MILITARY BURDENS.

Some figures published by the New York Journal will surprise those peritary burdens of the great powers of flagrant manner.—Telegram. Europe are of crushing weight in comparison with the military expen- FRENCH ditures of this country.

The German naval and military budget for 1898 99 is given in the TRANSACTA ENERALBANKING BUSINES new Almanach de Gotha, just published. It shows that Germany's expenses this year for all warlike purposes, including army, navy and pensions, foot up as follows:

Regular Extraordinary
Regular	15,687,724 14,825,912
Pensions— Army Navy	14,278,383 778,255
90.4.3	9107 PIS 708

Our own expenditures for the same purposes for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1900, if the estimates of the administration should be adopted,

$166,726,599.71 47,630,531.08 Navy 47,630,531.08 Pensions 145,233,830.00 Total$359,590,960.79

These figures, it should be remembered, are not for wartimes. They are peace estimates. The Journal thinks $10,000,000 should be slashed MOLLIE V. O'LEARY, off the gigantic sum solicited by Sec retary Alger. If is of the belief that this would "still leave us more than twice as much as we were accustomed to spend on our military establisment before the Spanish war. Such an amount," he thinks, "would be ample, with the co operation of a mighty navy, to maintain our rights in every part of the world. Anything more would be reckless extravagance."

The German empire has a population of $52,279,901. It is therefore expending about $3.80 per capita. The United States has an estimated population of 74,500,000. If the administration's estimates should be Rooms 21 and 22. Tei. 328 adopted, it would expend nearly $5 per capita.

It should be considered, though, that Germany pays her soldiers wages and salaries which would be out of question in the United States.

liberty to further populate the world, and the man that married her taken to the top of a mountain and tled to a stake and left to perish. The marrying of the immature simply increases the ranks of the criminals, the idiots and the fools. Girls under 21 should not be allowed to marry and men not before they are 25. And then, half finement, so that they might not have before they are 25. And then, half of the time, marrying would be a mistake.—East Oregonian.

A precedent heretofore unknown will be established after the organization of the 56th congress. It will be the outgrowth of the case of Representative-elect Roberts, of Utah, who is persona non grata as congressman to the decent Christian element throughout the Union, because of his throughout the Union, because of his polygamous domestic life. It appears, though, that constitutionally his colleagues are powerless to refuse gone through that formality a twothirds vote of the house can expel him on grounds of ineligibilty. It cannot be doubted for a moment, though, that the bouse of representatives will permit Roberts to remain a his being seated. But after having member of that body a day longer than the constitution of the United States imposes upon it. It would be a stain upon the fair name of every congressman voting against his ex pulsion. Besides, it would infuse new courage into the Mormon polygamists to defy the national laws, and perhaps materially retard the settlement of Utah by the better class of Gentiles. No, and thrice no! This man Roberts must not be allowed a voice in making federal laws, when sons who have imagined that the mil- he himself violates them in a most
