WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

A. M. Williams & Co. announce the arrival of new goods today. See their ad.

If you want to find out "Who's Who," you can do so by attending the play at the Vogt next Saturday night.

Howard Marshall, formerly stage driver between this place and Goldendale, is now deputy in the county treasurer's office in Goldendale.

Michael Schwartz, who was shot Friday night by John Sheeche, is reported as getting along very favorable so far as can be determined. He is not, however, out of danger.

Saturday and yesterday an occasional straggler made his way to the river to skate, and taking notice that he came out on top, a crowd ventured down this afternoon, and report the ice safe.

The high scores at the Moody bowling alleys last week were as follows: Monday, C. Heppner, 54; Tuesday, Staniels, 68; Wednesday, Heppner, 59; Thursday, M. Miller, 57; Friday, Wand, 55; Saturday, Frank, 54; Sunday, Heppner, 64.

Miss Helen Lytle, who has been attending the high school here, left last night for her home in Wasco. A farewell party was given her Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. Patterson, where she has made her home.

Quite a little concern is felt regarding the fate of the Regulator and other craft, which are hemmed in at the foot of Court street. Mr. Allaway informs us an attempt will be made to move them up the river by cutting a channel for them to pass through. This will be a difficult task, but seems to be the only alternative.

At the end of the fourth week of the legislative session, with two more working weeks remaining, 224 bills have been introduced in the senate and 371 in the house, a total of 595. The senate has passed 62 of its own bills and the house 88. Seventeen bills have passed both houses, most of them being incorporation bills or bills of local bearing only, and fourteen have been approved by the governor.

Saturday afternoon Sheeche, who shot Michael Schwartz Friday night in Michelbach's saloon, had a preliminary hearing before Justice Bayard, and his bonds were fixed at $1000. This afternoon the bonds were secured and he is now out of jail, and will appear at the next regular term of court.

Mrs. Margaret Maxwell, of Heppner, a patient received on January 22d, last, died at the asylum yesterday, aged seventy-two years, the cause being apoplexy, following senile exhaustion. The remains were turned over to A. M. Clough, and by him prepared for burial, and shipped to relatives in Heppner, where the funeral will be held.—Salem Statesman.

Yesterday during the fire Vic Schmidt had a lucky escape from serious injury. Having climbed to the roof to assist in putting out the fire, he slipped and fell to the frozen ground thirty-five feet below. Those who saw the fall, thought surely he had at least broken some bones, but were surprised to find he had escaped with but a slightly sprained wrist. In nine cases out of ten such a fall would have resulted in a very serious, if not fatal injury.

Mr. Wise is in receipt of a letter from E. E. Mallory, who has been asked by the ladies of the Commercial Club of The Dalles, to endeavor to arrange a bowling match with the A. F. C. ladies' team. The latter does not state where The Dalles ladies wish to bowl—whether on the local alleys, at home or in Portland. Mr. Wise will see the ladies of the club and find out whether or not they wish to take part in the match. It is very likely that the challenge will be accepted. It promises to be quite interesting, as The Dalles and Astoria ladies are the crack bowlers of the state.—Astorian.

We're all in the same box—not a sweat box either, but an Oregon ice chest. So far Meacham carries the banner for the coldest record, with the thermometer at 42 below. At Gervais, in the Valley, it was 6 below; while here, according to official report, the lowest thermometer was one degree below. Portland claims that the only thermometers to be depended upon, give about ten above. Well, that may be all right, but it sounds a little bit frosty. Perhaps the thermometers there are not as susceptible as ours, but if it isn't as cold in Portland as it is here, every visitor from here who has given in a report is a prevericator.

Last Tuesday Mr. J. M. Huntington, wishing to show the managers of the Alliance Insurance Company what brave firemen we have and how no company need fear that any stone will be left unturned to stop the ravages of fire in our city, mailed them a copy of the CHRONICLE containing an article regarding the Columbia Hotel fire. This morning he received the following answer: "We are today in receipt of marked copy of THE DALLES CHRONICLE and have read with interest the description of the Columbia Hotel fire and its treatment by your fire department. It certainly speaks volumes for its efficiency when they can arrest a fire in a structure of this character with only a comparatively nominal damage as its result." Signed, E. T. Niebling, Aes't Manager.

