WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Give thanks, oh brother, said the voice That he who sent the rains Has spared the fields the scarlet dew That drips from patriot veins. I've seen the grass on eastern graves In brighter verdure rise, But oh the rain that gave it life Sprang first from human eyes.

The fancy table at the Bazaar is the place to buy Christmas presents for your friends.

The west-bound train was two hours late this morning on account of snow in the Blue mountains.

The case of Mrs M. J. Mosier vs. the O. R. & N. Co., is still occupying the attention of the court.

The Bazaar will open at 6:30 tonight, and the program begins at 8:30. Tickets for sale at the box office from 7:30 on.

There will be a pigeon shoot on the beach at 10 o'clock Thanksgiving morning, under the supervision of Jules Bros. 22-24

Aunt Sallie arrived last night on the 11:40 train, and will be at the Bazaar this evening. She looks well and hearty but says she feels pale.

Pease & Mays desire that their patrons favor them with their orders as early as possible on Thanksgiving morning as the store will close and last delivery be made promptly at 10 o'clock.

In each of the cases of T. J. Field vs. the O. R. & N. Co., B. A. Osgood vs. Isaac Dunn et al, and O. F. Showalter, administrator, vs. W. R. Winans et al, the sheriff was ordered to make out deeds.

And still another of Oregon's soldiers is dead. George Ernest Segar, of Portland, died at the presidio in San Francisco of pneumonia on November 20th. He was 23 years old and well known in Portland.

Don't forget to remember that if you want your mail tomorrow, unless you have a lock box, you must be on hand between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock in the morning, as the office will be closed the remainder of the day.

Wheelbarrows are about as difficult articles to keep as umbrellas; they are eternally taking wings and flying away. About ten days ago someone borrowed(?) one from Mr. Brooks' residence, and he says they would confer a great favor if they would allow it to return.

Yesterday a pair of glasses was picked up in front of THE CHRONICLE office. The owner can have them by calling at this office. The purse containing $2.50, which was found on the streets recently, is still temptingly near us, waiting for its owner to call, prove property and get the same.

A runaway, which came nearer being a walkaway occurred this afternoon, when two horses attached to a heavy freight wagon decided to leave their station at Ruch's store for a broader field. They ran up Washington and down Fourth street to the stable, when they were stopped and brought back to be taught a little horse sense.

Those who enjoy football will be delighted to learn that they are to have the privilege of seeing a good game tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the fair grounds. The High school team is to play against a picked team, and you may attend without being charged admission at the gate. The boys would be glad to see a large attendance.

Two and three cents more a pound is being paid for turkeys this year than was charged last year. This increase has been caused from the extended demand and stationary supply. A very large number have been shipped away, and then the coyotes seem to have come to the conclusion that they, too, have a right to enjoy a good dinner once in a while, and therefore have had a hand in the scarcity question.

Yesterday being the 14th birthday of Bertha Robinson, a number of her friends were invited to spend the evening with her at the home of Miss Nora Turner. The party was a complete surprise to her, which made it all the more enjoyable. Refreshments were not overlooked, but formed a prominent part of the program. The following boys and girls were present: Abbie Taylor, Lucy Fox, Lucy Omeg, Minnie Hill, Lulu Hill, Anna Davenport, Delwyn Alloway, Roy Hill, Leslie Clark, Loyd Robinson.

This evening Supt. C. L. Gilbert, Profs. Gavin and Landers will leave for Antelope to attend the educational meeting there. They will take their Thanksgiving dinner at Sherar's and somehow we imagine they expect to eat more than one of such dinners this year. Food for the mind is as excellent thing; but "civilized man cannot live without cooks." However, the aforesaid meeting is to be one of unusual interest as the four county superintendents will be present to take part in the program, and when fifteen teachers are so interested as to come all the way from the Prineville country, surely the meeting is worth attending.

It may not be generally known, but newspaper people have a few reasons for being thankful as well as common people. Have we not more pi to eat than most people? more turkeys, brought in on subscriptions, to gobble than anyone? more forms to fill? more sauce to get away with? more spring poultry to digest? In short, have we not a good excuse for taking a rest, as well as giving other people one? We regret very much that it will be impossible for us to take dinner with our many readers; but any who may think they cannot pass the day without THE CHRONICLE, may send for the various members of the force. Anyway we hope you will all "enjoy yourselves."

And now comes Portland to the front and in a short time has collected $167.40 for the Canyon City sufferers, beside articles of clothing, etc. The O. R. & N. Co., has kindly offered to deliver all supplies contributed, and the Telegram is to see that they are forwarded from Baker City. Dalles people certainly cannot give thanks in the right spirit tomorrow, when at our very door are those of whom the great Giver of all good said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it until the least of these ye have done it unto me." The residents of our city are only waiting to be called upon to contribute. Let someone who is well acquainted with the people of Canyon City and understands best the manner in which to supply their wants, appoint himself a committee of one to start the ball rolling.

A Farewell Party.

A farewell surprise party was given last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Norman, who leave soon to make their home in Roseburg, Oregon. It was a very enjoyable affair and the guests showed their appreciation of Mr. and Mrs. Norman by presenting them with a number of elegant presents. Those present were as follows: Eld. W. V. Boltz and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Krauses, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Akin, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Garmer, Mesdames B. Murch, J. E. Andrews, D. J. Lemison, C. E. Dufur, A. Schooling, M. James, B. Burger, M. H. Brown, L. Ulrich, E. L. Hughes, G. A. Albright, E. Johnston, Smiley, Hoering, T. E. McPherson, S. Francisco, L. E. Chrisman, L. Lemison, Wm. Bassett, Miss Scott, Arthur Murch, W. A. Smiley, Lewis Johnston, A. Hoering, Ed Davenport, Jennie Akin.

