COMPLICATIONS AT SAMOA

Consul Declares the Affront an Insult to the United States.

BRITISH WARSHIP OFF FOR APIA

German Consul Forcibly Expelled From the Supreme Court Building by the American and British Consuls, Backed by a Force of Marines.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, Jan. 19.—Further particulars regarding the disturbances at Samoa show that Mataafa's followers numbered about 5000 men and the adherents of Malietoa Tanus only about 1000. There was two hours' fighting between the rival forces, during which several of the warriors were decapitated.

The American consul issued a proclamation claiming the Berlin treaty had had the same force as a law of congress and that an insult to the supreme court of Samoa is therefore equivalent to an insult to the government at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The navy department has issued orders to the cruiser Philadelphia to proceed to Samoa at once. The Philadelphia, with Admiral Kautz on board, arrived at San Diego, Cal., this morning from Acapulco.

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, Jan. 19.—It is reported that owing to the trouble in Samoa three British warships will proceed there, and one American warship will start for the islands from Honolulu.

German Consul Evicted.
LONDON, Jan. 19.—A special from Auckland, N. Z., says:

The British and American consuls were compelled to force the doors of the supreme court at Apia, in which the German consul had established himself, and to push him into the street. All parties at Apia, the dispatch continues, unite in condemning the German consul for the fighting which has taken place, but not the rival kings. It is pointed out that in violation of all agreements, the consul accompanied Mataafa's force when the claimant invaded the town and encouraged opposition to Malietoa Tanus.

When the British and American consuls were informed as to the situation they adjourned the court and locked the building. The German consul then demanded the keys, and they were refused him. He then broke open the doors, removed the locks and replaced them with others. He afterward brought the German municipal president into the chamber, and the latter went upon the balcony and shouted to the British and American marines assembled in the square: "I am the supreme court; I am the chief justice." The crowd replied with jeers, and the British consul demanded the keys of the building, which were refused. A Scotchman named Mackie thereupon climbed on top of the building and hoisted the Samoan flag, while the British and American consuls and a number of marines forced the doors and hurried the German consul into the street.

Then the two consuls formally and legally, according to the dispatch, opened court and issued a warning against any further interference with its jurisdiction threatening to arrest and imprison any one attempting to do so.

Later dispatches say the situation is now quiet and the German consul remains in his consulate.

German Officers to Blame.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—It has been realized for a long time past that there was need for a modification of the terms of the tripartite treaty by which we assumed joint guardianship of Samoa with England and Germany, but up to this point it has not been possible to get all three of the powers to agree on any one project.

Negotiations have been on foot in relation to the succession to the Samoan throne, and it is calculated to lead to ill feeling, at least, that German officers should resort to a coup d'etat at this stage of the negotiations. It is believed much of the responsibility for this arbitrary action must rest upon Raffle, the German president of the municipal council at Apia, whose troublesome attitude of late has led to remonstrances on the part of other powers.

The United States, Great Britain and Germany, it is believed, could easily reach a satisfactory solution of the crisis in Samoa if they could deal with the subject themselves in the usual course, but there is some fear of ill considered action on the part of some of the agents of these governments in Samoa before they can receive instructions from their governments.

The interests of the United States are in the hands of Lloyd W. Osborne, in whose discretion the state department reposes great confidence.

Arrested a Thief.

ROSEBURG, Or., Jan. 18.—About a week ago $500 in coin and some valuable articles were stolen from an old man named John Weaver, near Canyonville. Curtis Hartline, 22 years of age, was arrested there yesterday by Constable T. J. Butcher on a charge of having stolen the money. After his arrest Hartline admitted his guilt and was held to answer. The constable started with him to Roseburg, boarding the train at Riddle. The prisoner went outside to get a drink of water and failed to return. He has not been seen since. Hartline is a stranger in this country.

Vessel Lost Off Point Reyes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—From reports brought in by the steamer collier Wyefteld, Captain Cartmer, some unknown schooner has gone to pieces off Point Reyes, and the probability is that all hands were lost, as the wreck has not been reported.

While off the point the Wyefteld sailed through a floating mass of wreckage of ship's timbers, bulwarks, ballast and deck fittings that looked as though they had been a part of some coasting schooner.

The name of the ship could not be found on the timbers, nor were any bodies seen, although a vigilant lookout was maintained.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of La Grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" CATARRH OF THE STOMACH

A Pleasant, Simple but Safe and Effective Cure For It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, sickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, or thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate surface of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanston the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. L. Booher, of 2710 Dearborn st., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the very simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals. Send for little book, mailed free on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.