McEwen attracted a large audience Saturday night, and gave a very laughable entertainment, the cake walk causing merriment which knew no bounds. Even when under the hypnotic influence the subjects seem to be on the alert for newspaper people, and when selling pop corn on that occasion one of them attacked a reporter and declared he owed him ten cents. Dick assured him he had not been purchasing pop corn, but devoting his attention not to the question of pop corn but popping the question. At length McEwen was compelled to appear on the scene and by reading his mind verify the statement before the fellow was satisfied. After the entertainment the great hypnotist spent a short time with his brother Elks, leaving on the night train for Pendleton, where he appears tonight.

The minstrel company will leave on the 5:30 train this evening for Heppner, where great preparations are being made to receive them. With but a very few exceptions the company will have the same personnel as when the performance was given here. In place of the solo by Charles Clarke, we understand N. J. Sinnott will appear in his famous "Sissy Sideways" sketch, which attracted so much attention at the first show given here. The boys are to give a parade tomorrow noon, and Dalles young ladies whose "best fellows" are among the company have no little concern regarding the consequences when our boys appear on parade, for they are certainly irresistible, and Heppner girls are said to be formidable rivals. Bert Phelps has been untiring in his efforts to make their visit a success, while Will Crossen has sent from Ione for a number of seats, and will take all his girls, if it takes a special car to carry them.

NOT IN IT

A Late Report States that the Oregon Regiment Was Not Engaged in the Fight at Manila.

PORTLAND, Feb. 6—4:15 p. m.—[Special to THE CHRONICLE:]—The Oregon regiment was not engaged in the Manila fight. The latest estimate gives total number of killed in battle, 54; wounded, 125.

In Legislative Halls.

SALEM, State House, Feb. 6.—Both houses convened at 2:30.

The feature in the senate this afternoon is the third reading of the bill allowing clerical aid to the supreme court. House feature is a measure placing district attorneys on a salary.

A resolution was introduced in the senate congratulating the Oregon regiment at Manila on their heroic conduct and extending sympathy to relatives of the noble dead.

Cascade Locks Water Pipes.

The hydraulic force which operates the locks at Cascades comes from high mountain streams through pipes. In the hurry to open the locks by the specified time these pipes were left exposed, and under ordinary circumstances did as well this way as any. The cold snap last week, however, has proven that it is necessary to put these pipes well under ground.

It has been suggested that steam be substituted for the hydraulic pressure, but it is not likely that this will be done. It is the impression that all that will be necessary is to place water pipes well under ground. The hydraulic force is more effective and less expensive than steam, and with proper protection the locks need never be closed again from the cause that closed them this winter.

Another Sunday Fire.

Sunday seems to be the favorite day in The Dalles for fires. Accordingly, yesterday about 11:30 o'clock the clang of the fire bell was again heard and residents rushed from their homes and the various places of worship, each one feeling assured that it was their home or place of business which was on fire. However, only one was correct in the conjecture, and that was Miss Schmidt who assured the other members of the Congregational choir that she felt certain it was her home, as the chimney was burning out when she left. And it proved to be the case.

Although there was still a little ice on the roof, a cinder from the burning chimney succeeded in catching the shingles, and a hole about three feet in diameter was soon made by the flames. As quickly as possible the firemen were on the scene, and the engine was located at the cistern on the Catholic church corner. For about twenty minutes the water played on the fire, and was successful in extinguishing it.

The damage, which was mostly caused by the water, has not as yet been fully determined, but is thought to be about $200, and is confined to two bedrooms, one up stairs and the other just below, while the halls were damaged slightly. Nothing will be done toward making repairs until the insurance adjustors arrive.

While the result of the fire was not what might be termed disastrous, it is anything but pleasant to have living-rooms soaked with water this cold weather. However, Mr. Schmidt and his family consider they had a lucky escape.

For the past week there have been two men advertising and introducing a new kind of soap among our citizens. It is known as Blue Mountain toilet soap. The above named soap is made from the product of a mineral soap mine located in Eastern Oregon, and is without a doubt the best five cent soap on the market. It is put up by the Columbia Star

Manufacturing Company of Portland. Their Sunshine scouring soap is without an equal for cleaning or scouring of whatever nature, and is harmless to the skin, as it contains no acids. For sale by all up-to-date grocers. Ask your dealer for it.

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with the transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipation, well informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system. Buy the genuine, made by the California Fig Syrup Co.
