THE HARDWARE DEALERS.

167 Second St. THE DALLES, OR.

quietly under her own vine and fig tree; but this morning a resident of the hill entered our office with jaded appearance, such as would indicate sleepless nights, and fire in his eye enough to consume all the beef in the country. Wondering what letter or word had edged its way into the paper and offended the usually genial visitor, we bade him good morning, when he immediately began to tell of his recent experience with the festive cow; how for three nights he had been compelled to get up in the night, dress and sally forth in the cold to attack a cow, which was making herself numerous around the premises. He was swearing vengeance, and we didn't blame him. Nor can you who own the animals; so you'd better "take your cows and go."

Papers and Souvenirs from Manila.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Armstrong we have been permitted to peruse "Freedom," an American paper published at Manila. Its contents was extremely interesting, and contained many articles by the volunteers. Beside the papers sent her by her sons, was a novel new year's card, upon which was pictured a water buffalo hauling a number of small natives; across the corner of the card were the words "A Happy New Year. A souvenir song book, which has recently been issued, is filled with original songs and poems by members of the various regiments of the Eighth Army Corps. The following song was written by Howell, of the Second Oregon, and is sung to the air of "Nellie Grey":

We are volunteers for freedom,
We've remembered well the Maine,
We came west o'er the rolling of the sea;
We have heard the battle's thunder
And we've seen the fall of Spain
Now we long for our home-land of the free.

Chorus—Oh, Oregon our home
Sweet Oregon so fair
For thy beauty we will e'er remember thee
We'll recross the rolling billows
To our Oregon so dear
And our loved ones in that home-land of the free.

We have seen our flag unfurling
From the shore to distant shore
We have seen our glorious colors borne afar.
We have seen the famous Dewey
And his proud ship Baltimore
And his squadron that fought the Spanish war.

Now we're waiting only waiting
For the order to return
To our homes in that great land beyond the sea
For the flame of love for Oregon
Shall e'er be seen to beam,
Oregon, in that home-land of the free.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Smith Bros. will give a dancing party this evening at their hall.

A. M. Williams & Co. call attention to a special half-price clearance sale of remnants in ribbons, laces, embroideries and dress goods.

Yesterday a cipher skipped in where it didn't belong and made Lily Seufert's guess on the candle 230;39, when it should have been 239;39.

Mr. S. L. Brooks today bought out E. J. Collins & Co.'s merchandise business. He will collect all notes and accounts and pay all claims against the firm of E. J. Collins & Co., of this city.

All members of the Rathbone Sisters are requested to be present at the meeting tonight. Installation of officers is to be the rule of the evening, with a general good time thrown in.

A petition was today presented to the county court for a county road from The Dalles to the landing of the new ferry opposite Lyle. It was signed by nearly all our prominent business men.

The recorder's report presented to the council last night showed cash on hand at the beginning of the month $7,454.11; cash income during December, including $2,250 for liquor licenses, $2,453.76. Warrants redeemed during the month $515.20. Total cash on hand $9,392.67.

With the change in the railroad time card last night a new agent arrived to take charge of the office here. She, however, has been taken in charge by Mr. and Mrs. Ireland, who think she is hardly old enough to run the ranch. The Chronicle congratulates the new papa and mamma.

W. H. Neabeack today swore out a warrant against Jacob Craft, charging him with the crime of threatening to murder at Nansene on the first day of the year. Craft was brought in town today, and his trial set for Monday at 10 o'clock, when Jayne & Mitchell will appear for the plaintiff and Ned Gates for the defendant.

Many Dalles people who read Frank Leslie's magazine of December 29th, were pleased to see among the list of officers at Havana the name of a former Dalles boy, Chris FitzGerald, who was recently appointed as acting quartermaster. Chris has not won his honors without an effort, but by strict attention to his duties and application he has succeeded where many others would have failed.

It looks as if winter had come to stay. This morning the thermometer stood at nine above, while during the entire day a sprinkling of snow continued to fall. At Tekeo early this morning it was sixteen below zero. Yesterday at Spokane it registered fourteen below and at Walla Walla two below. Strange to say the reports received yesterday said that in Chicago the temperature was forty above. What's the matter with the East?

In a letter received by Marshal Laier from Supt. Gardner, of the Boys' and Girls' Aid, he is informed that the three runaway boys are not escapes from the society, but will now be taken in hand by them, and that he will probably be up tomorrow to take them down. Mr. W. H. Wilson has taken quite an interest in them, and today cheered them with some toy guns with which to amuse themselves. It is needless to say they were appreciated.

The midwinter course of popular lectures on practical subjects of the Oregon agricultural college will commence January 10th and close February 4th. The subjects to be discussed include farming and dairying and the different branches of each, and the course of lectures promises to be of great assistance to the farmers of Oregon. Fruit growing will also be taken up. The course is free of charge and those who wish to attend will be under no other expense than $2.50 a week for board and lodging.

It behoves everyone to use every precaution to prevent an attack of the grippe, which is now making its appearance not only in the cities, but in every hamlet, village and town. Not in any light manner does it grip the victim, but its effects are fatal. In Tacoma two deaths from this disease are reported since the first of the year, and the city physicians predict an extensive rage of the disease. So far we have heard of no cases in this city, but an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

The discovery of gold five miles southwest of Canyon City has caused a new town to spring up in a night, as it were, half the able-bodied men of Canyon City having gone to the place, and over 1000 claims already being staked. The new town has been named Dawson City, after B. A. Dawson, who located the mineral vein, from which he dug ore assaying $16,000 in gold to the ton. The main vein has been traced 15 miles. Some parties claim that it is an extension of the famous Basick vein at Silver City.

The Dalles Hook and Ladder Company held their annual election at the council chambers last evening and the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President, C. F. Stephens; secretary, Vic Schmidt; treasurer, Jno. S. Schenck; foreman, H. C. Liebe; first assistant, L. W. Heppner; second assistant, S. E. Van Vactor. Delegates to Board of Fire Delegates, J. A. McArthur, E. M. Wingate, D. W. Hockman. The company is in need of a suitable truck and rigging and the citizens and property owners of The Dalles should assist in the purchase of same. A volunteer fire company should certainly be offered some inducement from the city fathers, for they give up their time for the interest of the many.

"Printer's Ink," published in New York, in commenting on the newspapers published in various cities of the United States says concerning Oregon: "In Oregon four papers get credit for issues of 1000 copies or more. They are: Astoria, Morning Astorian, Portland, Evening Telegram, Portland, Morning Oregonian and Salem, Oregon Statesman. The Oregonian is an astonishingly good paper. In appearance, general make-up and enterprise it compares favorably with the dailies of San Francisco, Denver and even Chicago. Its circulation, about 24,000, is without a doubt not only greater than the combined circulation of all the other Portland dailies, but greater than the combined circulation of all the other daily papers in the whole state. The Evening Telegram is bright, readable, prosperous and entitled to distinction. It may safely be credited with an issue of about 8,000. The Astorian and Statesman are morning dailies, each printing an average of perhaps 1,500 copies.

It really seems like cowardice to be continually attacking the poor bovines who, not from any fault of theirs, are allowed to run at large and annoy the residents of our city so that their owners no doubt will have many "swear words" to their credit, which they themselves never uttered. We had supposed all was "quiet along the Potomac" in this regard and that the town cow was resting
