WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

See the 1899 Cleveland bicycles on exhibition at Maier & Benton's this evening. Call and examine them.

When you ask for De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve don't accept a counterfeit or imitation. There are more cases of piles being cured by this than all others combined.

Travelers who had occasion to cross the Klickitat mountains today, suffered greatly with the cold. The wind is reported as being colder than has been experienced for years.

The diphtheria patient, recently reported in the Singleton family, on the hill, is said to be improving rapidly, and no new cases are reported. There are said to be a few scarlet fever cases, but not serious ones.

George Van Duyn, who committed suicide in Aberdeen, Wash., on the 1st, was a brother of Miss Emma Van Duyn, who during her short stay in this city won so many friends and so much admiration for her worth of character. He was also a half-brother of Mrs. W. H. Mansfield.

This evening a meeting of the club members will be held for the purpose of electing officers. Every member is earnestly requested to attend. The pleasure of having the ladies present on this occasion will of necessity have to be foregone, so that ladies evening this week will be passed over.

Last Saturday evening at a meeting of the members of the Calvary Baptist church it was decided to extend a call to Elder W. B. Clifton, of Prineville, to become pastor of the church in this city. He is said to be a fine preacher and an excellent gentleman and it is to be hoped the society here will secure his services.

Great preparations are on hand for the fair, and Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights of next week there will be great "doings" at the Vogt. Good programs will be heard every evening, Miss Rose Bloch being the attraction for the first two nights. Beside, the ladies will have on hand all sorts of articles for Christmas presents.

If Dalles people have an idea they are going to hibernate this winter for the lack of amusements, they are decidedly mistaken. They are to have entertainments galore. On the 12th the "Dazzlers," which the Oregonian speaks so highly of, will appear at the Vogt; on the 13th Mahara's minstrels will appear at the Baldwin. On the 14th, 15th and 16th the fair will be held at the Vogt, when the programs will be exceptionally good, and on the 17th Hi Henry's minstrels will visit our city. What more can we ask for?

It is certainly here. What? Winter of course. Haven't you seen the people rushing around today with collars turned up and mufflers in evidence? And those who are in a position to judge, say every indication points to a genuine snow storm. The same conditions exist which we had in 1884, when on the 9th of December the barometer read 30.51, with a strong northeast wind. On the 13th snow began to fall and by January 10th we had nine feet of snow. Don't be frightened, we wouldn't care to be put on oath as to whether or not the same state of affairs will exist, but we will say positively we won't have the same snow, and we hope not the same amount. However, the barometer today reads 30.70 and the minimum thermometer this morning said 29 degrees. Let the cold weather come; don't stop it. We all feel better when she's here, even if she does give us the shake.

A Justifiable Kick.

EDITOR CHRONICLE: The remarks made at different times recently by THE CHRONICLE referring to the festive town cow, have been timely and to the point, notwithstanding, there are those who are so deaf they will not hear, and so dull they will not take a hint unless it is strongly emphasized with a No. 10. The aforesaid town cow is still an unmitigated nuisance, and if her owner or the city duds won't take care of her, and persist in allowing her to subsist upon the lawns and shrubbery of others at all times of day or night, they should not be surprised or aggrieved to awake some morning and find one or more of their favorite and favored pets turned—not into the city pound, neither into a pillar of salt; but into a rich deposit of lead. If the city won't protect us we must protect ourselves.

A KICKER.

Attention Bowlers. F. W. Weinschenck, manager of Moody's bowling alleys, will give to three persons making the highest average scores in five successive games of bowling between now and Christmas, one turkey pie. After December 1st, each Thursday evening and Monday afternoon will be reserved for ladies and their escorts only. To the lady making the highest average score in five successive games between December 1st and April 1st, he will give a handsome silver tea set consisting of one teapot, one sugar bowl, one cream pitcher and one spoonholder. To the lady with the next highest average score, one silver cake dish. To the lady with the third highest score, one silver pie knife. 11-28-10

Attention, Artisans!

BOYS MAY COME HOME.

President's Policy is to Replace Volunteers With Regulars.

If the war department should send word, as a New Year present, to the people of Oregon that their sons, husbands and brothers now in Manila would be at home before the coming of spring, such a shout of rejoicing has never yet been heard in this state as this gift would call forth.

That such news may come is not at all improbable; in fact, indications point strongly in that direction, and the mothers whose hearts have been full of sorrow since their boy went away need not yet lose hope, for their boy may soon return.

