WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Regular meeting of the Elks tonight.
For every purchase amounting to ten cents ask for a ticket at A. Keller's bakery.
Meeting of Christian Scientists tomorrow at the small K. of P. hall at 11 o'clock. All are invited.
The ladies of the Good Intent and their friends are working hard for their coming fair. Assist them by volunteering contributions of needle work.
The usual Thanksgiving shoot for turkeys and chickens will take place on the beach Thanksgiving day, conducted by A. Y. Marsh.
One of the finest numbers on the program at the Catholic bazaar will be the selections by the orchestra of St. Mary's Academy, which is composed of the pupils.
Workmen are engaged in repairing the valves of the locks at the Cascades today. It is expected that they will be finished so that the boats can pass through on Monday.

Why don't some one ask us if it isn't a beautiful day? These be the days that are worth mentioning. Don't wait until the melancholy days have come and ask us if it's cold enough.

Mrs. C. L. Phillips announces a clearance sale of fall hats. She has on hand some very fine new felt walking hats, which she can now sell at half price—75 cents. Call and see if they are not an unusual bargain.

And now we are compelled to inform eastern people that away out in Oregon we have a guileless pacer with a record of 2:04 1/4. A dispatch from Philadelphia Wednesday called Albatross, the guileless pacer with a record of 2:09 1/4, the champion of the world.

As the winter months come on the interest in bowling circles increases, and this bids fair to be the principal amusement from the number who are now becoming agitated over it. In the handicap games last night DeHuff, Moore and Hampshire won, with a score of 526. Entries for the ladies' tournament must close by the 21st, so that those who intend to compete should enter at once.

One might suppose, from the fact that 500 turkeys were this morning shipped by one firm, the Commission company, to Portland, that Dalles people had decided not to give thanks this year. But Portland needn't think she can gobble up all our Thanksgiving, there's plenty more at every produce store in the city. We have a great deal to be thankful for already, and we'll have more when Thursday comes.

Mrs. M. Zirka was delighted yesterday to receive a number of souvenir handkerchiefs from her two boys at Manila, from whom she had not heard for some time. The boys say they have not gone hungry as yet, and are extremely proud of their new military suits, which are pure white, with bright brass buttons, and they wear a cork helmet. A company dressed in such style must be an attractive sight when drilling.

The reunion of the Epworth Leaguers and their friends last night at the Methodist church was particularly pleasant. A large number were present and the best of good will and fellowship prevailed. A roll call of members was the first feature of the evening, when each answered with a favorite Bible quotation. Then followed a program consisting of a song by the League; quartet by Misses Cooley and Willerton, and Prof. Landers and Freas Saunders; a reading by Miss Carrie Butler; a solo by Mr. Fleming and a recitation by Ena Uren. The young ladies served a lunch, during which time a most social time was enjoyed, which continued the remainder of the evening.

"Don't tell them that you saw me" was what the wood, piled up in Chinatown, said to the steam saw as it severed the sticks apart this morning. And the saw said nothing, but sawed wood, as the Mongolians stood by and minded their p's and queues. Some John is progressive and determined to forsake the ways of his fathers and patronize his esteemed friend, which is somewhat of an improvement on the rare old China invention which goes around with saw and sawback following every load of wood and assisting its owner with "You wantee saw?" But when the Chinamen and the woodsaw joins hands, we are compelled to ask, "What next?"

The Dalles can justly be accused of being decidedly "stuck up" over her schools and we don't care who knows that we are. Beside having a good boarding school such as the St. Mary's Academy, our public schools can't be beat no matter where you may search. The report published today shows sixty more pupils than reported for the second quarter last year, and fourteen more than the school has ever before numbered. An additional teacher has been added this year, and still some of the rooms are overflowing. Not only does the school excel in quantity, but quality as well, the pupils in the lower grade being well versed in many current events, etc., concerning which former graduates were not instructed. A splendid library is now being placed in the High school, to which recently has been added forty new volumes of the best reading.

Notice of Reward.

We will pay $1 per head for all horses branded H (quarter-circle H), commonly known as the Honeyman, De Hart & Glenn railroad stock, delivered to me at Rowena, Or., or put in a pasture near by and notice given to me at Rowena or Hugh Glenn at the Dalles.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Gleanings From Today's Session of Court.

Last evening David Patterson, Jr., plead guilty to the crime of burglary and was sentenced to one month in the county jail.

The jury in the case of N. B. Myers, charged with larceny in a dwelling, brought in a verdict last night of guilty as charged in the indictment. He will be sentenced Monday.

Thos. Riley, who was found guilty of larceny in a store, was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

Mable Gannon was granted a decree of divorce from G. Gannon.

