Guardian of Cedar Circle Surprised.

Last evening being the birthday eve of Guardian Neighbor Ollie Stephens, the members of Cedar Circle decided to remember her for her past faithfulness and for the esteem in which she is held by Cedar Circle, who teach the doctrine of the brotherhood of man and the sisterhood of woman. The hall was decorated with fir trees to appear as a forest, and after lodge closed the Guardian was informed that a luncheon would be spread in honor of her birthday. The table was laid and a delicate repast with chocolate was prepared. The Guardian was led to her seat of honor, with ex-Clerk Rintoul and Clerk Wrenn on either side, and across from the Guardian were the Banker and Advisor and other officers and members of the Circle were on all sides. Mirth and wit flowed merrily, and when all had finished, the Advisor, called the attention of the Guardian to the fact that the luncheon was not the only remembrance of her birthday, but that something more substantial was in store for her, and in the name of Cedar Circle presented her with a pretty silver berry spoon as a token of the esteem in which she is held by the Circle.

The evening was pleasantly spent and all voted it better to give than receive and began wishing their birthdays were near. There will be installation next week and balloting on candidates. F.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Dalles Club Minstrels

At the Vogt opera house Jan. 23th.

Reserved seat sale commences Jan. 24.

Miss Taylor's Kindergarten school will open about the middle of February, when she hopes to meet all her former pupils, as well as any others who may desire to attend.

Tomorrow morning and evening Rev. Warner will fill the pulpit at the M. E. church.

Rev. J. H. Wood, the pastor, failing to improve as rapidly as was hoped for, has not sufficient strength to fulfill the duties; but expects to be able to be present at both services.

Russell, the morphine fiend, was brought before Recorder Gates yesterday to answer to the charge of vagrancy.

Being unable to pay the fine of $20, he will spend ten days in the city jail, where he will no doubt receive better care and more to eat than he has in some time past.

The managers of The Dalles laundry wish to announce that on account of putting in new machinery there will be no washing done on Friday nor Saturday.

Therefore those who have laundry for the coming week must have it ready by Monday morning.

While Rev. Poling has improved somewhat, he does not yet feel equal to the task of filling his pulpit tomorrow.

Rev. D. B. Gray, of Portland, will preach both morning and evening. Mr. Gray was formerly pastor of the church here, and his friends will be greatly pleased to hear him again.

It takes a larger ice blockade than was encountered yesterday to stop the D. P. & A. N. boats.

The Dalles City spent three or four hours "bucking" the jam which it ran across near the Point at 12 o'clock yesterday, and succeeded in reaching the city at about 3:30. She made the regular trip today.

Just one week from tonight the show of the season takes place, when we are to listen to our own talent in a black-face entertainment.

Clark, Hampshire, Crossen and Frank are among the well known artists, while a number will make their first appearance, and are said to be first-class. Box sheet will be open Tuesday.

The real boy, who is "Wanted" tonight at the Vogt, is in the city, having arrived last night. If you meet him you will know him by his odd appearance. He has applied for positions at several business houses during the day, being engaged by Blakeley & Houghton to saw wood, which he did to the queen's taste. He's all right.

The Oregon Wool Association will meet in The Dalles Tuesday, Jan. 24th, at 10 a. m. in the Commercial Club Rooms. Reports received indicate that a large number of stockmen will be present. Capt. S. B. Ormsby, special forestry agent, will address the meeting.

Rev. A. W. Rider, of Los Angeles, will speak at the Calvary Baptist on Monday evening, Jan. 23d. Subject, "Missions." Mr. Rider is soon to go to Japan as a missionary under the auspices of the American Baptist Foreign Missionary society. He illustrates his talk with several maps on Japan, which will make it doubly interesting.

The funeral of Peter Johnson will take place at the Catholic church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. All friends are invited to be present. Mr. Johnson, who died at Wardner, Idaho, on January 18th of pneumonia, was 44 years of age. He was a resident of The Dalles for years, being employed as boiler maker at the shops here. From this city he removed to Mexico, where he remained a short time, afterward going to Idaho, where he was engaged in mining. He leaves a wife and several small children.