Seven regiments of the regular army, now situated in Wisconsin, have been ordered to rendezvous at San Francisco at once, preparatory to sailing for Manila. This might mean that more troops were needed there and nothing more, but for the fact that the president in his message to congress, says that it is his purpose to order the volunteers mustered out as soon as regulars can be supplied to take their places.

It is the opinion of military men that any volunteer who can pass the examination, and whose record is good, will be admitted to the regular army if he desires to remain in service. Few of the boys in Manila, however, would be likely to enlist if they had to stay there, as the months they have remained there have been full of sickness, hardships and death, and the majority of them are fully ready to return home.

"The president," said a gentleman today, "in addition to being a good and wise man, is not adverse to gaining favor with the people, when such an action does not interfere with the carrying out of his policy, and he no doubt realizes that he could not do a more popular thing just now than to arrange for the soldier boys to come home. I believe such arrangements will be speedily made and that the order for mustering out will be given within the next three or four months, or earlier if the regular army could be increased sufficiently before that time."—Telegram.

Its Pulsations Weakened.

The "Pulse of New York" does not beat exactly the same as it did last year. The manager should take an inventory of his company before advertising, for in vain did the audience last night look for the members of the company who so delighted them last year, and who were billed to appear on this occasion. Many were aware that the Thompson tots would not be seen, having known of the death of the oldest one as Tacoma not long since. However, the little ones who did appear, and who are said to be the Lamb children, of Portland, were equally as good and delighted the audience fully as much. The part of the tough girl was also well taken although not so taking as the famous "button girl" of former years. "Snapper" is the same old fellow and the life of the show. His dancing was the best ever seen on a Dalles stage. It was thought the dancing of the Dutch character with the Bittner company was exceptionally good, but "Snapper" excels him.

These four characters constitute the whole show, for with the exception of the a single appearance of Jake, the poker-playing German, the remainder of the caste was very poor.

Mrs. Shields, who is familiar to Dalles people, unless she improves materially, will never make an actress, while Edward Shields, who appeared in two characters, had far better stick to his stereopticon than to be posing as an actor, for if an audience wanted to attend a stereopticon show they would call on him as being a first-class manipulator; but no one would ever choose him as having the slightest talent in the histrionic line.

The Pulse is all right in its way, but it doesn't weigh much when it comes to putting on the characters it advertises.

WHAT THEY SAY.

The singing by Prof. J. S. Landers at the educational meeting on last Friday and Saturday was greatly enjoyed by all who were so fortunate as to attend. —Antelope Herald.

A. W. Dennis returned yesterday from a visit to Eastern Oregon. Mr. Dennis spent several days in the vicinity of The Dalles, with a prospect of locating in the near future. He reports business in splendid condition in that part of Oregon's domain. —Salem Statesman.

During the past two weeks snow has been piling up in the mountains to a considerable depth. This miners welcome, even though stockmen are not particularly anxious to see it. —Blue Mountain Eagle.

John Burns, an extensive fruit dealer, of Lacrosse, Wis., went East last night, having completed the purchase of 18 carloads of apples in the Columbia river valley. He said that hereafter he would handle Oregon fruit exclusively in preference to California. He is delighted with the quality of Oregon fruit, and had no idea that such good fruit was raised here. He said that he would come to Oregon next season in time to ship the first strawberries, and stay until the last apple in gone. The only fault Mr. Burns finds with Oregon fruit is in the packing—it lacks uniformity in size. As soon as Oregon apples are packed as evenly as are those from California, there will be a big increase in prices and profits. Eastern markets want only first-class fruit, and it will not pay to ship any other kind. —Oregonian.

The Dalles Club is getting a team into shape which will make a good showing in the try for the Feldenheimer trophy. The club has shown the best all-around improvement of any in the association during the past year, and its bowlers now rank with the best. There was a time when the Portland bowlers looked upon a team from The Dalles as "an easy thing," but that time has passed, and not a few bowlers are prophesying that The Dalles will be the first club to take the cup out of the city. It is very certain that both Multnomah and the Road Club fear The Dalles as much as they fear each other. It was announced some time ago that Astoria would have the next chance at the trophy, it being understood that it was in its regular turn, but the records show that The Dalles made a try on July 9th, and Astoria on July 24. Consequently the former is entitled to the first chance. —Oregonian.