A bountiful lunch was served and every guest departed with a regret that they were to part with such friends as Mr. and Mrs. Norman and with a hope that they would find in Roseburg good friends and be pleased with their new home.

Thanksgiving Services.

Services at St. Paul's Episcopal church tomorrow at 10:30 a. m.

Services in the Lutheran church on Thanksgiving morning at 11 o'clock. Special music in keeping with the day will be rendered by a male quartet. A soprano solo will also be given.

The Congregational and Methodist churches will hold a union Thanksgiving service at the Congregational church tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. H. Wood will preach the sermon.

Concerning Forester.

The following telegram was received this afternoon in answer to a query sent yesterday by Sheriff Kelly as regards the appearance of the man purported to be Forester:

WINNEMUCCA, Nev., Nov. 23, 1898. Sheriff Robt. Kelly, The Dalles, Or.: Frank Forester height six foot one; weight 190 pounds; hair light; moustache redder. Has wife at Mitchell. Admits the killing of Brogan. Claims self defense. Has tended sheep camp for Brogan. W. McDEID, Sheriff.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

THE MAIN QUESTION.

Work Being Pushed Rapidly—Where the Mains Will Be.

Work on the new water mains is progressing very rapidly, two thousand feet of ditch having been opened up during the past three days. About thirty workmen are employed and they are certainly doing their best, as the ground, being very rocky, is extremely hard to get a pick through.

The new mains are to be as follows: On Union from the reservoir for a distance of 2400 feet will be a 12-inch pipe; and from there down to Second a 10-inch. On Fourth street from Union to Jefferson, down Jefferson to Third, and east on Third to Taylor, 8-inch. On Federal, Jefferson and Taylor, also on Second between Union and Court, a 6-inch. Beside on Garrison street will be placed a 4-inch main, and on Third, between Jefferson and Laughlin, 250 feet of 4-inch.

When the work is accomplished Dalles people will feel a security from fire which it has never before been possible to realize. We will then have a pressure of about ninety pounds to be used in case of fire, and besides the thirty-two plugs which are now distributed over our city, the following will be added: On Union, corners of Eleventh, Ninth, Eighth, Fifth, Third, and Second streets. On Fourth, corners of Washington, Federal, Laughlin, and Jefferson. Corners of Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, and Taylor, on Third.

For general and family use a pressure of sixty-five pounds will be secured, and those who have previously complained of the scarcity of water for irrigating purposes will now have to search for other cause for complaint.

This water move is a good one, and will be greatly appreciated by our residents.

After visiting the section where the men were at work this morning and interviewing Contractor Frye in regard to the men employed, we feel positive that we were misinformed as to outsiders being given preference. The contractors assure us that every effort has been made to employ citizens of The Dalles and vicinity, and although many of their faces are not familiar, yet they are men who have applied for work here.

Comparison.

Look on these: ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 22.—The snow-storm continued throughout the night and drifts are still being piled up. The wires generally are obstructed and local street cars are comparatively at a standstill.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 22.—George and Edward Cotter, farmers, both married, were caught in a blizzard last night and frozen to death. The bodies were found this morning.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 22.—The thermometer here today is down to zero and on the plains four degrees below. Great suffering of men and herds is reported. Drifting snow is badly hampering train and telegraph services.

And then on this: Maximum temperature at The Dalles this fall, 67; minimum, 27. Precipitation for the month to date 1.27.

Program For Catholic Bazaar.

Following is the program which will be rendered at the Catholic bazaar tonight: Hurdle Race..... St. Mary's Orchestra Cornet and Clarinet Duet..... Messrs. Long and Benton Mendolin and Guitar..... Messrs. Ryan and Alden Vocal Solo..... Miss Adele DeForest Clarinet Solo..... Mr. Marcus Long Song and Dance..... Hampshire and Clark

Rebekahs, Attention.

A special meeting of Azalea Rebekah Lodge No. 99, I. O. O. F., is called for Nov. 25th (Friday) at 8:30 p. m., for instruction and practice of secret work. By order of LULU D. CRANDALL, Noble Grand, ALICE LYLE, Sec.

It's Human Nature.

This readiness to accept the wonderful and miraculous in preference to commonplace truth. A plausible and glib-tongued doctor can go from town to town curing, or trying to cure, people, and have a great influx of shekels, while every community in which the so-called doctor goes is supplied with quiet, learned practitioners, who have forgotten more than the fakir ever learned, and they can give you the best treatment within the reach of human knowledge. While your home doctors carry you from year to year, get up at all times of the night and are your servants during the day, and you pay them when you are well or able, the fakir gets the cash, and is gone forever. If your eyes are troubling you in any way, call on Prof. P. G. Daut, the only graduated optician or doctor of refraction in The Dalles, two doors west of Keller's bakery. I am here to stay, and guarantee all-eye work. PROF. P. G. DAUT.

When you ask for De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve don't accept a counterfeit or imitation. There are more cases of piles being cured by this than all others combined.
