ARMY OFFICERS TO BE REWARDED

Promotions for Meritorious Service During the War.

ROOSEVELT WILL BE A GENERAL

Colonel Baker, Who Was Sent to Honolulu During the War, to Be Made a Brigadier General of Volunteers. —Colonel Castleman Also Slated for Promotion.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—A special to the Herald says:

Governor Roosevelt, of New York, is to receive the brevet rank of brigadier-general for gallant and meritorious service during the battle of San Juan. A board of officers consisting of Generals Swan and Boynton and Colonel Carter, adjutant-general, which had been considering the question of the officers entitled to brevets for heroism, have recommended that Colonel Roosevelt be breveted. Secretary Alger has brought the recommendation to the attention of the president, who directed the nomination of Governor Roosevelt for the brevet grade.

President McKinley has also determined to reward Colonel T. H. Barker, commanding the First New York, who was sent to Honolulu during the war. Colonel Barker will be promoted to the grade of brigadier-general of volunteers.

For the same reason it has been determined to promote Colonel J. B. Castleman, commanding the First Kentucky regiment, who has seen arduous duty in Porto Rico, in performing general police duty.

Major-General Wade, chairman of the American evacuation commission of Cuba, will be invited to inform the department of his wishes respecting the duty to which he shall be assigned in the future.

The department of the Missouri, with headquarters at Chicago, will be offered to General Wade, with the understanding that upon the return of Major-General Brooke the latter officer shall be allowed to resume his station.

It is believed that General Wade will prefer the department of Dakota, in which event he will be assigned to its command, with headquarters at St. Paul.

It is generally understood in army circles that practically all of the camps in the South will be broken up as quickly as troops are assigned to Cuba and Porto Rico, and the volunteer regiments now in the section are mustered out of service.

An ample number of vacancies exist for the West Point cadets, who, in accordance with the order of the secretary of war, will be graduated on February 1st. There are seventy members in the class. No action has been taken as yet by the administration looking to the appointment of civilians.

After the cadets are taken care of it will be necessary to provide several other regular appointments, and if there should be any vacancies, applications of civilians will receive consideration.

EXTREMELY SAD AFFAIR

Last Member of the Pope Family Dangerously Ill Near Amity.

McMINNVILLE, Or., Jan. 3.—The dangerous illness of a young man named Pepe, living east of Amity, in this county, brings to light a sad story. During the week both his parents have died.

The family were Italian Catholics, and were known to neighbors as very quiet and extremely reserved. Their circumstances were not of the best, but they lived in reasonable comfort. From current reports it appears that about Saturday or Sunday a neighbor saw the younger Pope feebly waving a white cloth, and on reaching the house found him and his parents prostrated, himself on the floor, unable to reach a bed. They were not able to go for help nor assist one another. By a will born of desperation the aged mother had remained out of bed. When a doctor was called he at once ordered her to lie down. At first she refused to do so, stating that she feared if she did she would die, but finally obeyed and was the first to die. Friday of the same week the father died and the son's life was almost despaired of, though now he is said to be gradually improving.

It is believed that the family were rendered weak by insufficient food, it being asserted that from religious and other eccentricities they would eat no meat, butter, cream, nor any bread excepting that made from cornmeal or coarse flour. This rendered them easy victims of disease when it came. Years ago these people were quite well-to-do, but they purchased land, paying several thousand dollars, the extent of their wealth, down, and lost all by reason of failure to meet subsequent payments.

Orders to the Oregon.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Secretary Long cabled orders today to the Oregon, at Callao, to proceed to Honolulu, taking the distilling ship Iris with her. The Iowa was ordered to San Francisco to make repairs to her boilers and replace a broken cylinder head. With her will go the supply ship Celtic and the colliers Scandia and Justin. The Oregon will get orders at Honolulu to proceed to Manila, if the situation does not change in the meantime. The gunboat Castine has also been ordered to Manila.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of La Grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexico, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Mrs. Mary Francis Porter.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 3.—Mrs. Mary Francis Porter died in this city last night of tumor of the brain, after a short illness. She had lived in Olympia since the date of her marriage, in 1844, to Judge M. S. Porter. She was a niece of John McCullough, the tragedian, and also of Hugh McCulloch, ex-secretary of the United States treasury.

How to Prevent Pneumonia.

You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of La Grippe. During the epidemic of La Grippe a few years ago when so many cases resulted in pneumonia, it was observed that the attack was never followed by that disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. It counteracts any tendency of a cold or La Grippe to result in that dangerous disease. It is the best remedy in the world for bad colds and La Grippe. Every bottle warranted. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Choate Will Secure the Plum.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The announcement was made today on the highest authority that Hon. Joseph H. Choate, of New York, would be nominated ambassador to Great Britain. The nomination will not be sent to the senate for a few days, but those near the president say the delay does not indicate any possibility of a change of plans.

