

THE DAY FOR STOCK-TAKING COMES

On apace, and we discover odd lots of goods that require the pruning knife. We are not loath to give them their just desert, for these things must perish; if not by the aid of the knife, then by the dust of summer; so we give the knife preference.

Ladies' Wrappers for Winter.

We have not talked these goods to you so we will ask your attention while we tell you of some good things.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

The best dry fir cord wood at Maier & Benton's.

A series of revival meetings will begin this evening in the basement of the Methodist church, to which all are invited.

Last night Nightwatchman Phirman arrested Peter M. Gurnes for vagrancy. Recorder Gates fined him $2 today, but having not the wherewithal, he spent the day in the city jail.

Miss Alice Lyle, of Pease & Mays' dry goods department, and Miss Elizabeth Schooling, of A. M. Williams & Co.'s store, are again able to fill their positions, having suffered from attacks of grippe during last week.

Pease Haslam is another boy who has found out that coasting has its pains as well as pleasures. Saturday evening while going down Union hill he sprained his ankle severely, and this morning had to be drawn to school on a hand sled.

And the rain descended, and the slush cometh on apace, making walking a delightful past-time, and the thoughts of our residents turn from sleighs to arks, and other craft. From the looks of the Klickitats, the festive chinook has told them to "be blowed."

A. L. Gude, of the shoe department of A. M. Williams' store, having spent the past few weeks at his home in Los Angeles, returned on last night's train. Mr. Gude, in speaking of his trip from San Francisco by steamer (and berth principally,) confidentially advises his friends to make the trip by rail this time of the year. The scenery is better he says.

Mrs. Agnew, of Portland, has rented the house recently occupied by Rev. DeForest, on the corner of Fourth and Union streets, and having fitted it up nicely, will take a number of boarders and lodgers, either by the day, week or month. Apply to her at her residence. 14-3t

Saturday I. H. Taffe, of Celilo, had a painful accident, which to one of his years, will no doubt prove a serious one. When going down a flight of steps, which were very icy, he slipped and fell, giving his back a severe wrench and injuring his spine somewhat. Dr. Hollister was sent for and went up to Celilo Saturday evening to attend him. Dr. Says his injuries will cause him to be laid up for a week or two.

Grippe seems to have chosen the ministers of our city as its favorite victims. Rev. Poling being rendered unable to fill his pulpit last night on account of an attack of this disease, while Rev. Wood, who has been ill for two weeks past, was present at but one service yesterday, the League taking charge of the evening meeting. While there seems to be a number of cases of grippe in our midst, yet fortunately it is not of the dreaded type which is prevalent in Tacoma and Eastern cities.

An amusing incident occurred on Commercial street Friday afternoon. McEwen the hypnotist, had placed a person in a cataleptic state in the window of Peterson & Brown and a crowd had gathered near the store. One of the men in the crowd freely remarked that McEwen was a "fake," and that the person in the window was not in a cataleptic state, but that he also was "faking." McEwen happened along, and unknown to the man who was roasting him, listened to his abuse for a few moments. Then walking up to the man, he introduced himself, snapped his fingers in the person's face and informed him that he had lost his voice and could not speak. The man was dumb as an oyster, but he ceased his roast when McEwen brought him back to his normal condition. Doubtless he will not soon again roast hypnotists as "fakirs."—Astorian.

IT IS WORTH HEARING?

Our Neighbors Say It Is—Read What Pendleton Says.

The only criterion to go by in determining whether a play which is billed to appear is worth hearing, is the opinion of those who are considered good critics and have heard it in other places. Therefore, for the benefit of those who are in doubt about tonight's play we again quote from the East Oregonian:

"On the Suwawee River," the bill at the Frazer Friday night, was one of the best theatrical products of the season in Pendleton. In fact, it would not be saying too much to assert that there have been no more than two, if there have been two, attractions in this city since the present season opened that deserved a better patronage.

"The piece is striking for the remarkably clear construction of character, the sharp outline of each character presented by the lines and situations. It can even be said to have considerable originality of plot, a thing most unusual nowadays. The various component parts of a drama have been combined in so many ways that originality comes as a surprise and as something we had not even thought of demanding.

