

Sale Now On.

Ends Saturday Evening.

.....THE SALE OF THE SEASON.....

500—PAIRS OF MEN'S PANTS WILL BE SOLD—500 AT HALF PRICE.

We Have a Way of Doing Things

Peculiarly our own. If we do anything at all we do it Right.—do it thoroughly. We have too many pairs of pants in stock. We wish to reduce our stock. To do this quickly and thoroughly we apply the lever of "cut prices," and such a cut,

..Half-Price..

Prices Range from $1.25 to $5.50.

A. M. Williams & Co.

HOW DO THEY FIT?

Try on any pair—your size—from our complete pants stock, and that question will always be satisfactorily answered. So will the price. Here you will find worsteds, cheviots and cassimeres in pretty stripes and checks, bars, widewales, plaids and sedate mixtures—made to wear, made to fit and fit to wear anywhere.

And Still They Come

Seventy-four pair is the figure our sale of Men's Pants, at half price, reached yesterday. At times our three clothing sales-people couldn't wrap them up fast enough. The steady drain on the stock in our clothing department compelled us to take out our window display of nearly one hundred pairs and add them to the rest. Quite a strain on popular sizes and patterns was yesterday's selling, and today's business will not tend to make choosing any easier for tomorrow's customers. We are open in the forenoon tomorrow; after that it's turkey-eating with us. Take the hint?

...Pants at Half-Price...

Makers are... K. N. & F. and Sweet, Orr & Co.

PAUSE TO CONSIDER THAT

$5.00 buys two pair of $5.00 Pants during this sale, or one pair for $2.50.

SPAIN WILL YIELD UNDER PROTEST

Reply Will Be Made at the Joint Session.

SPANIARDS STILL THINKING IT OVER

Administration Thinks at Least One or More Joint Sessions of the Peace Commission Will Be Held After Tomorrow.

PARIS, Nov. 22.—The Spanish peace commissioners last night telegraphed to Madrid the substance of the United States' memorandum presented yesterday, and late yesterday evening they were discussing it among themselves. As late as 1 o'clock this morning a Spanish commissioner affirmed that his colleagues did not know what to do regarding the American offer. There is a difference of opinion among official people near the commission, but the prediction is that Spain will decline the American offer of money. She will refuse to cede the Philippines and will say to the United States:

"You may take the Archipelago because you have the power to do so. As you advance we will retire protesting against the greedy aggression. We will faithfully fulfill our part of the pledge, and leave Cuba and Porto Rico in your hands. You came to engage in a discussion under the terms of the protocol, but you evidently meant, when drawing up that document, to provide a conference in which, though we differ man to man, you proposed to announce at the proper time what you would do whether we agree to it or object. Such an attitude robs the conference of a negotiative character, and set up the United States as a dominant power whose first purpose is to listen, but whose ultimate determination is to do its own will."

Discussion By the Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—At the cabinet meeting today a brief cablegram was read which had been sent from Paris by Day. It was substantially in accord with the newspaper reports of the proceedings.

The cablegram said the reply from the Spanish commissioners to the latest memorandum submitted by our commissioners is expected at tomorrow's meeting. No doubt is entertained by the members of the cabinet that the treaty will be signed during the next few days.

The cabinet also discussed the Cuban situation, and it was developed that the Spaniards hope to be able to complete the evacuation of Havana by December 20th.

Will Answer Tomorrow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A dispatch to the World from Paris says: "No one can foresee what the cortes will do." This was the answer of Senor Ojeda, principal secretary of the Spanish commission, when asked if the American ultimatum would be accepted.

Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, frowned as he listened to America's final note as to the joint session. When the reading was ended he said curtly:

"Spain does not need until November 28th to answer. She will present her reply Wednesday."

In the communication the United States refuses arbitration but offers $20,000,000 in gold for the Philippines, and such a sum as may be agreed upon for an island in the Caroline group, or enough land on a strong island for a naval base and cable station.

The American commissioners proposed to give Spain until November 28th to accept or reject these demands, which were translated in full at the session by Interpreter Ferguson, but after Montero Rios' remark about not needing so much time, the joint session was adjourned until Wednesday.

It was reported immediately after the session that Spain had determined to break off negotiations, but the World correspondent's information rather points to her giving notice on Wednesday that she accepted the American proposals under protest.

The speech of Father Abraham in the last number of Poor Richard's Almanac, published by Benjamin Franklin in 1757, "Contains the Wisdom of many ages and nations assembled and formed into one connected discourse." When first published it attracted world wide attention and was copied in all the newspapers in America and England and translated into many foreign languages. Would you not like to read it? REVOLT IN SALVADOR SERIOUS States Likely to Become Involved—Rebels in Possession of all Departments Except Two.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A dispatch to the Herald from Panama says: Late advices from Salvador via Nicaragua indicate that the revolt is more serious than at first thought. It may involve all the five states in a general conflagration.

According to advices, the real object of the movement is the overthrow of the federal republic, which was organized November 1st at Amapala. To accomplish this Regalados called in the aid of Guatemala and Costa Rica, who always viewed the union of Salvador, Nicaragua and Honduras as a constant menace to its sovereignty.

The rebels are in possession of all the departments, with the exception of La Union and San Miguel, the latter a stronghold of Horacio Villavicencio, who is a candidate in opposition to Regalados.

The federal government is hurriedly mobilizing its forces to march against Regalados. Honduras sends 4000; Nicaragua, 300, and the federal district of Salvador, 2000. The movement is backed by capitalists, who are well-known military men.

Rushing Spanish Troops From Cuba.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The Cuban evacuation commission has made quite extended reports to the war department concerning the situation in the island, relating largely to camps, conditions and proposed sites for United States garrisons, as well as suggestions as to supplies for the army and other matters of detail which must be considered before the army is sent to Cuba.

One of the most important features of later reports is that the evacuation of the island by the Spaniards may take place sooner than at first anticipated. The commission has been informed that thirty Spanish transports are now on the way to Cuba, and that they will be able to take away to Cuba, and that able to take away a large number of troops.

The war department is now making arrangements to send troops to Cuba as soon as the Spaniards evacuate, and will be ready to occupy the different points as fast as the Spaniards move away.

Navy to Be Made Ready.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A Washington special says:

Though confident that hostilities will not be resumed, Secretary Long has made it a point since the protocol was signed to put the men-of-war of the service in the best possible condition. During the latter part of last week instructions were sent to the commanders of the navy yards at which ships were undergoing repairs, directing them to expedite the completion of the vessels in order that they might be in condition for immediate use should developments in the international situation require their employment.

Warehouse Collapses.

CORVALLIS, Nov. 21.—A report has reached this city that a portion of the foundation of the Finely warehouse, located 15 miles up the Willamette, has given way, and 500 tons of wheat is in danger of dropping into the river. The steamer William M. Hoag left up this morning, and the Albany is expected to follow tonight, to remove the wheat to safer quarters.

Yellow Jaundice Cured.

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from Yellow Jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and all to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles, I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hargity, Lexington, Ky." Sold by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.