NEW CHARTER ACCEPTED.

City Levies Five Mills Regular Tax—One Mill and Half Special.

The special meeting of the council which was called for last night, met at the recorder's office at 7:30 o'clock, presided over by Mayor Nolan, with Councilmen Kuck, Clough, Joins, Gunning, Stephens, Batts, Michelbach and Keller present.

Mayor Nolan stated that the object of the meeting was for the levying of a city tax for the year 1898, and also to consider the proposed new charter.

Kuck moved that the city levy a tax of five mills as a general fund and a mill and a half as a special tax for the purpose of paying the interest and redemption of the city bonds when they become redeemable. Stephens seconded the motion, which was carried. This is the first time the council has taken advantage of the opportunity to levy the special tax in years, but now deem it necessary.

The mayor then pointed out to the council the principal points of the proposed change in the charter. The creating of a sinking fund was first mentioned. Another important matter is the giving of the council and city officers additional power to compel property owners to repair sewers, sidewalks, streets, etc. It would be well had that body more authority over such matters at present, or were the property owners to take a small pride in the appearance of their property themselves. The new charter also grants the power to license places here spirituous, vinous and malt liquors are sold and not drank on the premises, the license not to be less than $50 a year. The present charter prescribes the duties of the superintendent of water works, while the new gives the water commissioners the right to determine what they shall be, increasing the duties of the recorder by making him clerk of the commission.

The city will be given the right to appropriate the right-of-way over private property for the purpose of laying sewers. According to the old the city was allowed to bond itself to the amount of $25,000 for the construction of a bridge across the Columbia, the new increases the amount to $50,000. Another matter it regulates is the appointment of marshal and recorder, requiring a roll call in the council in confirming these two officers.

Mr. Goit, the surveyor, being present informed the council that the description of the city's boundary lines as is set forth in the proposed charter, is in some respects indefinite, and suggested changes in the same, which will not materially alter them, but make them more definite. Motion of Johns, seconded by Gunning that committee on new charter be instructed to conform with suggestions. The motion carried.

Moved and carried that the charter be accepted and sent to the legislature not later than Wednesday. The meeting then adjourned.

A PERFECT EVENING.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. McCoy Entertain Their Friends at Whist.

No social event could be more fully and perfectly arranged than was the whist party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. McCoy last evening. Their guests were for the most part, like and their wives, and the decoration of the rooms was in purple and white, the electric jets being of these two shades, with forget-me-nots painted on the outside; also the initial "M." The early part of the evening was spent at whist, J. T. Peters proudly carrying away a silver bonbon spoon as proof of his success, Mr. Wm. Moody being consoled with a comical toy.

At the close of the game, the host, accompanied by Mrs. Peeters, led the way to the dining room, which was not only inviting, but beautiful in its decorations. From the chandeliers, lit by purple lights, hunting was festooned to the corners of the room, while the table was daintily spread, and from a bouquet in the center, purple ribbons extended, smilax also being much in evidence. Nor were the more substantial neglected, the most elaborate of lunches tempting the guests, and causing them to vote it the best of the season. As the bell struck eleven the party rose and sang "Auld Lang Syne," J. S. Fish as chorister.

During the entire evening, with the exception of short intervals, the sweetest of music was played by Messrs. Ryan and Aiden, which added greatly to the completeness of the pleasure. The hours after lunch were passed in music and dancing. Led by Mrs. Moody the guests joined in singing the latest catchy airs, after which Mrs. Huntington sang that sweetest of all ballads, "Ben Bolt."

The following were delighted with the enjoyment afforded: Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Peters, Dr. and Mrs. Logan, Judge and Mrs. Blakeley, Judge and Mrs. Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Seufert, Mrs. T. A. Hudson, Misses Clara Davis and Rose Michell, Max Vogt, Jr.
