

THE DAY FOR STOCK-TAKING COMES

On apace, and we discover odd lots of goods that require the pruning knife. We are not loath to give them their just desert, for these things must perish; if not by the aid of the knife, then by the dust of summer; so we give the knife preference.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

The best dry fir cord wood at Maier & Benton's.

The special school meeting for the purpose of levying school tax is called to be held at the Court street school house at 3 o'clock, Manday Jan. 30.

This morning Monroe Grimes received word of the serious illness of his mother in Portland, who is suffering from pneumonia.

Fancy Washington navel oranges 25 cents a dozen, California seedlings 10 cents a dozen at The Dalles Commission Company.

Just received a fresh consignment of bananas, cauliflower and cabbage and pickled pigs feet at The Dalles Commission Company.

The latest death of an Oregonian at Manila is that of Wistar Hawthorne, of Eugene, son of Professor Hawthorne. He was twenty years of age and died of paralysis of the heart.

A letter received from one of the boys at Manila says that a monument has been erected over Will Field's grave, and that the Oregon boys are keeping the grave in good condition, having planted grass thereon and made it look less lone.

Elan Frost, a pioneer of '69, who died at Canby Sunday morning, was the father of Mrs. Turner, of Hood River, and Mrs. Jas. Nolan, of Dufur. His remains were brought to this city last night and taken to Dufur this morning for burial. Mr. Frost, who was in his 69th year, was a resident of Eastern Oregon for five years, his wife being buried here three years ago.

The ice blockade here seems to be invincible, for while the river below and above is clear, the thawing process has "cut little ice" at this point. This morning the ice from above crowded down and piled up below the city, cracking and making a great do. It certainly can't hold out much longer, and must give way. The boats will no doubt be able to make the trip Friday.

This morning at 7 o'clock the family of M. T. Nolan heard footsteps in the hall at their home on Second street, and upon coming out, Will Moabns saw a man going down the back stairs. He immediately started after him and found that he had in his possession an overcoat and a dress coat, which he had taken from one of the adjoining rooms. He took them away from him and afterward had Marshal Lauer arrest him. Later he appeared before Recorder Gates, and was bound over in the sum of $200 to appear before the grand jury.

The Chronicle this morning received an invitation from the press committee of the Irish fair to be present at a reception to be given to the newspaper fraternity at the exposition building Friday evening. The Irish fair which begins Saturday and ends on February 4th, is the topic for conversation now in Portland and will be one of the grandest affairs given, in that city for some time. It is to be coaducted by the Sisters of Mercy, and the proceeds will go toward a worthy institution—a home for the aged. Many Dalles people have signified their intention to attend.

Through the kindness of Senator Dufur and Representative Roberts we received a copy of house bill No. 108, introduced by Williamson and termed the scalp bounty bill. As it is virtually the same as when published some weeks ago, we deemed it unnecessary to again print it. We are also in receipt of Senate bill No. 3, regarding educational matters in the state. No doubt its contents would be interesting to many of our readers, but containing thirty-six pages of type-written matter, we would be compelled to devote the whole paper to that bill alone were we to attempt its publication. Any one who may be desirous of perusing it will be given the privilege by calling at this office.

Farce comedy will have an inning at the Vogt, Saturday, January 21st, when Chas. E. Blaney's big extravaganza success, "A Boy Wanted," will be presented. This production is Mr. Blaney's latest success, who has to his credit the creation of several big laugh-producers. Of course the "Boy Wanted" has no decided plot, but it serves to introduce several novelties, besides hosts of pretty girls, well-known comedians, singers, dancers and high-class vaudeville artists, making one of the largest and strongest companies traveling, and playing to the capacity of houses everywhere.

Quite a large number of friends gathered at the Catholic church this morning to offer the last tribute of respect to an honored pioneer, and listen to the services over the remains of John Brookhouse. Father Brongseest spoke in the highest terms of the life of one whom we all know well, and of his devotion to his religion. The floral offerings were many and very beautiful, among them being a flower crescent, bearing the name "Father." The pall bearers who were all old friends of the deceased, were: J. Dougherty, H. Frazier, G. A. Liebe, R. F. Gibbons, J. P. McNerney, J. Daley, of Sherman county.

I. H. Taffe, the Celilo canneryman, has filed suit in the state circuit court against the O. R. & N. Co. to recover $1500 damages on account of a delayed shipment of fresh salmon. He alleges that he shipped 10,000 pounds of fish at Celilo September 17, 1898, to Chesebro Bros., Fulton market, New York city, in refrigerator cars. The salmon, he says, was due to arrive September 23d, and he avers that the contract was that it be sent through at once. On September 23d, Taffe states, the shipment was worth $1500 in New York, but on September 27th, when it got there, he alleges salmon had taken a drop, and was away down in price, and the company sold the fish to pay the freight charges, so he did not receive anything. He therefore seeks to recover his loss. Dolph, Mallory, Simon & Gearin are his attorneys.—Oregonian.

