

SYRUP OF FIGS
NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. Killed a Cougar.

W. R. Winans killed his seventeenth cougar, or mountain lion, at Green Point on West Hood river. Mr. Winans got on the animal's trail and found where he had killed a deer and was dragging it to his lair. He had no difficulty in tracking it in the snow, and soon found his game up a tree. He came upon the cougar sooner than he expected, and when he saw him in the tree the animal's eyes were gleaming at him, while his tail played like that of a house cat when ready to spring upon its prey. A center shot between the eyes brought him to the ground.

He is the largest cougar, Mr. Winans says, he ever killed. His weight was about 250 pounds and his length eleven feet from tip to tip. He was an old settler and his ears were torn in shreds, showing that he had been in many battles. Jim Crow, an old Indian hunter, says he has seen the same cougar many a time and is glad he is dead. Mr. Winans will send the skin to Portland and have it made into a rug.—Glacier.

Elegant new Pullman palace sleepers between Portland and Chicago have just been placed in service via the O. R. & N., Oregon Short Line, Union Pacific and Chicago & Northwestern railways daily every day in the year. Cars are of the very latest pattern, in fact being the most improved up-to-date sleeping cars turned out by the Pullman Company. These new palaces will leave Portland on the evening fast train of the O. R. & N., arriving at Chicago the morning of the fourth day and running through without change via Granger and Omaha. 1914

Mystery Cleared Up.
ASTORIA, Or. Feb. 9.—The body of William Chapman, formerly night watchman on the steamer Geo. W. Elder, was found yesterday near the shore back of the O. R. & N. dock. It was in a bad condition, but its identification is complete. On the morning of January 4, the Elder arrived down the river, and left out at 5:30. When she arrived at the dock here on that morning, Chapman came ashore and continued to keep up a drunk that he had started before leaving Portland. When the whistle blew for her to start out, Policeman Phillips saw him staggering toward the dock, and followed him until he was safely on the dock. He was never known to have gone on board the boat that morning, so he must have fallen overboard while attempting to get aboard. His widow, who lives at 306 1/2 Burnside street between Fifth and Sixth, Portland, was here a few days ago, making inquiries for him. His body is in the possession of Coroner Pohl, subject to directions from his widow. He was quite well known here, and has worked on the ocean steamers for a number of years.

La Grippe is again epidemic. Every precaution should be taken to avoid it. Its specific cure is One Minute Cough Cure. A. J. Mr. S. A. Fackler, editor of the Micanopy (Fla.), Hustler, with his wife and children, suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly.
