of the human body and the laws of health governing it, have requested her to remain over and give a special lecture to mothers and daughters this Saturday afternoon. The lecture will be held in the small K. of P. Hall and will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock. At the close of the general lecture there will be a special talk to girls. Questions oral or written will be answered. Admission free.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS.

As Was Proven Last Night to an Audience at the Baldwin.

The breathless silence which pervaded the audience during the entire program at the Baldwin last night was very complimentary to the Wilder Harp and String Quintette Club and speaks well for the taste of the musical people of The Dalles, for the concert was certainly one of excellency throughout.

The club is composed of Prof. Wilder, who plays the mandolin, as does also H. Berger; H. K. Oliver, violoncellist; Miss Bessie Wemple, violinist and Mrs. Wilder, harpist. The latter instrument, perhaps, pleased the audience most, as it is not often that we are permitted to enjoy the rare sweetness of its tones so thoroughly as when played by such an artist as manipulated its strings upon this occasion.

Somehow the old songs are dearer to us than can the new ones ever be and they always thrill us in the strangest way. It is human nature to grasp at everything which may appear new and strange; but when we have listened to the latest and most classic of compositions and finally detect a few familiar strains such as were played by Miss Wemple in her violin solo, when was recognized the air of that old song so dear to ever German's heart, "O wie ist's moeglich dann," or sung by Americans "How can I leave thee, queen of my loving heart," we grow extremely enthusiastic. Miss Wemple understands the art of bringing out every tone that is best in the violin and pleased the audience so much that she was loudly encored.

The solo on the violoncello by Mr. Oliver was not less appreciated, and those who were not aware that such music could be brought forth from the instrument, were convinced that it plays no small part in the general effect of selections rendered.

The two gentlemen who picked the mandolins, though not being heard in solos, made their presence known in the other numbers, taking the lead in a manner which proved them competent musicians.

The vocal part of the program was well filled by Miss Myrtle Michell, whose first selection was "Only in Dreams" by De Koven, followed by an encore "No Kiss." She next sang "Forgotten," by Cowles, responding to an encore with "The Wedding of the Lily and the Rose." She was well accompanied by Albert Baldwin at the piano.

The club were much pleased with the reception given them by the people of The Dalles, and Prof. Ryan is to be congratulated on the success of the concert.

At the close of the program a large number remained to enjoy dancing for a short time. The music furnished by Bert Baldwin, Prof. Ryan and Clinton Alden was good. The dances were curtailed somewhat on account of the illness of Mr. Baldwin, who had been confined to his bed during the day, and was scarcely able to appear last night.

Are Needing Assistance.

A special edition has been issued by the Canyon City News devoted mainly to giving publicity to the fact that the people of that city who lost their homes, in fact all they possessed on earth in a financial way, are in a pitiable condition. It says:

We must have assistance from the outside world and must have it quickly or misery and hardships will follow in the wake of the fire. On the eve of a cold and chilly winter to be burned out of a comfortable home and forced out into the cold and cheerless world with hardly clothes enough to cover our backs, we would be heartless if we were not thankful for whatever favor granted. Think of home and children.

Dalles people surely have had experience enough in this line to place them in a position to sympathize with and assist their unfortunate neighbors. While it seems to our citizens that every day brings forth new avenues which call for expenditures, yet certainly this is one which cannot be, nor would we seek to overlook. The smallest contribution will be gratefully received. Let us not forget the days of our own need, and thus we will be led to sympathize with those of our neighbors. Beside, in a business way The Dalles has received very substantial aid from the residents of that section.

Fresh burned lime can be had at the Hugh Glenn warehouse for $1.30 a barrel.

A word said to be of Persian origin. It was in former times the most venerated of those magical formulas that were constructed out of the alphabet. Serenus Samonicus gives the following directions for its use: Write the letters of the word so as to form a triangle (as above) capable of being read in many ways, on a square piece of paper. Fold the paper in such a way as to conceal the writing, and stitch into the form of a cross with white thread. This amulet wear in the bosom, suspended by a linen ribbon, for nine days; then go in dead silence, before sunrise, to the banks of a stream that flows eastward, take the amulet from off the neck and fling it backwards into the water. If you open or read it the charm is destroyed. All who conscientiously do this may be sure of getting the following low prices on shoes at Pease & Mays: Men's calf lace, broad toe, for $1.50; Ladies' hand-torn, square toe, button, for $2.00; Ladies' glove grain, button, for 75c; Misses' patent leather, kid tops, for $1; Childs' calf, heel shoes, lace, for 50c.

What They Are Doing in Court.

The grand jury brought in a true bill against Wm. Rolfe, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon. Rolfe took a shot at C. B. Reese at Antelope last spring.

In the case of Jas. Stegman, charged with maliciously killing a horse, the grand jury returned not a true bill.

The jury in the case of the State vs. Thos. Riley, brought in a verdict of guilty as charged.

Edward Keith, indicted for larceny, plead guilty and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

with larceny in a dwelling, is occupying the attention of the court this afternoon. Prosecuting Attorney Jayne appeared for the state and Sinnott & Sinnott for the defendant.

It's Human Nature.

This readiness to accept the wonderful and miraculous in preference to commonplace truth. A plausible and glib-tongued doctor can go from town to town curing, or trying to cure, people, and have a great influx of shekels, while every community in which the so-called doctor goes is supplied with quiet, learned practitioners, who have forgotten more than the fakir ever learned, and they can give you the best treatment within the reach of human knowledge. While your home doctors carry you from year to year, get up at all times of the night and are your servants during the day, and you pay them when you are well or able, the fakir gets the cash, and is gone forever. If your eyes are troubling you in any way, call on Prof. P. G. Daut, the only graduated optician or doctor of refraction in The Dalles, two doors west of Keller's bakery. I am here to stay, and guarantee all eye work.

An Important Difference.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a costive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and, sold by all druggists.