Anti-Treat Bill.

Mr. Morton, of Wasco, has the following bill on the clerk's desk to knock out the business of treating: "That any person who shall in any saloon or place where liquors are sold, give or treat another to any drink or other quantity of spirituous, malt or vinous liquors, with intent that the same shall be drank or consumed by the person so treated, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $20, or by imprisonment in the county jail of the county where such offense is committed, not less than two nor more than ten days." An emergency clause is attached.

The Telegram says:

"If the bill of Morton of Wasco county to prohibit treating in barrooms, introduced in the house yesterday, becomes a law there will be many a beer hall loser who will have to go dry. It is not believed, however, that the bill will pass, for the saloon men have too many friends among the legislators. Should it appear, however, that there is any probability of the bill receiving favorable consideration an effort will be made to exempt 'house bill No. 104' from the operation of the law."

Should the bill pass, its effects would be more far reaching than any temperance pledge.

The Pet of the Family Taken.

This morning at 5 o'clock Leo, the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Harkness, died of spinal meningitis at their home on the corner of Tenth and Union streets.

The little fellow, who has been sick but a short time, was not thought to be in a dangerous condition, but complained continually of his back hurting, especially when he was moved, and a number of bruises were finally found on it. These, it is thought might have been caused when coasting. However, he said nothing concerning an accident.

He took a very bad cold, and spinal meningitis resulted, causing his death.

The lad was a bright, attractive little boy, and the pet of the family, for whom great sympathy is expressed, being comparative strangers in the city, Mr. Harkness having taken charge of the shoe department in Pease & Mays' store about six months since and moved his family here from the East. Mrs. Harkness is prostrate with grief, having scarcely recovered from the shock caused by the death of a little daughter a year or so ago.

Leo was a pupil in Miss Flynn's room in the public school, and was a member of the same class as Guy Root, who died last week.

The time for the funeral has not yet been set, but will probably take place Friday.

Woodman Installation.

Last night at Fraternity hall, Mt. Hood Camp, W. of W., and their auxiliary, Cedar Circle, Women of Woodcraft, installed their officers for the ensuing term. After a piano solo by Mrs. E. J. Collins, Mr. Jas. Snipes installed the following officers of Mt. Hood camp: Con. Com., C. T. Rawson; Advisor, C. F. Stephens; Banker, C. L. Phillips; Clerk, W. D. Harper; Escort, S. D. Garner; Watchman, R. G. Wilson; Sentry, D. W. Mann.

The officers of Cedar Circle were then installed by Mrs. Anna Blakeney: Guardian N., Mrs. Ollie F. Stephens; Advisor, Mrs. Inez Filloon; Clerk, Miss Etta Wren; Banker, Mrs. Ella Dawson; Magician, Mrs. Bell Berger; Attendant, Miss Emma Williams; I. S., Miss Lena Jackson; O. S., Mr. Jas. Taylor; Capt. of Guards, Miss Rachel Morgan; Manager, Mrs. Viola Rorden.

A vocal duet by Mesdames Jayne and Groat, select reading by Mrs. Inez Filloon, instrumental duet, piano and mandolin by Misses Lola and Lela Kelsay, after which refreshments were served, and a social time followed.

Freas Saunders has purchased the wood business of J. T. Reynolds in this city. Those desiring good wood will find him by ringing up 'phone number 12.

NO INTERESTING LEGISLATION.

Few Measures Coming Up for Final Passage—State Fair Appropriation Bill Referred to Ways and Means Committee.

CAPITOL, Salem, Jan. 18.—There was another short session of the senate this morning.

Routine business continues, with but few measures coming up for final passage.

The Cottage Grove charter bill has passed the senate, as did also the bill authorizing the trustees of the Jefferson institute to transfer property.

The bill repealing the state fair appropriation was referred to the house committee on ways and means.

A measure reducing the salary of the district attorney of the Third district promises to cause a lively discussion when it comes up for final passage.

The assembly will attend the Workmen's memorial services tonight at the Methodist church, having received a special invitation.

It is very likely the senate will defeat the bill adding two judges to the supreme court. The court commission will, however, receive more favorable consideration.

Notice to Parents and Guardians.

Beginning classes will be organized in the first primary departments of the Academy Park and Court Street schools on Monday, January 23, 1899. All beginners who expect to enter the public schools during the spring term should be present for enrollment next Monday.