The case of G. E. Bartell vs. Geo. T. Thompson, an action on a stated account, came up for trial last evening and is occupying the attention of the court today. The following jury are sitting on the case; C. A. Cramer, R. J. Ellis, J. W. Ensley, J. H. Shoemaker, C. V. Durham, S. W. Curran, R. Beatie, J. W. Ward, J. H. Eubanks, J. P. Snodgrass, W. J. Harriman and P. T. Knowles.

Wm. Rolfe plead not guilty to the charge of an assault with a deadly weapon on the person of Murdock McKay committed at Antelope last spring.

Ship Atlanta Wrecked.

Truly this is a year of accidents. A telegram from Newport, Or., yesterday, gives an account of the wrecking of the ship Atlanta at Alsea bay, sixteen miles below Newport.

The ship, which was first-class, in good condition and of 2800 tons, left Tacoma a week ago today, Captain McBride commanding, loaded with 1753 tons of wheat for Cape Town, an African port. The vessel is broken in two, her masts are gone and the decks swept clean of everything. Of a crew of twenty-seven men, so far as is known, only two got ashore alive.

The life-saving crew from Newport had been sent to the scene when the telegram was received and more definite news will no doubt reach us soon.

CEDAR CIRCLE ENTERTAINS.

A Good Program is Rendered, a Good Time Enjoyed, and Good Oysters Served.

Last evening was a lively one in social circles, and chief among the events was the entertainment given by the Cedar Circle to the Woodmen of Mt. Hood camp and their wives.

About 8 o'clock a jolly party gathered at Fraternity Hall, and made the most of the time until a late hour. The following program was rendered, some numbers of which were very amusing:
Song and Drill..... Ten Little Indians
Vocal Solo..... Annie Hansen
Summersault Chorus..... Three Boys and Girls
Mock Initiation.....
Vocal Duo..... Mr. Dawson and Mrs. Stephens (Accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.)
Vocal Solo..... Miss Male Cushing
Optical Illusion.....

At the close of the program a genuine oyster supper was given the guests, and so generous were the ladies that not a person was seen fishing for the oysters in the stew.

Last, but not least was the dance at the close of the evening, for none enjoy this past time more than the members of these two orders.

ABRACADABRA

A word said to be of Persian origin. It was in former times the most venerated of those magical formulas that were constructed out of the alphabet. Serenus Samoniacus gives the following directions for its use: Write the letters of the word so as to form a triangle (as above) capable of being read in many ways, on a square piece of paper. Fold the paper in such a way as to conceal the writing, and stitch into the form of a cross with white thread. This amulet wear in the bosom, suspended by a linen ribbon, for nine days; then go in dead silence, before sunrise, to the banks of a stream that flows eastward, take the amulet from off the neck and fling it backwards into the water. If you open or read it the charm is destroyed. All who conscientiously do this may be sure of getting the following low prices on shoes at Pease & Mays': Men's calf lace, broad toe, for $1.50; Ladies' hand-turn, square toe, button, for $2.00; Ladies' glove grain, button, for 75c; Misses' patent leather, kid tops, for $1; Childs' calf, heel shoes, lace, for 50c.

Wanted.

SNAP SHOTS.

The 12-year-old son of W. E. Reed, who lives twenty miles south of Arlington, narrowly escaped being dragged to death by a horse. His foot caught in the stirrup. After being dragged about 100 yards he was kicked in the face, losing an eye.

Mrs. Harriet Towler, who died in New York city on the 12th, and was buried in Portland today, was the mother of Allan and Myra Calef, who formerly attended the academy here, and who will be kindly remembered by their schoolmates.

Edward Warren, an opium fiend and gambler, is suspected of having started the fire which destroyed Canyon City, he being a guest at the hotel where it started, and was angry at some of the residents there. He has been apprehended at Sumpter, and it is said will be lynched if it can be proven that he committed the crime. It is hoped, however, that the people will thoroughly investigate the matter and not be rash.

The half-breeds at Jones Landing, across from Bonneville, are not behind the times when it comes to society scandals. Last Wednesday Miss McCormick, aged 17, and a married man, twice her age, eloped and started for that Mecca of all runaway couples—Vancouver. When the deserted wife gets hold of her blacker half, she'll just organize a party and go "black burying."

It's Human Nature.

This readiness to accept the wonderful and miraculous in preference to commonplace truth. A plausible and glib-tongued doctor can go from town to town curing, or trying to cure, people, and have a great influx of shekels, while every community in which the so-called doctor goes is supplied with quiet, learned practitioners, who have forgotten more than the fakir ever learned, and they can give you the best treatment within the reach of human knowledge. While your home doctors carry you from year to year, get up at all times of the night and are your servants during the day, and you pay them when you are well or able, the fakir gets the cash, and is gone forever. If your eyes are troubling you in any way, call on Prof. P. G. Daut, the only graduated optician or doctor of refraction in The Dalles, two doors west of Keller's bakery. I am here to stay, and guarantee all eye work.
Prof. P. G. DAUT.