UPON THE VERGE OF A REVOLT

Santiago People Up In Arms Against the American Administration.

DISCHARGE OF MEN THE CAUSE

Only a Spark Needed to Plunge the Province Into Insurrection—General Brook Ignores General Wood.

SANTIAGO, Jan. 4.—Meetings were held at all of the political clubs last night, and even the most conservative people, those favoring the annexation of Cuba to the United States, were astounded by the orders from Havana for the centralization of the customs money there.

The past forty-eight hours have completely altered the situation of affairs here. The province had gradually settled down and was contented with the with the order of things prevailing, recognizing the benefits conferred. Now there is a complete change, and there is no exaggeration in saying that the situation is critical, and that a spark would set up a blaze that would plunge the entire province into a state of insurrection.

It is generally admitted that if 1,000 men were suddenly discharged from the public works, such an action would probably cause a revolt which would be hard to quell.

Major-General John R. Brooke, governor-general of Cuba, is apparently ignoring General Leonard Wood, in command here, and is cabling direct to his subordinates. He has ordered the collector of customs to bank no money, and the commanding general of the province has ordered his officers to close several minor offices, including that at Bayamo, practically shutting off the mail of the regiments there.

Dr. Castillo will accompany General Wood to Washington, representing British interests in Santiago, to lay these matters before the president.

Wood's work here is now thoroughly appreciated by the Cubans.

FATAL FIGHT AT COLFAX

A Well-Known Plumber Killed By a Bartender.

COLFAX, Wash. Jan. 3.—At about noon today a fatal affray occurred between W. G. Campbell, a well known plumber, and James Hardwick, bartender in Hagan's saloon. Campbell, who was drunk, wanted to pay for drinks with bar checks, which Hardwick refused to accept. A wordy altercation followed. Hardwick became very angry, cursing Campbell, and finally striking him a terrific blow on the head with a heavy beer bottle. Campbell staggered back, then drew a revolver, and shot Hardwick through the heart. As the latter was falling, Campbell shot him in the back. Hardwick's death was almost instantaneous. Campbell is in jail. He will be given a preliminary examination tomorrow. It is reported that a few minutes before the affray, Campbell left the saloon and got his revolver, saying he was going to practice.

Campbell was a married man, about 40 years old, and had lived in Colfax many years. He had always been very quiet and peaceable. Hardwick was much younger, and had resided here less than a year. He has a brother in business in Pendleton, Oregon.

Campbell's head was badly cut by Hardwick's blow.

No inquest was deemed necessary.

Mr. S. A. Fackler, editor of the Micanopy (Fla.), Hustler, with his wife and children, suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly. Thousands of others use this remedy as a specific for La Grippe, and its exhausting after effects. Never fails. Snipes-Kinney Drug Co.

SCHOONER PRO- TECTION WRECKED

Foundered Off Tillamook Rock—Only One Man Drowned.

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 3.—The steam schooner Protection, from Seattle with a cargo of coal for San Francisco, foundered and sank off Tillamook rock on the evening of December 31. But one man was lost, and he lost his life in an attempt to lower a boat after it had been determined to abandon the vessel.

The Protection, with a full cargo of coal, including a heavy deckload, left Seattle Thursday, December 29th at 2 o'clock. While the vessel was heavily laden, she made fair time, and at five o'clock on the morning of December 30, was off Cape Flattery. During that day the wind was light, but there was a heavy westerly swell that seemed to strain the vessel, but it was not until the morning of the 31st, when the Protection encountered the southeast gale that had been predicted on shore, that she began to make more water than usual. It was not until late that afternoon that the necessity of taking to the boats became evident, and at the time it was blowing a southeast gale. When Second Assistant Engineer Ed Benson finally left the engine room to turn off the last cocks the water was up to his chin.

In lowering one of the boats, First Engineer Carver was knocked overboard and sank almost immediately. Assistance was impossible.

The boats were lowered, and, under instructions from Captain Erickson, both stood by the Protection for a time, until she was seen to take a deep starboard list and get deep in the water at the stern, but she was not seen to actually disappear. As near as can be figured, this was about 30 miles off Tillamook rock. This estimate of the survivors, however, is very uncertain.

The boats soon separated, and neither knew the whereabouts of the other, and it was a bitter night. New Year's morning broke with their boats tossing in the face of almost certain death. In the afternoon, 26 hours after leaving the vessel, the boat of Captain Erickson sighted a ship and headed toward it. From the ship the boat was soon sighted and the occupants were picked up and safely landed on board.
