ARROGANCE OF AGUINALDO.

Success, be it real or apparent, has turned the head of Aguinaldo. Less than a year ago that adventurer left Hong Kong for the Philippines humbly seeking the influence and material aid of the American forces then on their way to destroy the fleet of Admiral Montojo in Manila bay. His soldiers lacked arms and ammunition, their food supply was short and it was a question of defeat or insurrection if a change was not effected in a few weeks. He was supplied with arms from the arsenals captured by Dewey, given ammunition and immediately set about to harness the enemy in the rear. After the fall of the city Aguinaldo became bolder, but still had a wholesome fear of the prowess of American arms, for he kept his insurgent soldiers out of the city proper and saw to it that no excesses were committed.

The situation has changed in Aguinaldo's favor. Iloilo, the second city of the Philippines, has surrendered to the insurgents and they are in possession of munitions of war, money and provisions for the army. Aguinaldo is promised the support of the influential natives of the island and begins to believe he is the dictator he long ago proclaimed. He has the effrontery to flood Manila with printed manifestos protesting against the governorship of General Otis.

It is held by certain anti-expansionists that the Filipinos would eventually have conquered the islands and earned their own independence. This idea is absurd. Had Dewey failed to overcome the Spanish fleet in Asiatic waters the Spanish land forces in the Philippines would now be much stronger than they were at the beginning of the war. Every able-bodied soldier in Spain would have been rushed to those islands to hold the last possessions of the Dons, and the fate of the insurrection probably would have been settled in a way not to the profit or comfort of Aguinaldo. With the city of Manila a Spanish port, with the Spanish fleet cruising among the islands, no seaport in the archipelago could have been occupied for more than a few days by land forces of the insurgents.

It was the Americans who drove the Spaniards from the Philippines, when they cut off naval protection. Aguinaldo has forgotten this and his officers close their eyes to the fact. The Filipino provisional government will not make friends for itself by such manifestos, and Aguinaldo will be brought up with a round turn as soon as the naval reinforcements arrive in Asiatic waters. The administration has already had experience with the Cubans. It may apply the corrective of Santiago and Havana to Iloilo.—Spokesman Review.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of La Grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

One Minute Cough Cure, cures.
That is what it was made for.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.