"One could go through the east and justly praise them all, for the company is well balanced. The Fountain City male quartet, colored, were recalled in the third act some half dozen times, and only ceased singing because they absolutely refused to respond."

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with the transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipation, well informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system. Buy the genuine, made by the California Fig Syrup Co.

One Minute Cough Cure, cures. That is what it was made for.

JOHN BROOKHOUSE DEAD.

Still the Pioneers Pass Away—One by One They Leave Us.

It was a surprise to most of the residents of the city this morning about 11 o'clock to hear of the death of John Brookhouse, which occurred at 10 o'clock at the Skibbe hotel. All have been aware that the old gentleman had been in failing health for many months, but even the recent attack of grippe, with which he has been suffering for the past five days, did not seem a cause for alarm. However, in his weakened condition, it proved too much for him to stand, although yesterday he seemed quite strong.

Among the pioneer residents of The Dalles and vicinity none were more familiarly known than was John Brookhouse, who for the past thirty-five years has been going in and out among us with his pleasant manner and witty greeting for all, making him not only a favorite with his companions, but the children as well. Within the past year or so his steps have been noticed to falter, his jokes were less frequently told and he seemed to be growing weary, as do many who have passed the three score and ten years.

John Brookhouse was born in Castlebar, County Mayo, Ireland, on November 1, 1822, making him 76 years of age before leaving Ireland he was married to Catharine Clarke, who died at the home ranch on Tygh Ridge, October 13, 1888. He came to America forty years ago, and lived in Minersville, Penn., for five years, when he came to Oregon, settling on a ranch on Tygh Ridge and engaging in stock raising, where he has since lived, with the exception of a few years, when he was a resident of this city.

Nine children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Brookhouse, four of whom survive him—Mrs. F. W. L. Skibbe, at whose home he died; Mrs. E. Boynton, of The Dalles; Mrs. Brittain, of Sumpter; and John Brookhouse, of Dufur. Three sisters also mourn his death: Mrs. P. Gorman, of Kingsley; Mrs. Wm. Redmond, of Grass Valley, and one in Ireland, whose name we failed to learn. It is always with regret that we chronicle the death of our pioneer residents, and realize that within a few years the last one will have passed away. Mr. Brookhouse will be greatly missed, being one of those good-hearted, whole-souled men, who make the world happier by their presence.

The funeral will take place from the Catholic church at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. All friends are invited to be present at the service.

G. A. R. and W. E. C. Installation.

Saturday evening the G. A. R. and W. E. C. held their annual installation of officers, which for the former were as follows: Post commander, John W. Lewis; S. V. commander, R. L. Aiken; J. V. commander, M. Flock; Q. M., C. H. Brown; Adjt., J. C. Miens; Chap., J. H. Baker; O. D., Lewis Johnson; O. G., Lewis Nichols; Surg., John Parrant; Q. M. Sergt., P. T. Cram; Sergt. Maj., J. M. Thomas.

After the installation of officers of the Post by Comrade Thurston, Mrs. Mary Scott Myers was introduced as installing officer, and in a beautiful and impressive manner installed the following officers in the W. E. C.: President, Mrs. Lizzie Ulrich; Sr. V., absent; Jr. V., Mrs. Myrtle Gifford; Secretary, Mrs. Ella Grimes; Treasurer, Mrs. Blanche Patterson; Con., Mrs. Sarah Bunch; Guard, Mrs. Bell Berger; Ass't. Con., Mrs. Emma Rees; Ass't. Guard, Mrs. Mary Nichols; Color Bearer, Meadames Eliza Kelsay, Ollie F. Stephens, Ella A. Paddock, Edna Learned. Mrs. Myers was then installed as Chaplain, after which the new commander of the Post, Captain Lewis, was called to the chair, and gave the closing remarks of his lecture, or "talk," as he insists on calling it, warming the hearts of those present by his beautiful tribute to the "stars and stripes."
